Daily Stormer Sunday Edition

Samizdat!

They had that filthy spic dead to rights. They had him at the pier. They had him firing a gun. They had a body of a dead white girl with the bullet in her back. He murdered her in cold blood, just because she was beautiful and white and the kind of perfect woman that respects and appreciates her father and spends tons of time with him. She died in his arms. This wicked invader specifically sought out the highest quality white woman he could to slaughter in cold blood. Kate was gorgeous and had a strong connection to her family and was the kind of cornerstone of the community we can only hope is our wife, daughter, sister, or neighbor. They let her killer walk.

Do you know what this was? This was jury nullification. That jury let this evil murderer go because the victim was white. This is their celebration of white genocide. They got an opportunity to let a killer beaver go free, and they gladly took it. This was a bunch of kikes in California gleefully announcing to the world that it is no longer a crime to murder your women. That they killed Kate in cold blood, and the next thing you know they'll be coming for your daughters.

I wish I could say that when my children read about Kate they would read about how we brutally tortured and executed her killer in the square, and placed the dismembered pieces of his body on pikes so that those attempting to travel from Mexico could see what we do to their kind that misbehave. When one day my kid asks me, "hey dad, what did you do when they murdered Kate and let her killer go free" I feel like "well son, I published blog posts on the Internet" is a totally insufficient answer but it's the only one I'll be able to give.

She had dreams too, you disgusting brown scum. You stole them. You will be made to pay for what you stole.

If they can't steal your women by turning them into mindless whores through television, music, and public education, they'll just send some monstrous Aztec to execute them in a ritual sacrifice. Then they'll have a bunch of their own vote "not guilty" and smile as the guy walks free. This is where we're at.

Daily Stormer is red now. It's not just how we vote—it's the color of our blood, shed every day on the altar of diversity.

We must avenge the fallen. We must collect the blood debt from these criminal kikes.

We Should Sell Migrants to Libyan Slave Traders

Andrew Anglin
Daily Stormer
December 3, 2017

I don't claim to understand the modern system of morality that the planet is currently functioning on. But it was apparently perfectly morally acceptable for Hillary Clinton and Angela Merkel to turn Libya into a slave trading capital (the former destroyed the existing government, the latter told trillions of niggers to come to Europe by passing through an enslavement zone).

So here's the thing: we've got all of these "migrants" from all over the Islamic world who fled the brutal civil war in Syria, and now that it's over, none of them appear to be going home. We've also spent a fortune on these so-called "human beings."

So, why don't we sell them into slavery in Libya? We can get rid of the savages, get at least a little bit of money back, and it fits into the present moral restrictions we're working within.

The Independent:

"Does anybody need a digger? This is a digger, a big strong man, he'll dig," the auctioneer says in grainy mobile phone footage, gesturing to one of the two tall, silent young men next to him.

"What am I bid, what am I bid?"

The two men were sold together for a total of $400 (£296).

Not bad, not bad.

I'm sure not all the migrants we've got are diggers, but we've got like 3 million of the fuckers. So even if they're only $100 each on average, that's a solid chunk of change.

The world has been shocked by the release of a CNN investigation into the slave trade thriving in the lawlessness of post-Gaddafi Libya.

Wait, why would someone be shocked by that?

It is estimated hundreds of sub-Saharan Africans travelling to Libya in the hopes of getting on a boat across the Mediterranean to a better life in Europe are being sold by smugglers each week—either into lives of manual or sex slavery or ransomed to their families, passed between militia groups.

The UN is trying to decide if crimes against humanity charges can be brought against perpetrators.

Yeah, probably not.

We've been trying to charge this bitch with all sorts of shit and she always weasels her way out of it.

Protests erupted in Paris and several other cities and the Libyan government—only in control of around half the country—has promised an investigation.

"It is now clear that slavery is an outrageous reality in Libya. The auctions are reminiscent of one of the darkest chapters in human history, when millions of Africans were uprooted, enslaved, trafficked and auctioned to the highest bidder," a statement from a group of UN human rights experts said.

YES, WHITES INVENTED SLAVERY IN AFRICA.

Many Libyan activists and non-governmental organisations have been trying to raise the alarm about the worsening situation in Libya for months.

The UN's International Organisation for Migration (IOM) released a report in April this year warning that sub-Saharan Africans who travelled north to Libya were routinely facing detention in squalid conditions, rapes, beatings and being sold into slavery.

Yes.

A great business opportunity.

I wonder if they would buy Mexicans?

At the very least, they would probably be interested in eating them.

WHOOOPS: One Dead After TRUCK OF PEACE Brings VI-BRANCY to New York City

Andrew Anglin

UPDATE I:

More on the NYC Deadly Hit and Run. 1 Dead, 3 Injured. Bar/Knife fight preceded car slamming into a crowd of people in Queens. <https://t.co/DNL8TAdYQW>

Original article follows.

BREAKING: car hits 5 people in Queens; 1 person pronounced dead, 2 others with serious injuries. Police looking for white sedan which fled the scene pic.twitter.com/rWqVuJd3lj

— Kristin Thorne (@KristinThorne) December 3, 2017

The thing about Moslems is it is part of their belief system that they should run you over with a car.

However, that does no make their culture lesser than cultures who are against running you over with a car. Because every culture is exactly the same.

RT:

At least one person has been killed and three others critically injured after being struck by a car in Queens, New York City, early morning Sunday, AP reports citing police.

The driver “targeted” the victims around 4:45am local time, authorities said. They added that the suspected attacker fled the scene; the search for the driver is ongoing.

A knife fight broke out at a hookah bar in Queens ahead of the attack, the New York Daily News reported citing police and a witness. The car came “from nowhere and hit the whole group” on the sidewalk, the witness told the local media, adding that “the car was going really fast” and he saw “bodies flying.”

Some of the injured, who were rushed to hospital, also reportedly had stab wounds.

It's not terrorism, by the way. He just did it because he was pissed off or whatever. Not because of Allah. 100% certain of that.

It sucks that motherfuckers gotta get run over by peace trucks and stabbed up like this.

But it has to happen.

Because we have to have Moslems in our country.

Because without Moslems in your country, there is no VI-BRANCY. And without vibrancy, well—at that point you might as well just run yourself over with a car.

Rats Out! Kushner and Cohn to Gtfo of the White House! Not the Jew House, Jews!

Andrew Anglin
Daily Stormer
December 3, 2017

pic.twitter.com/UFm9eI0Kl8

— Groyper by the Pussy (@Snek-NoExist) December 3, 2017

Finally.

The Jew who they said could never fire is being fired because of his Jew tricks reaching a level of Hebrew Havoc no one could have gotten a grip on.

Also, other Jew Cohn. And Rex Tillerson, who is not so much evil as boring.

Or you know. This is just fake news. Who knows. Most news is fake.

But I think Kushner is going to be out and I think with the tax thing finished Cohn probably wants out.

The Independent:

U.S. Secretary of State Rex Tillerson's expected exit from the Trump administration is one of many staff changes likely as President Donald Trump nears the end of his first year in office, with sources saying top economic adviser Gary Cohn and son-in-law Jared Kushner could be among those who depart.

Cohn, whose relationship with Trump became tense earlier this year, has considered leaving once the Republican effort to overhaul the U.S. tax system is completed in Congress, according to the sources with ties to the White House who spoke on condition of anonymity.

Kushner, who has seen his influence in the White House shrink, may receive a “face-saving” exit as he deals with legal challenges related to a special counsel's investigation of Trump's 2016 presidential campaign's potential ties to Russia, one of the sources said.

They said he was the one member of the White House that couldn't be fired.

In fact, he is the one member of the White House who can't be prosecuted. He did a whole heluva lot more than Flynn.

“This is pure speculation,” said White House spokesman Raj Shah in an emailed statement about potential staff moves.

More junior-level advisers could also use the completion of Trump's first year and tax legislation as a pivot point to move on, leading to another period of uncertainty that has at times overshadowed Trump's tenure, which began on Jan. 20.

Trump is considering a plan to oust Tillerson, whose relationship has been strained by the top U.S. diplomat's softer line on North Korea and other differences, senior administration officials said. A State Department spokeswoman said Tillerson's chief of staff had been told by the White House that the reports of Tillerson being replaced were not true.

I've thought this whole time that the alleged conflict between Tillerson and Trump was fake news.

But I've never really cared very much.

I think if he is going to be fired, he should be replaced with Kim Jong-Un.

There is nothing in the US Constitution that says that the supreme leader of North Korea cannot also be the US secretary of state.

Cohn's future in the White House has come into question since his public criticism of Trump's response to the violence at a white supremacist rally in Virginia in August. Their once-tense relationship has since improved, however, and one source close to the White House said he could stay longer to help spearhead legislation to improve U.S. infrastructure.

"I'd go a little bit against conventional wisdom here and say he's got one more project to get under his belt before he leaves," the source said, referring to infrastructure.

Yeah, maybe he can help build the wall.

The one useful skill kikes actually have.

Kikes other than Phil Spector, that is.

That kike can do TONS OF SHIT.

In fact, if Trump feels he needs to do something for the Jews, he should just pardon Phil Spector instead of letting his Jewish son-in-law operate all these conspiracies.

LOOK JEWS—HERE'S THE DEAL. WE'RE GONNA HAVE TO CUT THESE ENDLESS CONSPIRACIES TO UNDERMINE AMERICA AND EARTH. BUT I CAN GIVE YOU SPECTOR. HE DIDN'T REALLY DO ANYTHING WRONG ANYWAY.

They might even end up going along with it in some kind of reverse "give us Barabas" situation.

One of the sources said Kushner, who is married to Trump's daughter Ivanka Trump, could go if a scenario, such as giving him an outside adviser role, were found that appealed to the president.

"Once someone comes up with a solution that sounds right, then I think he's going to latch on," the source said.

Kushner told the Washington Post this month that he and his wife, a fellow White House adviser, were "here to stay."

Yeah.

He thinks he's there forever because he is the human shield. Without him, Trump will be an anti-Semite. That is the nonstop defense "MUH JEWISH SON-IN-LAW IS PROOF I'M NOT GOING TO GAS YOU ALL LIKE YOU DESERVE."

But as this whole mess deepens—and Israel starts bombing Syria and Lebanon, while the local Jews continue to go for the throat on whatever kind of kook Russian conspiracy theory nonsense, and as boomerism continue to lose cultural relevance—then add in the entirely Jewish nature of metooism and the potential to shift the society against Jews based on that—the benefits of being able to claim not to be an anti-Semite are rapidly disappearing.

Jews did it to themselves.

Police Taser and Detain Man Preparing to Wage War Against the Lizard People

Lee Rogers
Daily Stormer
December 3, 2017

Police have just thwarted a brave man's attempt to battle an army of lizard people.

This is quite the unfortunate situation here. Police tasered and detained a man who was preparing to wage war against an army of lizard people. He was acting on information he obtained from a phone call with Donald Trump. The police are certainly going to feel stupid once these lizards reveal themselves.

KOMO:

A 55-year-old Eatonville man armed himself with an AK-47 and a pistol over the weekend to battle “the lizard people,” the Pierce County Sheriff’s Office said.

The man told law enforcement that President Trump had called to warn him.

The man ended up being sent to a hospital for treatment and a mental health evaluation.

Just after 8 p.m. Saturday, a witness called 911 to report a white Jeep Cherokee was stopped at 108th Street South and Pacific Avenue South in Parkland.

A state trooper later reported that a man got out of the Cherokee was waving around an AK-47 and a pistol.

A number of troopers and deputies converged. The man put the guns back in the car. He was ordered to the ground, where he began to scream about “sending in the news” and “the lizard people,” the Sheriff’s Department said.

He resisted when officers tried to handcuff him. A trooper and a Sheriff’s Department deputy both used a Taser on him, the Sheriff’s Department said.

The Sheriff’s Department says the man told a deputy that he had “snorted methamphetamine to lose weight” and that he was taking prescribed morphine.

“The meth doesn’t make me crazy, man,” the Sheriff’s Department says the man told the deputy. “The lizard people are real!”

He said President Trump had called his house in Eatonville, warned about the lizard people and said the “alpha dragon” had taken his family hostage.

The man explained that he stopped at the Parkland intersection because the lizard people had surrounded him and because he needed to follow the president’s directions to fight them.

He made a scene to attract the news media so “his story could be documented for history,” the Sheriff’s Department reported.

I believe this man. Just because he was on meth doesn’t mean that he was saying inaccurate things. I’d also like to know more about this “alpha dragon” that he referenced. Maybe top lizard researcher David Icke can provide some insight into this.

And has anybody seen the Jew Mark Zuckerberg? There’s a great deal of evidence to indicate that he’s a real life lizard. PewDiePie dropped some serious facts about this situation.

Video Link

Yair Netanyahu the son of Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu also confirmed the existence of lizard people by dropping this meme.

Once we sort out the Jewish problem, we’ll definitely have to sort out this situation with the lizards. After all, there seems to be a strong connection between the Jews and the lizards.

Hopefully Trump will hold a press conference or post some tweets about this. Unfortunately, that might prove difficult since the “alpha dragon” is holding him and his family hostage. Even still, the American people have the right to know the truth about these lizards.

Sick: Black-Skinned Niggerist Kills White Ex-Wife’s Box Terrier “Boogie”

Andrew Anglin
Daily Stormer
December 3, 2017

He also killed the bitch as well, but that’s a positive, uplifting event.

Nothing better than a dead nigger-fucking whore. Plus I think she’s Jewish anyway lol.

I just can’t grasp why he would kill the dog?

I guess he’s just what is known as a “nasty nigger.”

Fox News:

Searchers recovered the bodies of a missing Army veteran and her dog in the southern California desert Friday, the woman’s brother told a local news station.

Fox 5 San Diego reported that the remains of Julia Jacobson and her box terrier, Boogie, were found in rural Riverside County. Ontario, Calif. police said a cadaver dog helped discover the shallow grave containing the bodies just south of Interstate 10.

Julia Jacobson and Boogie had not been seen since Sept. 2. Her SUV was found near her San Diego home with her keys in the ignition less than a week later. Detectives said forensic analysis of the car led police to conclude that she had been murdered.

Jacobson's ex-husband, Dalen Ware, was arrested at his home in Phoenix on Oct. 13 and faces a murder charge. Ware's attorney told The San Diego Union-Tribune in an email that he showed investigators "the place he had buried" Jacobson without the promise of a plea bargain.

Rest in Peace, Boogie.

You deserved better than this stupid bitch who got you killed by her nigger playtoy.

The sickening Jew media is of course acting like killing he woman was bad and not even mentioning the dog very much.

FIXED THAT FOR YOU, JEWS.

#IStandWithBrock: Brock Turner Appeals Feminist Hoax "Rape" Conviction

Andrew Anglin
Daily Stormer
December 3, 2017

If a bitch passes out drunk in a yard at a frat party and you engage her vagina using your penis, that is what is commonly known as "partying."

There's even a catchy song about this very topic from the 00s, when morality was normal.

Video Link

It sure as hell isn't "rape" —as if rape is even a real thing.

And all Brock Turner did was allegedly finger-bang this stupid slut.

How is that "rape" —it isn't even sex.

Fox News:

Brock Turner, a one-time college swimming star whose six-month sentence for a sexual assault conviction sparked national outrage, appealed his guilty verdict Friday.

In their filing, Turner's attorneys said their client was denied due process at a trial they described as a "detailed and lengthy set of lies."

"What we are saying that what happened is not a crime," John Tompkins, Turner's legal adviser, told KNTV. "It happened, but it was not anywhere close to a crime."

In addition to overturning the guilty verdict, Turner's lawyers also hope to overturn his mandatory lifetime requirement to register as a sex offender.

Turner was convicted of three felony counts of sexual assault after he was accused of raping a woman outside a Stanford fraternity party in January 2015. Santa Clara County Judge Aaron Persky sentenced him to six months in jail, citing the "extraordinary circumstances" of Turner's youth, clean criminal record and other considerations in departing from the minimum sentence of two years in prison.

Prosecutors had asked for a six-year prison sentence. Facing a recall push, Persky voluntarily removed himself from hearing criminal cases.

The case drew national attention after the victim's 7,200-word letter to Turner that she read in the courtroom during sentencing was published online.

"The victim" —we don't even know who this bitch is.

She's probably some gook-kike like Mattress Girl. It might even be the same person.

In a sane society, instead of Brock Turner going to jail, this bitch would have been dragged out and gang-raped in front of the entire village for claiming that this was rape. An "OH I'LL TEACH YOU ABOUT RAPE" type scenario.

Women should live in a constant state of fear.

It was of course a couple of CAPTAIN SWEDENS who thought there was something weird about having sex with a drunk bitch in a yard.

Seriously, Swedish international students rushed up.

OH MY GOD THAT BITCH IS PASSED OUT THIS IS RAPE.

Whereas AMERICANS would have seen this event and said to Brock Turner: "LET'S GET A PARTY GOING LET'S GET A PARTY GOING NOW IT'S TIME TO PARTY AND WE ALWAYS PARTY HARD!"

Video Link

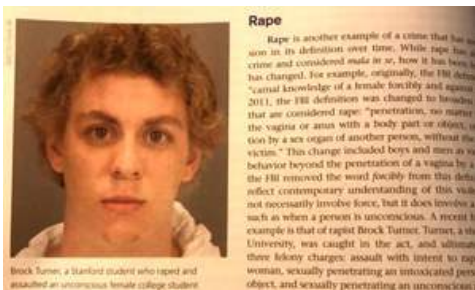

When did she pass out? Were they already making out and she just nodded off? How passed out was she?

Most importantly: who gives a fuck?

If this stupid bitch is passed out in some yard she deserved whatever she got.

This "all of the power but none of the responsibility" feminist thing cannot work, so the solution is to just punish men—white men, almost exclusively—for the fact that it doesn't work.

They put this poor kid's picture in a college text book next to the definition of rape.

Because he's basically the only white man who's ever been convicted of rape in the United States.

Brock Turner is an innocent man who was FUCKING LYNCHED by the Jewish media.

We should have started a RACE WAR over the Brock Turner conviction.

At least these kikes are getting a bit of their comeuppance.

And there is more to come. I can promise you that.

ABC News Suspends Brian Ross for Fake News on Trump, Flynn and Russia

Lee Rogers
Daily Stormer
December 3, 2017

ABC News has suspended their reporter Brian Ross for a fake news report surrounding Donald Trump, Michael Flynn and Russia.

ABC News reporter Brian Ross recently broadcast a report stating that Michael Flynn was prepared to testify that Donald Trump directed him to contact the Russians while he was a candidate. It turns out that the report was factually incorrect as the directive occurred after Trump became President.

This sent the stock market plunging.

Amazingly, ABC News has decided to hold Ross accountable for his mistake. This is of course an extreme rarity in today's Jew run fake news business.

Fox News:

ABC News announced Saturday that Chief Investigative Correspondent Brian Ross had been suspended for four weeks without pay over a botched "exclusive" about former national security adviser Michael Flynn.

Ross' suspension is effective immediately. ABC News spokeswoman Heather Riley would not comment on whether anyone else had been suspended in connection with the error.

During a live "special report" Friday morning, Ross reported that Donald Trump had ordered him to make contact with Russians about foreign policy while Trump was still a candidate. The report raised the specter of Trump's impeachment and sent the stock market plummeting.

Later in the day, ABC News—part of the reliably liberal Disney ABC Television Network—issued a "clarification" to Ross's report, saying that Trump's alleged directive came after he'd been elected president. That's a key distinction in any investigation of Russian actions during the campaign. Ross himself appeared on "World News Tonight" several hours after the initial report to clarify his error.

In a statement, ABC News said Ross' report "had not been fully vetted through our editorial standards process."

Here's the official statement from ABC News.

.@ABC News statement on Michael Flynn report: <https://t.co/sd9TeFiiLQ>
pic.twitter.com/UthFHeuwcM

— ABC News (@ABC) December 2, 2017

And here's Trump's reaction to the fake news report.

Congratulations to @ABC News for suspending Brian Ross for his horrendously inaccurate and dishonest report on the Russia, Russia, Russia Witch Hunt. More Networks and "papers" should do the same with their Fake News!

— Donald J. Trump (@realDonaldTrump) December 3, 2017

Theoretically, the job of a journalist is very simple. A journalist is supposed to report who, what, when, where, why and how. Instead of doing that, most of these so-called journalists have become activists and propagandists. You can't call them journalists. They're subversive agents who are actively trying to undermine America.

The Jew run media has been foaming at the mouth trying to make this fake news story about Trump being some type of Russian agent stick. This fake news from ABC News is just more proof of it.

Meanwhile, Hillary Clinton has gotten a free pass even though she is guilty of high crimes. Trump brought this up in a couple of other posts.

Many people in our Country are asking what the "Justice" Department is going to do about the fact that totally Crooked Hillary, AFTER receiving a subpoena from the United States Congress, deleted and "acid washed" 33,000 Emails? No justice!

— Donald J. Trump (@realDonaldTrump) December 3, 2017

So General Flynn lies to the FBI and his life is destroyed, while Crooked Hillary Clinton, on that now famous FBI holiday "interrogation" with no swearing in and no recording, lies many times...and nothing happens to her? Rigged system, or just a double standard?

— Donald J. Trump (@realDonaldTrump) December 3, 2017

Mark Dice has also done a video which sums up the situation.

Video Link

The fake news is out control. Unfortunately, it is doubtful that we will see other media outlets hold their reporters to the same standard that Ross was held to by ABC News. Fake news seems to be encouraged not discouraged at these Jew run operations.

US Officially Cuts Money for Kurds as Kikes Let Slip the Rats of War!

Andrew Anglin
Daily Stormer
December 3, 2017

The Kurd-commie military is almost entirely women. They should be raped.

They weren't using this money to fight ISIS anymore. ISIS doesn't really exist anymore—definitely not in "Kurdistan."

What they were hoping—what the Jews were hoping—is that US taxpayers would keep pouring money into their breakaway state project, which has stalled as of late.

No dice.

RT:

Washington will stop providing weapons to the Syrian Kurdish militias, US Defense Secretary James Mattis has said. This follows a vow US President Donald Trump made to his Turkish counterpart to scale down support to the groups Ankara sees as terrorists.

"The YPG is armed and as the coalition stops operations then obviously you don't need that, you need security, you need police forces, that is local forces, that is people who make certain that ISIS doesn't come back," Mattis told journalists on a military plane en route to Cairo as he was on his way to start a five-day trip to the Middle East. The YPG, or the People's Protection Units, are Kurdish militias playing a leading role in the Syrian Democratic Forces (SDF), an alliance of Kurdish and Arab militias supported by the US in Syria.

Asked if the US indeed intends to halt its program to arm the Kurdish forces in Syria, Mattis said, "Yes," and added that Pentagon is "going to go exactly along the lines of what the President announced." Last Sunday, Turkish Foreign Minister Mevlut Cavusoglu said that US President Donald Trump promised he would "not provide weapons to the YPG" in a phone call with his Turkish counterpart, Recep Tayyip Erdogan.

However, at that time, Washington did not issue any clear statement of the White House's position on that matter. White House Press Secretary Sarah Huckabee Sanders said the US is ready to "stop providing military equipment to certain groups" in Syria during a briefing on Monday. Pentagon also went only as far as to say that it was reviewing "adjustments" in arms for the Syrian Kurds.

The US is also expected to recover heavy weapons and larger vehicles from the YPG while light weapons are likely to remain in the Kurds' hands, Reuters and AP reported, citing US officials. It was also unclear if the US has already halted its arms supplies to the Kurds, or is only preparing to do that.

TAKE THEIR COATS

The Jews are obsessed with keeping the violence in Syria going so Iran can't move in and establish a massive military presence right up on their shit.

The Kurdistan thing was one of the tricks in Shlomo's diabolical bag.

But they knew that wasn't happening as soon as the Iraqi military rolled over them a month ago.

And they seem to have stopped talking about invading Lebanon to divert Shiite resources to a bizarre clusterfuck in that zone.

Now they're just bombing Iranian military installations in Syria and trying to start a world war.

NEWS EXTRA'S CIVIL WAR

Israeli missiles hit army base near Damascus: Reports

11 hours ago

But I mean—real talk—if Iran builds a shitload of military installations in Syria and moves a bunch of troops in, Israel isn't just going to be standard Jew-paranoid when they talk about the troubles they've got. Persians, unlike Arabs, are not a total joke race. Unlike Arabs, they are actually planning on slaughtering Jews.

And Bibi is calling up Putin and Putin is like "ORLY IRANIANS BUILDING MILITARY BASES ON YOUR BORDER NOW THAT YOUR ISIS IS DEAD, I HAD NOT HEARD OF THAT BUT IT'S A COOL STORY SRY I HAVE TO GO CALL BACK SOMETIME OR DON'T."

This is a situation where the Jews are getting extremely likely to go full maniac.

Video Link

I am starting to think that Trump's strategy is actually to just put the entire defense of Israel on Saudi Arabia.

Because seriously.

We can't fight Russia to protect the Jews. No one is going to go along with that. Hillary would have just done it anyway, and had support from her sluts and transnannies and whatever, but Trump would get backlash from (almost) all his own people, plus the (non-politician) liberals. Obviously, the entire government would support it virulently, but I don't think that's enough.

But look: this isn't a drill.

This could all get really weird really fast.

Top FBI "Russian Meddling" Investigator REMOVED After Being Exposed as a Hillary Shill

Adrian Sol
Daily Stormer
December 3, 2017

This isn't Strzok. But anonymous sources confirm that most FBI agents have a Hillary daemon hovering over their left shoulder, giving them terrible advice.

To the surprise of exactly no one, it's just been revealed that Mueller's TOP GUY helping him investigate the Trump administration about the "Russian meddling" conspiracy theory is actually a Hillary bot who hates Trump.

SHOCKING, I know.

It's almost as if the only people who are obsessed with digging up dirt on Trump hate him for political reasons.

Washington Post:

The former top FBI official assigned to special counsel Robert S.

Mueller III's probe of Russian interference in the 2016 election was taken off that job this past summer after his bosses discovered he and another member of Mueller's team had exchanged politically charged texts disparaging President Trump and supportive of Hillary Clinton, according to multiple people familiar with the matter.

So he used to be a big wig in the FBI, hates Trump, loves Hillary, and was giving advice to Mueller about how to screw Trump over with this investigation.

Gotcha.

Peter Strzok, as deputy head of counterintelligence at the FBI, was a key player in the investigation into Clinton's use of a private email server to do government work as secretary of state, as well as the probe into possible coordination between the Trump campaign and Russia in the 2016 election.

SHOCKING revelation number two.

Heavy:

Strzok was one of the agents who interviewed Clinton herself in the probe during a 3-hour testimony.

Strzok and other Department of Justice officials eventually ruled that Clinton was "extremely careless" in handling her email communications, but recommended that no charges be filed against her.

I can't think of anyone more deserving of a prison sentence.

This guy not only was high up in the investigation into Hillary Clinton's fraud, he was apparently the one who interviewed her.

Washington Post:

During the Clinton investigation, Strzok was involved in a romantic relationship with FBI lawyer Lisa Page, who worked for Deputy Director Andrew McCabe, according to the people familiar with the matter, who spoke on condition of anonymity because of the sensitivity of the issue.

The extramarital affair was problematic, these people said, but of greater concern among senior law enforcement officials were text messages the two exchanged during the Clinton investigation and campaign season, in which they expressed anti-Trump sentiments and other comments that appeared to favor Clinton.

There's very little information on Strzok online, but he doesn't appear to be Jewish. His name is Polish in origin, with no indication that there's a lot of Jews adopting it. But you never know.

It's hard to imagine why a straight White male would be a big Hillary supporter though, short of mental illness.

A spokesman for Mueller's office said Strzok was removed "immediately upon learning of the allegations," and added that Page left the Mueller team two weeks before they became aware of the allegations.

This whole Russian meddling investigation is being revealed to be nothing more than a politically motivated witch-hunt. As time advances, Trump gets more and more ammunition justifying canning the whole thing.

The time is approaching.

Another Jew Democrat Congressman Falls to Metooism!

Adrian Sol
Daily Stormer
December 3, 2017

How sick of a Jew do you have to be to go for the grope on that thing? Ewww...

In spite of valiant efforts on the part of Jews to shift the #MeToo fire towards the Republicans, their public respite has only been short-lived.

Another Jew Democrat is being lynched for his groping antics.

Maybe giving these sluts all this power wasn't such a good idea after all, huh, Jews?

Washington Post:

House Minority Leader Nancy Pelosi (D-Calif.) and other leading Democrats are calling on a freshman House lawmaker considered a rising star in the party to resign his seat after allegations surfaced that he sexually harassed one of his campaign aides.

In an article published Friday by BuzzFeed, Rep. Ruben Kihuen (D-Nev.) was accused of making unwanted sexual advances toward his then-campaign finance director. The woman, identified only as Samantha, told BuzzFeed that Kihuen propositioned her for dates and sex and twice touched her thighs without consent.

So we're talking about psychological groping here.

Or psychic groping, if you will.

SPOOKY.

"In Congress, no one should face sexual harassment in order to work in an office or in a campaign. The young woman's documented account is convincing, and I commend her for the courage it took to come forward," Pelosi said in a statement released early Saturday morning. "In light of these upsetting allegations, Congressman Kihuen should resign."

Earlier, Rep. Ben Ray Lujan (D-N.M.), the party's campaign chief, said politicians "guilty of sexual harassment or sexual assault ... should not hold elected office."

"Members and candidates must be held to the highest standard," Lujan said. "Congressman Kihuen should resign."

Kihuen becomes the latest figure on Capitol Hill whose political future is in doubt because of accusations of misconduct. Rep. John Conyers Jr. (D-Mich.), the longest-serving member of Congress, is under pressure from House Democratic leaders to resign amid allegations he sexually harassed and mistreated multiple female aides. And Sen. Al Franken (D-Minn.) came under additional scrutiny Thursday when a fifth woman accused him of inappropriate touching.

In this moment, these kikes all need to resign. Not because of some phony grope allegations, but because they're shamed by their own Jewishness.

I wish we could rid our government of Jews because they're Jews. But if we can clear house using their uncontrollable bitch-grabbing as a pretext, well, I'll take that too.

We've always said that the "progressive stack" was going to be the left's undoing. The only way they could ever hope to take out the White man was to assemble a rag-tag bunch of people who hate each other and have competing interests, and somehow get them to work to destroy us, their common enemy. But when push comes to shove, it all comes unraveling.

We now have a situation where hysterical feminism has more clout in the public eye than the victim status of Jews and Blacks. And that's very good for us, because these feminists have no concept of a grander strategy, and will destroy their entire "victim coalition" in order to protect their feels.

US Pulls-Out of UN Migration Conspiracy to Allow All People to Go Everywhere

Andrew Anglin

Ambassador Nikki Haley: "America is proud of our immigrant heritage and our long-standing moral leadership in providing support to migrant and refugee populations across the globe...But our decisions on immigration policies must always be made by Americans and Americans alone." pic.twitter.com/By2ObmBrEy

— US Mission to the UN (@USUN)
December 3, 2017

I was starting to believe that Nimrata Randhawa was fully out in outer space, doing nothing of the Trump agenda at the UN, instead just supporting ISIS and Jews. And that Trump didn't really care because the UN is a joke organization and it was a good distraction.

But hey—the bitch did something in-line with our goals.

RT:

The US ambassador to the UN, Nikki Haley, has announced Washington's withdrawal from the process to create a global compact aimed at facilitating international migration, as it goes against the American idea of sovereignty.

In a statement Saturday, Haley said that then-President Obama's decision to commit the US to the process by signing the non-binding New York Declaration for Refugees and Migrants in September 2016 had come at the expense of America's interest.

"The New York Declaration contains numerous provisions that are inconsistent with US immigration and refugee policies and the Trump Administration's immigration principles," she said in a written statement tweeted by the US mission to the UN.

"The global approach in the New York Declaration is simply not compatible with the US sovereignty," the statement concluded.

According to the International Organization for Migration (IOM), the UN migration agency, the signatories of the document, that was to pave the way for the adoption of the global compact for migration in 2018, have pledged to protect the rights and freedoms of migrants, "regardless of their migratory status," facilitate their integration, fight racial and other forms of discrimination.

Ha-ha.

ANYONE HAS A RIGHT TO MOVE TO ANY COUNTRY FOR ANY REASON LOL.

Outlining the main objectives of the future compact, the IOM cited the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development, adopted by the UN General Assembly in 2015, that calls on countries to work together to "facilitate safe, orderly and regular migration."

While announcing the US decision to pull out from the landmark initiative, Haley still praised what she framed as Washington's "long-standing moral leadership" in providing support to migrants all over the world, promising that its "generosity will continue."

She explained the motives behind the move, saying that such domestic policy matters as migration decisions "must always be made by Americans and Americans alone."

Yeah— "Americans."

So why are you speaking on it, Nimrata?

How about you get the fuck out of my country?

I am certain that no one wants you here—you just forced your way in.

Demjanjuk died in 2012 before his appeal could be heard, but that verdict spurred new investigations against several elderly former Nazis.

Wew... "We don't have any proof that the guy what we say he did, but he was sorta there so he's guilty."

This is the second jewiest concept I've ever heard of, after sucking blood out of mutilated baby dicks.

Among a handful of convictions since the Demjanjuk trial is that of another former SS guard, Reinhold Hanning, found guilty of complicity in the mass murders at Auschwitz death camp.

He died aged 95 this year, before he could serve his jail term.

Another case against former SS medic Hubert Zafke collapsed in September after the court found that the 96-year-old was unfit to stand trial.

Like I said before, this is just Jews being Jews. They gain nothing from this but bad publicity. And their bad publicity is our good publicity.

More than one million European Jews were killed at Auschwitz before it was liberated by Soviet forces. Yet, of the camp's 6,500 SS personnel who survived the war, fewer than 50 were ever convicted.

Wait, what? I thought it was 4.5 million Kikes who were gaschambered at Auschwitz. I must be remembering wrong...

Posting this picture in Germany can get you sent to prison...Even if you're in your 90s

Trump Exposed Twitter's Hypocrisy – Will They Ban Him Now?

Adrian Sol
Daily Stormer
December 2, 2017

Trump may single-handedly destroy this evil company.

So soon after Twitter published their new policy to ban everyone who doesn't toe the politically-correct line at all times, Trump just went ahead and re-tweeted some muscular anti-Islam materials. The average goy doing the same would obviously be a strong candidate for having their account "permanently suspended," in Twitter's Orwellian terms.

So what now, Twitter?

Are you going to admit that your rules are so insane that you'd even ban the President of the United States of America over his political speech and then change them to be more reasonable? Or, are you going to stick to your guns and ban him for bein' a hater?

Of course, they'd rather just slink back into the darkness and pretend none of this is happening.

The screaming SJW hordes won't let them do that, though. And for that matter, neither will we.

Engadget:

Twitter sure is having a hard time explaining and enforcing its policies around hate speech. Earlier this week, the company responded to Trump's retweet of violent anti-Muslim propaganda, telling Engadget that some videos may remain up if they are newsworthy or of public interest. Today, Twitter changed that position, saying that, instead, the tweets in question are still on the service because they are permitted based on the company's current media policy.

However, Twitter's policy against hate speech clearly states that "You may not promote violence against or directly attack or threaten other people on the basis of race, ethnicity, national origin, sexual orientation, gender, gender identity, religious affiliation, age, disability, or disease. We also do not allow accounts whose primary purpose is inciting harm towards others on the basis of these categories."

So, you're only allowed to disagree with other people on stuff like taxes or your favorite show on TV. Yawn.

Do they think they can keep their platform up like this, when all actual fun and action is completely gone from the conversation?

Me on Twitter rn.

The media policy today's tweet references says that "Some forms of graphic violence or adult content may be permitted in Tweets when they are marked as sensitive media. However, you may not include this type of content in live video, or in profile or header images. Additionally, we may sometimes require you to remove media containing excessively graphic violence out of respect for the deceased and their families if we receive a request from their family or an authorized representative."

To clarify: these videos are not being kept up because they are newsworthy or for public interest. Rather, these videos are permitted on Twitter based on our current media policy. <https://t.co/RqEQy3skgc>

— Twitter Safety (@TwitterSafety)
December 1, 2017

Twitter's two policies are vague and confusing at best, if not outright conflicting. It's certainly not good for a platform that continues to be ripe for abuse and similar instances occur regularly. We've reached out to the company for further comment and will update this post when we hear back.

Twitter knows that if they ban Trump, their entire platform will collapse. Whatever competitor Trump migrates to will instantly gain millions of members, while they lose tens of millions of theirs. Their stock would collapse overnight. Trump is basically holding them hostage.

Their plan seems to be to ban all his supporters, instead, by making their experience on their platform hellish.

Well, the hypocrisy of applying one set of rules to normal people and a completely different set of rules to Trump isn't lost on anybody. And it's making both the left and the right angry.

As soon as Twitter abandoned any pretense at supporting free speech and became a politically biased platform, they were screwed.

Jolly Wetback's Life Destroyed by Filthy Teenage Whore

Andrew Anglin
Daily Stormer
December 2, 2017

It is absolutely fucking insane to me that we are still talking about women being innocent victims of the entire world while also saying that they are capable of serving in the military alongside men.

Which is it, kikes?

Are they little children incapable of making adult decisions, or are they exactly the same—in fact superior—to men in their judgement abilities?

Because I am certain that it cannot be both at the same time.

New York Post:

The Columbia County Sheriff's Office confirmed on Twitter Friday that the missing teenager who reportedly left Florida with a high school soccer coach has been found safe in New York.

Caitlyn Frisina, 17, was discovered in Syracuse with Rian Rodriguez, 27, ABC 7 NY said. The sheriff's office told the outlet that a deputy pulled over a car and found the pair inside.

Authorities reportedly alerted the girl's family and took the man into custody.

Yeah.

They should have beaten the girl like in the Mel Gibson film Passion of the Christ and then deported the spic. Gave him a bottle of Tequila for the road.

That would be justice.

This poor 80 IQ taco nigger was victimized by this slut, now they're going to put him in jail for it. This is the absolute definition of victim blaming.

Are we supposed to believe this plan to elope was his idea? Is there any person who believes that?

Is there any biologist who believes that this is the way human sexual dynamics work?

The search for the teen has been ongoing since Saturday where she was last seen at her parent's house before linking up with Rodriguez—the head coach of the boys' soccer team at Fort White High School, which Frisina attends.

Deputies said the girl's bedroom window was left open and her footprints were found leading off the property. Her phone was also wiped clean of all data. Frisina's parents notified police after realizing she was gone.

As of Thursday, police believed the pair was headed to the Northeast after they were seen at gas stations in Georgia and South Carolina. They were last spotted on Sunday at a pawn shop in Fayetteville, N.C.

After conducting interviews, investigators found reason to believe that there was the “blossoming of a potential relationship,” between Frisina and Rodriguez, Murray Smith, the public relations officer for the Columbia County Sheriff's Office, stated.

The kind of shit that happens is all so stupid, I don't even know what I'm supposed to say about it.

Yes, okay—spic stealing our teenage slut.

Not really though.

Again—there is zero chance in hell this was the spic's idea.

Everything is such a disgusting mess, but at the root of all of it is the idea that women have agency and have the ability to make decisions.

The first thing these Jewish kikes did when they took over our society was “liberate” women.

Because after you've done that, you can just do whatever you want.

The very first thing that we have seen women refusing to go along with is this "trannies are the real oppressed females" narrative, because that is the first narrative that actually takes power away from them. Everything else the Jews have done has given them power and multiplied it, because giving white women power necessarily harms white men.

Independent Review Blames Police for Violence at Charlottesville Unite the Right Rally

Lee Rogers
Daily Stormer
December 2, 2017

The report states that Charlottesville Police Chief Al Thomas ordered his officers not to do their job in order to justify the emergency declaration to shut down the Unite the Right rally.

An independent review analyzing the government's handling of the Unite the Right rally held in Charlottesville, Virginia this past August has finally been released. The 200+ page report covers the government's handling of not just the Unite the Right rally, but other protests that occurred in the city throughout the year.

The report 100 percent confirms what many of us on the ground have said from the start. It places blame squarely on police for not separating the two opposing sides. It also confirms our accounts of how the police purposefully forced our people towards the anti-fascist mobs when they cleared the park. This action further exacerbated the violence.

The report places Charlottesville's Police Chief Al Thomas at the center of all the problems. Thomas specifically said to "let them fight" so they could have justification to declare an unlawful assembly. Two people associated with the Charlottesville police including a police captain and the personal assistant to Thomas confirmed he said this. Here's the quote from the report itself.

Chief Thomas's response to the increasing violence on Market Street was disappointingly passive. Captain Lewis and Chief Thomas' personal assistant Emily Lantz both told us that upon the first signs of open violence on Market Street, Chief Thomas said "let them fight, it will make it easier to declare an unlawful assembly."

Even Vice has done a full story highlighting this quote from the report.

While the report doesn't specifically state that there was an official stand down order, the actions from Thomas and the police were effectively the same thing. How else can you interpret the head of a police department telling his officers to let people fight in the streets? We all saw the police standing around while all the chaos erupted. He ordered them not to do their jobs.

Video Link

The report also highlights numerous failures by the police and criticizes the Charlottesville City Council for creating unnecessary confusion in the days leading up to the event. Here are some of the more notable items mentioned in the report.

The Charlottesville Police Department Did Not Seek Input From Law Enforcement Personnel Experienced In Handling Similar Events.

The Charlottesville Police Department Did Not Provide Adequate Training or Information to Officers In Advance of the Event.

The City of Charlottesville Waited Too Long to Request the Specialized Assistance of the Virginia Department of Emergency Management.

The Charlottesville City Council Unduly Interfered With Operational Planning By Directing That the Event Be Moved to McIntire Park Just Days In Advance.

The City of Charlottesville Did Not Provide Adequate Information to The Public About Plans For the Event.

The Charlottesville Police Department Implemented a Flawed Operational Plan That Failed to Protect Public Safety On August 12.

Law Enforcement Did Not Adequately Ensure Separation Between Alt-Right Protesters and Organized CounterProtesters.

Law Enforcement Failed to Intervene in Violent Disorders and Did Not Respond to Requests for Assistance.

Areas Where Conflict Predictably Occurred Were Not Occupied by Officers.

CPD Commanders Failed to Deploy Available Law Enforcement Resources to Quell Violence.

Upon the Declaration of an Unlawful Assembly, Protesters Were Pushed Directly Toward Counter-Protesters Without Separation.

The Traffic Plan Placed Insufficient Resources at Particular Intersections and Left the Downtown Mall Vulnerable to a Vehicle Used as a Weapon.

The Charlottesville Police Department and Virginia State Police Failed to Operate Under a Unified Command, Resulting In Delayed

And Ineffective Responses To Critical Events.

The report even cites how police refused to adequately cooperate with the independent review. It says that Thomas deleted relevant text messages and used a personal email account for official purposes. It also states that the Virginia State Police refused to make their on the ground commanders available for interviews. The report was specifically critical of the Virginia State Police for not cooperating with them.

In other words, there was an attempt by the police to cover up information. There's probably lots that we don't know about pertaining to the role of the Virginia State Police in this fiasco. Same can be said for the Charlottesville City Council. It is reasonable to believe that the council directed Thomas to do much of what he ultimately ended up doing.

At minimum, the Charlottesville Police Chief Thomas should be immediately fired from his job. In fact, one could argue that he was criminally negligent for much of what happened. He put the safety of everyone there at risk. Even if he was ordered by the council to stand down, he was under no obligation to follow such an order.

The report provides ample amounts of evidence to justify any number of lawsuits. Everyone who attended the Unite the Right rally had their civil rights violated. The police criminally conspired to shut down a lawful assembly and they did this by willfully endangering the public.

Ultimately, a federal investigation should be conducted to further review what happened. This report however, is a good start in exposing the vast criminal conspiracy that took place in Charlottesville.

Israel Bombing Iranians in Syria

Andrew Anglin
Daily Stormer
December 2, 2017

Notice of what? Murder?

The thing that people need to understand about the Jews is that any time they think they can get away with maiming or killing you, they will do it.

This creates a big problem for non-Jews, due to the fact that living creatures do not generally want to be maimed or killed.

Times of Israel:

With Syrian and Lebanese media reporting Israel carried out a missile strike overnight on a military base near al-Qiswa, some 13 kilometers (8 miles) southwest of Damascus, and in light of reports Iran is constructing a base in the area, Israel appears to have dramatically upped the ante regarding the Islamic republic's military presence in Syria, turning its threats into action.

Top Israeli officials have in recent months repeatedly warned Israel will not tolerate an Iranian military presence in Syria. Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu is said to have conveyed a warning to President Bashar Assad just days ago, via a third party, that Assad's regime will itself be targeted by Israel if he allows Iran a permanent presence.

While until now it was not clear to what extent Israel was willing to enforce this red line, the latest reported airstrikes signal the line is brighter than ever and Israel is prepared to back up its warnings.

According to some of the foreign reports, the base in al-Qiswa attacked overnight was indeed the installation photographed in satellite images published by the BBC three weeks ago. Those reports indicate the base was not operational and had yet to be manned by any Iranian soldiers, advisers or personnel from its Islamic Revolutionary Guard Corps. Expansion work was recently carried out at the site and it appears Israel was aware of the base's purpose.

The airstrike sent a message to Assad, Tehran and Hezbollah, as well, of course, as Russian President Vladimir Putin, that Israel will not stand idly by if Iran's military entrenchment in Syria continues.

Yes.

Israel is sending messages to Vladimir Putin.

So basically, we're now definitely in the run-up to some kind of all-out world war scenario.

Because the Jewish people have to have a homeland. Or whatever. Not sure. But for some reason that relates to Jews, we're going to do a world war, I guess.

Finland: Court Bans Nordic Resistance Movement

Lee Rogers
Daily Stormer
December 2, 2017

A kangaroo court in Finland has banned the patriotic men of the Nordic Resistance Movement.

Saying mean words about third world savages who rape and kill people is not allowed in Finland. Reuters:

A Finnish court banned neo-Nazi group the Nordic Resistance Movement (PVL) on Thursday, saying there was an “urgent social need” to shut down the group which it said spread hate speech and incited violence.

Police had asked that the far-right group, which the Finnish intelligence service says aims to create a national socialist state, be closed down.

“The association offends ethnic groups and spreads hate speech,” the district court in Pirkanmaa, in the country’s southwest, said in its verdict.

“In addition to offending and hateful expressions...the association urges its supporters to use violence and harassment against alleged enemies.

“There is an urgent social need to shut down an association like PVL,” the court said.

So this Finnish court has banned the Nordic Resistance Movement because they say mean things. The court’s claim that they urge violence and harassment is ridiculous. Where’s the proof of this? They are defending their country which has been invaded by third world savages. This invasion has only been made possible by the criminal traitors in their government.

The case being used to ban the NRM was documented by the Daily Stormer late last year. An NRM member was merely defending themselves from an attack by an anti-fascist.

Here’s footage from one of the NRM’s recent events. The Finnish NRM members all seem like normal people who are concerned about the future of their country.

Video Link

What’s remarkable is how the police specifically asked for the NRM to be shut down. This is another example showing how the police is more concerned about shutting down a nationalist organization than preventing third world savages from raping and killing people. This phenomenon is occurring everywhere in the West.

Banning the NRM via some kangaroo court is only going to increase support for them. Any sane person can see what an injustice this is.

“There is No German Future”

Diversity Macht Frei

December 2, 2017

Video Link

The far-lite German AfD party are having a party congress in Hanover. Leftists are out in force to protest against it, and the police are out in force to contain them.

Here we see a procession of left-wing groups carrying banners last night.

One of the banners reads: “There is no German Zukunft”. “Zukunft” means “Future”. “There is no German Future”. These people are actually celebrating the demise of their own people.

It’s not the first time we’ve seen this kind of crazed self-hatred from the Left in Germany. It seems peculiar to that country. You do see it elsewhere, but mainly from people who ancestrally belong to the nation. In Germany, the same feeling does seem to arise among indigenous people (“Bio-Deutsche”).

LOL: Matt Lauer’s Wife Flees Him! REKT!

This fucking Jew carrying around a dog everywhere he goes. Why?

What we are all waiting for is for one of these kikes that got metooed to off himself.

Then we might be looking at Jewish chain suicide.

That is the dream of every Nazi—for Jews to just all kill themselves.

New York Post:

Matt Lauer’s long-suffering wife Annette Roque has fled their home and is rumored to have headed back to her native Netherlands amid his sex harassment scandal.

Multiple sources tell Page Six that Dutch-born former model Annette—Lauer's wife of 20 years—was last seen at their Hamptons home on Wednesday, the day Lauer's firing was announced.

One Hamptons source told Page Six, "Annette has taken their two younger kids out of school and is believed to have left the US and gone to her family in her native country." It is believed her mother lives near Amsterdam.

Amid the scandal, Annette has remained silent. She and Lauer have three children, Romy, 14, son Thijs, 11, and oldest son Jack, who is at a prep school outside Manhattan. It is not known if the kids are with Annette or remained at home with Lauer.

Reps for Lauer have repeatedly declined to comment on the state of his marriage or the whereabouts of his wife.

She was quite a lovely girl.
And not the soulless type like Harvey's shiksa.

But you know these shiksas know their kikes are groping left and right. The reason they leave afterward is out of shame, because everyone knows they knew the whole time.

This bitch has literally fled the nation.

Hopefully she also kills herself.

Senate Passes Tax Reform Bill

Lee Rogers
Daily Stormer
December 2, 2017

Amazingly, the Republican controlled Senate has finally achieved a substantial legislative win. There's just a few more steps needed before tax reform is signed into law.

The Senate passed their big tax reform bill in the early hours of the morning today. The bill was passed along party lines by a vote of 51-49. Bob Corker was the lone Republican Senator who voted against it.

The good news is that it looks like the Republicans might finally be able to get a major legislative accomplishment under their belt.

The Hill:

The Senate passed legislation to overhaul the tax code early Saturday morning, handing Republicans a badly needed legislative and political victory.

Senators voted 51-49 to pass the plan, capping off days of debate and hand wringing as leadership worked frantically behind the scenes to win over holdouts and get the proposal in line with the chamber's rules.

Republican Sen. Bob Corker (R-Tenn.) bucked party leadership and voted against the plan amid lingering concerns over the impact on the deficit. No Democratic senator supported the legislation, with Democrats quickly leaving the chamber after voting no.

Here are Trump's tweets following the bill's passage.

We are one step closer to delivering MASSIVE tax cuts for working families across America. Special thanks to @SenateMajLdr Mitch McConnell and Chairman @SenOrinHatch for shepherding our bill through the Senate. Look forward to signing a final bill before Christmas! pic.twitter.com/gmWTny3SfS

— Donald J. Trump (@realDonaldTrump) December 2, 2017

Biggest Tax Bill and Tax Cuts in history just passed in the Senate. Now these great Republicans will be going for final passage. Thank you to House and Senate Republicans for your hard work and commitment!

— Donald J. Trump (@realDonaldTrump) December 2, 2017

The Senate bill now has to be reconciled with the previously passed House bill in a conference committee. After the differences are reconciled, the revised bill has to be approved by both chambers before it goes to Trump for a signature.

The Senate version of the bill repeals the Obamacare mandate which is good. Of course, we have no idea if that will remain in the final version.

Ultimately, the final bill will likely only represent a moderate reform of the tax code. It was however important for the Republicans to pass a major legislative accomplishment in order to prove that they aren't totally incompetent.

The economy has been doing better under Trump largely due to the executive actions he has taken to repeal a slew of government regulations. If the economy aided by this tax reform bill continues to do well in 2018, the Republicans stand a good chance of gaining more seats in Congress. This is important for us, especially if we are to elect more Trump styled populists.

It's all about moving the overton window to the point where we can start electing full blown White nationalists. As politics becomes increasingly more polarized, we will see this happen at some point.

Minecraft Creator “Notch” Tweets “It’s Okay to be White”

Adrian Sol
Daily Stormer
December 2, 2017

It’s ok to be white.

— Notch (@notch) November 30, 2017

Daaaaaam son.

Notch, being the creator of the game “Minecraft,” is already the patron saint of all autists worldwide. In other words, he was already someone special to the Alt-Right.

But he just kicked things up a notch (heh).

Considering that the sales of Minecraft have given him enough “fuck you” money to last him several life times (he’s worth well over a billion dollars), he’s definitely in a position where he can say politically incorrect things without suffering any meaningful repercussions.

But his tweeting of “it’s okay to be White” sure did kick up a shit-storm, huh? But perhaps just as interesting than the original tweet is the stuff he said in the rest of the thread.

This guy is a /pol/ack?

Yep.

It was already known that Notch was a chan guy for a long time, but he just confirmed that he was a regular on /pol/.

Not only that, but he casually announced he was making “Minecraft 2.”

Weeeeeeeeee!!!!

From now on, Minecraft, as a franchise, will always be associated with the pro-White movement. Let that sink in for a moment. If he does end up making Minecraft 2, he’ll have first announced it in a thread he started defending the White race.

This is the best timeline possible.

Hail Mein Kraft!

Needless to say, anti-White human refuse isn’t too happy with this.

The Root:

Markus “Notch” Persson, the creator of the game “Minecraft,” appeared to have a white privilege meltdown on Twitter early Thursday regarding his belief that it is “ok to be white” and white privilege, as he says, is a “made up metric.”

It started with a single tweet early Thursday morning. “It’s ok to be white,” Persson, who tweets under the handle @notch, wrote.

The noble hero charges at the enemy.

As of the time of this writing, Persson has not tweeted anything further from his account.

Looking through his past tweets, it appears he either still does or has in the past frequented the 4chan message boards, which makes his particular brand of racism and shock-value tweeting completely unsurprising.

Still, most people with successful companies and brands at least try to hide their shit a little bit.

Guess we canceling “Minecraft” now, right?

No, Shanequa, we’re not cancelling “Minecraft.”

We’re cancelling niggers.

Minecraft 2 will be all about building cathedrals from the bones of Jews and minorities, in super HD graphics and probably with VR support as well. The original Minecraft sold over 120 million copies, so you can be sure that an entire generation of kids are going to spend their leisure time stacking blocks of Jewish bones sky-high for the next decade or so.

Alternatively, I could do with a merchant camp management simulator.

As of now, I'm officially adding Notch to "team Sweden" along with PewDiePie for their role in red-pilling kids and autists. These two need to team up and craft a video game + "let's play" series so tight that it successfully cleanses Sweden (and Europe) of the Moslem hordes.

This may be the ultimate dream-team.

Retroactive Metoo-ism: Republican Congressman Under Fire for 2014 Harassment Settlement

Adrian Sol
Daily Stormer
December 2, 2017

Farenthold is the pyjama guy on the right, lol.

Metoo-ism is devastating the ranks of the Democratic party, what with it being filled to the brim with pervert Jews and gropey nig nogs. Of course, they'd really like if they could spread the heat over to the Republicans.

So now they're "unmasking" the identity of a Republican who settled a harassment lawsuit nearly four years ago, presumably to get people talking about anything else but Al Franken or Hollywood masturbators.

The target, Farenthold, is a gentile Republican from the "Tea Party" wing of the GOP. He strongly endorsed Trump during the election and refused to cuck even when under pressure. His voting history suggests that he's one of the less cucked members of congress, and thus makes an ideal target for political persecution.

Video Link

The kikes really hate him, lol.

Politico:

Rep. Blake Farenthold used taxpayer money to settle a sexual harassment claim brought by his former spokesman—the only known sitting member of Congress to have used a little-known congressional account to pay an accuser, people familiar with the matter told POLITICO.

Lauren Greene, the Texas Republican's former communications director, sued her boss in December 2014 over allegations of gender discrimination, sexual harassment and creating a hostile work environment.

She actually sued him for firing her, allegedly for complaining about "sexual harassment." I'm guessing the other stuff was added to pressure him into settling, in order to avoid public embarrassment.

Greene said another Farenthold aide told her the lawmaker said he had "sexual fantasies" and "wet dreams" about Greene. She also claimed that Farenthold "regularly drank to excess" and told her in February 2014 that he was "estranged from his wife and had not had sex with her in years."

Well, maybe all that happened. I can definitely believe the drinking part.

If you have to wear sunglasses in congress in order to hide your red eyes, you've probably had a pretty wild night.

But the fact that they're bringing this stuff out again now is definitely a political move prompted by their panic over MeToo-ism. Notice how none of these articles claims that his settlement using this "secret account" was actually illegal. Just that it needs to be "investigated." And it needs to be done in public, in all the newspapers, of course.

If we start taking a close look at congressmen's use of taxpayer money, I have a feeling the Jews won't like where this leads, however...

Benetton has long been known for its diversity propaganda. But they seem to be outdoing themselves with their latest "Integration" campaign.

I don't know if this is a real school. I think it probably is. Either way, there are certainly many real Italian schools just like this. All the time I see stories about Italian classes with no Italian children or parents complaining that almost no one can speak Italian at their child's school.

Trump Tells Cocksucking British Faggots to Go Fuck Themselves – Not Visiting

Any British cocksucker who says the name “DONALD TRUMP” should have his tongue cut out and shoved up his ass with a rusted steel broomstick.

Heroic GOD EMPEROR of America has told the stinking filth of Britain—a group of perverted sickos obsessed with importing inbred brown people from Western Asia to rape (and sometimes eat) their pubescent daughters—to go fuck themselves.

Missing girl's body 'put into kebab'

Charlene Downes: Missing without a trace

How many British men allowed this to happen without going full Breivik? All of them. And somehow they believe they have the ability to take the moral high ground over DONALD J. TRUMP for Tweeting about the crimes of the monsters eating their little girls.

They will not be granted with his glorious presence.

In shame, they have no right to look upon the lightening force that is his magnificent visage.

In fact, they all deserve to die.
The Telegraph:

US diplomats have dropped plans for Donald Trump to conduct a visit to Britain in January amid a war of words between the two countries' leaders.

Mr Trump, the US president, had been pencilled in for a “working visit” in the first month of 2018 to formally open America’s new London embassy.

The trip, a scaled down version of a state visit with no meeting with the Queen, was intended to allow Mr Trump to come to the UK while avoiding the mass protests a full state visit would likely trigger.

However, The Telegraph can reveal that the trip has been pushed into the long grass, with no new date in the diary picked.

A senior US diplomat said: “The idea of a visit has obviously been floated, but not December and not January. I would not expect a Trump visit in January.”

If he’s going to go to this evil country again, it should be with an army in power armor with chainswords ready to slaughter millions.

The Jewnited Cuckdom needs to be ethnically cleansed not only of the hajis and their kike enablers but of the British filth that gave over their daughters to the Saracen rape/cannibal machine.

In order for Britain to deserve the presence of the GOD EMPEROR, millions of people need to be slaughtered like pigs and their corpses vilely desecrated in the most humiliating potential fashion.

We need mountains of chopped-up bodies bulldozed into gigantic piles of organs and shredded bone, then we need to open the sewer pipes onto them.

That is what these motherfuckers deserve.

The fact that this evil cunt Theresa May is L I T E R A L L Y defending child raping foreigners against the leader of America is something which is so shocking as to give a healthful man a seizure.

It’s almost as shocking as the fact she had the nerve to wear this shirt somewhere outside of a BDSM club.

Former Trump Advisor Micheal Flynn Pleads “Guilty” to a Charge of “Lying” to the FBI

Adrian Sol
Daily Stormer
December 1, 2017

The witch hunt continues...

So after a few months of basically coming up with nothing of substance on the Trump administration, and instead making finding after finding implicating the Clintons and the Obama administration, the Mueller witch hunt is finally sinking its teeth into its first target.

Micheal Flynn didn't really do anything illegal or even unusual, but simply forgot about his actions (or didn't realize they were relevant) when questioned about it later. From what we can gather from the reports, he “downplayed” the importance of a meeting he had with a Russian ambassador, while “transcripts” of the conversation supposedly indicate it was a more important meeting.

NPR:

President Trump's first national security adviser, Michael Flynn, pleaded guilty Friday to lying to the FBI about his contacts with the Russian ambassador during the transition, and he is cooperating with the special counsel's investigation into the Kremlin's interference in last year's election.

Flynn, a retired lieutenant general who emerged as a top Trump adviser during the 2016 campaign, entered his guilty plea during a court hearing at a federal court Friday morning in Washington, D.C. Leaving the courthouse after around an hour, Flynn stepped into a waiting black SUV and did not answer questions shouted at him by a crowd of journalists on the sidewalk outside.

But in a statement sent by his lawyers, Flynn said he recognizes that the he has made mistakes.

“I recognize that the actions I acknowledged in court today were wrong, and, through my faith in God, I am working to set things right,” he said. “My guilty plea and agreement to cooperate with the Special Counsel's Office reflect a decision I made in the best interests of my family and of our country. I accept full responsibility for my actions.”

The single count relates to Flynn's discussions in late 2016—during the transition period between Trump's victory on Election Day and his inauguration in late January—with the Russian ambassador to the U.S. about sanctions the Obama administration had just imposed on Russia and about a U.N. Security Council resolution, according to court papers filed by the special counsel.

Flynn resigned from his White House post under pressure in February after allegations that he discussed sanctions with the former Russian ambassador, then misled Vice President Pence about the conversations.

There was nothing really unusual about someone in his position having a discussion with a Russian ambassador; the charge is purely about him not relating the story accurately to the FBI. The fact that they're framing this in the context of “Russian meddling” into the election just goes to show that the only purpose of this whole thing is to make bad press for the Trump administration.

Moreover, the kikes really hated Flynn and wanted him off the administration at all costs. He was a prominent advocate of prosecuting Hilary Clinton, and regularly made strong anti-Islam comments. Exactly the kind of guy we would have wanted Trump to have by his side.

UK: Theresa May's Deputy Accused of Using Work Computer to Store Huge Porn Stash

Lee Rogers
Daily Stormer
December 3, 2017

One of Theresa May's top deputies, Damian Green, was caught with large amounts of pornography on his work computer in 2008. This is the latest issue in a long line of problems for May.

British politics is such a train wreck. The nation's leading politician is Theresa May, a childless old hag who is content on letting violent brown people overrun the country. Acid attacks, bombings and cars being used as weapons have become a staple of the tolerant new United Kingdom.

Meanwhile, one of her top deputies has been accused of using his work computer to store a large stash of pornographic material. The incident occurred in 2008, but has only been brought to light by a police detective in recent days.

BBC:

A former Scotland Yard detective has told BBC News he was "shocked" by the amount of pornography viewed on a computer seized from the Commons office of senior Tory MP Damian Green.

Neil Lewis examined the device during a 2008 inquiry into government leaks and has not spoken publicly before.

He said "thousands" of thumbnail images of legal pornography were on it.

Mr Green, Theresa May's deputy, has said he never watched or downloaded pornography on the computer.

Fellow Tory MP Andrew Mitchell defended Mr Green on BBC Radio 4's Today programme, saying: "It is the misuse of entirely legal information to blacken the name of a serving cabinet minister."

But Mr Lewis said a check of the computer's internet history over a three-month period showed pornography had been viewed "extensively".

Even back in 2008, it was considered an insane thing to use your work computer to store and view pornographic materials. Only a weirdo and a pervert would do such a thing.

Green is claiming that he did not store or watch pornography on the computer but why would this detective lie about what he saw?

The detective goes into fairly detailed specifics outlining what he found.

On some days, websites containing pornography were being searched for and opened for several hours.

Mr Lewis, who retired from the Metropolitan Police in 2014, said although "you can't put fingers on a keyboard", a number of factors meant that he was sure it was Mr Green, the MP for Ashford, Kent, who was accessing the pornographic material.

His analysis of the way the computer had been used left the former detective constable in "no doubt whatsoever" that it was Mr Green, who was then an opposition immigration spokesman but is now the first secretary of state.

"The computer was in Mr Green's office, on his desk, logged in, his account, his name," said Mr Lewis, who at the time was working as a computer forensics examiner for SO15, the counter-terrorism command.

"In between browsing pornography, he was sending emails from his account, his personal account, reading documents...it was ridiculous to suggest anybody else could have done it."

Similar material had also been accessed on Mr Green's laptop, he claimed.

Some are arguing that a police detective should not be undermining a politician in this fashion. The pornography claimed to have been found was all of the legal variety. Even still, a normal person would have never put themselves in this position. You just don't use your work computer to download or watch pornography. Even people with extreme pornography addictions avoid this situation.

British politics is a disaster. Don't they have any normal people who can fill political offices?

Jeremy Corbyn should be made prime minister. It is probably the best option for the UK at this moment. There are no other viable alternatives. Corbyn might be a weirdo nigger-loving Communist, but at least hates Jews and Israel.

Or who knows, maybe Donald Trump will just launch a military invasion of the country. The British people need to be liberated from the awful political class that is actively trying to destroy them. Are there any other options?

Niger President Wants 600 Billion Per Year from Whitey, Or Else

Diversity Macht Frei
December 1, 2017

Africans demanding money with menaces. It's a familiar story.

Mahamadou Issoufou, the President of Niger, says that Africa needs 600 billion per year in development aid. This would also help the developed countries, as poverty is the cause of terror and migration.

Issoufou: Let me recall the "Goals for sustainable development" of the United Nations. This sustainability agenda identified the need for 600 billion dollars per year to support Africa's development. Aid currently is around 15 billion dollars. So we're still far away from receiving the investment help needed. A Marshall plan of 600 billion dollars is not picked out of the air, it is rational. This is also what Chancellor Angela Merkel wants. This plan could be easily financed if the developed countries stuck to the investment study from the 70s. It anticipates aid of only 0.7% of GDP. That is not burdensome and could enable Africa to have the resources it needs.

As a result, brown people now demand money from white people by threatening to send brown people to colonise their countries unless they pay up.

Gardai in Blanchardstown are struggling to deal with an upsurge of crime and violence and anti social behaviour by gangs of youths in the new communities areas of Tyrrelstown North Dublin.

The anti social behaviour including a number of assaults, one of an elderly man has left residents in fear of going out in the evening.

A number of residents have taken to social media with harrowing stories

One resident wrote: "They litter, destroy property, break into people's houses and attack innocent passers-by."

Another resident said that she could no longer take her dog out for a walk in the evening, commenting:

"I don't take the dog out in the evening, garden only. I also don't walk on the streets, just in the park. It's terrible that we can't feel safe taking the dog out for an evening stroll"

Another Resident wrote :

"I live in Tyrrelstown for the last 10 years and boy is this place in trouble. I've had a gang of 12 black kids attack my car while picking my son up from creche. They had been messing on a zebra crossing, when I told them to move, one of them charged at me and spat in the window of my car. My 3 year old son was with me, my 70 year old neighbour was walking her dog to the shop when 2 blacks on a bike rammed into her, one jumped off and punched her in the back of the head. She fell so hard she ruptured her knee caps. Also my work colleague who lives in Tyrrelstown was knocked unconscious with a choke hold while 2 black lads robbed his phone and wallet. These are my personal stories, there are many more problems. Just thought I'd give you some first hand knowledge. This place will be a ghetto in the next 10 years"

Just last month a Tyrrelstown man Hertion Diansambu (20) appeared before Blanchardstown District Court accused of striking a woman in the face and shoving her and her 13-year-old son to the ground after the boy tried to protect his mother

, the incident happened while the the young mum out walking with her two children , she was grabbed around the neck by a man who demanded she hand over her mobile phone .

At the weekend , the violence spread to the neighbouring town of Balbriggan , A father and son were injured after an attack by a gang of up to 15 youths in Balbriggan .

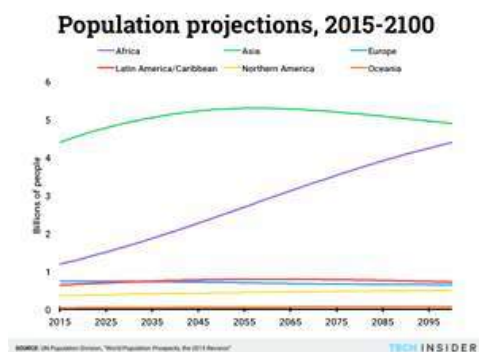

The man sustained facial injuries while the teenage boy is also believed to have sustained minor injuries. The incident happened on Bath Road at 9:35pm on Saturday night. A Garda spokesperson said: "Gardaí are investigating an assault on a man in his 40s and a teenage boy at Bath Road at 21.45. Any one with information should contact Balbriggan Garda Station."

Study Says Moslem Populations in Some European Countries Will Triple by 2050

Lee Rogers
Daily Stormer
December 1, 2017

All Moslems need to be sent back to the Middle East. No exceptions.

Europe is facing a major demographic crisis in the years to come. If blood and soil nationalism is not implemented, many European countries are going to be overrun with Moslem savages. This is assuming that existing trends remain intact.

A new study is stating that some European nations could see their Moslem population triple by 2050. This is largely because these Moslems breed like rats. This is obviously not a good situation.

Guardian:

The Muslim population in some European countries could triple by 2050 while it will barely change in others, according to new projections released by the Washington-based Pew Research Centre.

The report, Europe's Growing Muslim Population, shows a stark west-east divide. The Muslim share of Germany's population could grow from 6.1% in 2016 to 19.7% in 2050 if high migration continues, whereas over the border Poland's share would change from 0.1% to 0.2% in the same scenario.

Even if all current 28 EU members, plus Norway and Switzerland, closed their borders to migrants, the Muslim population share in the west would continue to grow owing to a younger age profile and higher fertility rates, but remain very low in the east.

It is no surprise that Western European countries will be the most impacted by what's going on. They're the ones who have been letting these third world hordes enter in massive numbers. Some like Germany are even encouraging them to migrate by promising them free stuff.

In places like Sweden, the police use their full resources to attack and harass Swedish nationalist groups while letting Moslems run amok. It is a totally insane situation.

Look what happened a few days ago when some nationalists simply tried to give fliers to people.

Video Link

At least Eastern European countries are filled with Moslem hating Slavs. They are not accommodating these Moslem invaders and this is why there are few if any Moslems in these countries. The nations that existed behind the iron curtain during the Cold War seem to have been the most resistant to this madness. Variants of nationalism and populism are currently ruling the politics of these countries.

It's going to be an uphill battle in Western Europe though. Ultimately it is probably going to come down to rounding up these savages and putting them in concentration camps. Some might leave voluntarily but many will not. Either way, they all have to go one way or another.

Nordic Resistance Movement Calls For 'Stoning of Traitors' Amidst Grenading of Police

December 1, 2017

There's been some interesting news coming out of Sweden in recent weeks.

Fria Tider:

The government's solution to the vast amount of explosive objects in Sweden such as hand grenades is an amnesty for such items, reports DN. The use of hand grenades has increased significantly in recent years. Earlier this week, a hand grenade was thrown at police officers outside of the police headquarters in Uppsala.

Between October 2018 and January 2019, criminals will be able to hand in their hand grenades and other explosive items to the police without the risk of punishment.

In 2015 there were 10 cases in Sweden with hand grenades that detonated. By 2016 the number had increased to 27, and last year 52 detonated.

On Monday a grenade was thrown against police in Uppsala. The grenade bounced away from the officers who were uninjured.

A string of bombings and attacks aimed at the police by Muslims is being complimented quite nicely by the Nordic Resistance Movement's protests and activism.

It's a good speech that calls out all the usual suspects such as the corrupt politicians and above all the (((journalists))).

But actually, it's remarkable how openly national socialist these guys are, even if they have to tone down the talk about the Jews or hide it behind euphemisms.

Their organization has been hit hard recently by the banks going after their accounts too.

It's a shame that the banksters can't show the same diligence with Islamic terror groups operation in Sweden and Europe, but alas, to deny them grenades would be a crass culturally insensitive move to make.

And by the way, if you didn't know, Sweden is moving towards a "cashless" economy, where everything is electronic and digitized. Even now, you can't buy bus tickets between the suburbs and the city without using a credit card. Everything is collated and quantified, your entire purchasing history will be at the tips of some soy boy banker and his Shlomo boss.

And if you're acting like bad goys, they can just deny your organization its own funds. Which is the end of said organization. Money is the lifeblood that flows through any political movement. Can't do it through fighting spirit alone.

Hell, they may even just do the same for you on an individual level as well soon. A CrimeThinking Swede might wake up one day and realize that he can't even purchase a bus ticket anymore because the Jews are mad at him.

People that aren't willing to part with the comforts of 21st century living will literally keep their mouth shut so that they can keep their credit cards. Everyone else will be reduced to Varg-posting in the woods.

Interesting times in Sweden, lads. Interesting times indeed. If things ever kick off there, we burgers will raise a volunteer army and ship over. I plan on being Red Team Leader of the 51st Dodge Challenger Light Brigade. Shit will be Mad Max tier at the rate things are going, and I'm not even sure I want it to stop at this point.

Will your mom also be tried at the Hague court for spraying her apartment against termites?

A former Bosnian Croat military commander swallowed what he said was poison in a U.N. war crimes courtroom on Wednesday and died shortly after losing an appeal against his 20-year prison term.

Slobodan Praljak's apparent courtroom suicide, which was broadcast on a video feed, came in the final minutes of the last judgment at the International Criminal Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia, which closes next month after 24 years.

The white-bearded Praljak, 72, was taken to hospital after drinking from a flask or glass as an ICTY judge read out appeals rulings against him and five other convicted Bosnian Croat war criminals, tribunal spokesman Nenad Golceviski said.

"I just drank poison," the ex-general told the stunned court. "I am not a war criminal. I oppose this conviction." After gulping down the drink, he sat back down and slumped in his chair, said a lawyer who was in the courtroom at the time.

"Praljak drank a liquid in court and quickly fell ill," Golceviski said. He was treated by tribunal medical staff, but "passed away today at the HMC hospital in The Hague", he said.

Croatian Prime Minister Andrej Plenkovic, whose country was the patron of separatist Croat forces in Bosnia's 1992-95 war, said he regretted Praljak's death and offered condolences to his family. "His act tells the most about deep ethical injustice toward the six Bosnian Croats and the Croatian people."

The ICTY upheld on appeal Praljak's conviction on charges of crimes against humanity over persecution, murders and expulsions of Bosnian Muslims from territory captured by nationalist Bosnian Croats and the brutal imprisonment of 1,000 Muslims.

In other words, he did nothing wrong.

The whole concept of "war crimes" was always a nonsensical hoax perpetrated in order to justify going after people the Jews hate. Any military action going against the Jew's interests is a "war crime," meanwhile anything the Jews do or benefit from is "justifiable" use of force.

If anything, removing Moslems from Europe is a boon to humanity; after all, a prosperous, safe and free Europe will do more for this planet than anything Moslems have ever done.

Rest in peace, Praljak.

How is it that these are the descendants of the men who built a global empire? It's utterly sickening to see what's going on in the British parliament these days. They've relinquished their entire empire to savages and now they're in the process of giving up their home country. All in the name of tolerance, diversity and whatever else.

London looks more like Islamabad than a Western city. Then of course there's the issue of Moslems running people over with cars and blowing people up. This type of terrorist attack has happened multiple times in the United Kingdom just this year alone.

Trump has managed to throw the entire British political establishment into an upheaval over three retweets. He's made them all look like the fools that they are. They're literally more concerned about hurting the feelings of Moslems than Moslems blowing them up.

CNN:

UK Prime Minister Theresa May delivered a rare public admonishment to US President Donald Trump on Thursday, declaring that he was "wrong" to share anti-Muslim videos posted online by a "hateful" British far-right group.

May, facing intense pressure to cancel a planned state visit by Trump, was forced to address the controversy in person after the President criticized her on Twitter. But she insisted the US-UK relationship would survive the storm, and suggested the visit by Trump would go ahead.

As the extraordinary diplomatic clash stretched into a second day, the British ambassador to the US revealed he had expressed concerns to the White House about the affair. Trump also faced an unprecedented barrage of criticism in UK Parliament, where MPs variously called him "racist," "fascist" and "evil."

Asked about Trump's actions on a visit to Amman, Jordan, May said: "I'm very clear that retweeting from Britain First was the wrong thing to do. Britain First is a hateful organization. It seeks to spread mistrust and division in our communities. It stands against common British decency," she said.

What about the things that are happening in the videos he retweeted, Theresa?

Does throwing a person off a roof, smashing a statue of the Virgin or beating up a cripple represent "common British decency," you goose-faced slut?

"Pointing to the behavior of these precious people who are destroying our civilization and slaughtering us like pigs is the worst imaginable thing anyone can do to us, and we might have to end our relationship with you because you did that."

It is like satire.

Thailand: American Homos Arrested for Desecrating Buddhist Temple with Their Butts

Homos don't feel comfortable unless they can expose their buttholes to the world.

Alright, we need an immediate ban on faggots visiting other countries and embarrassing us in front of the whole world until we can figure out what the hell is going on.

These filthy perverts are going around throwing their buttoholes at random foreigners, who probably assume this is an American custom rather than a unique attribute of sodomites. This is even worse than our Blacks, who go to foreign countries to steal knick knacks and then need to get bailed out by the President.

Tourists double as unofficial representatives of our nation. The only way our “native” population of perverts and subhumans should be allowed to leave the US is on a one-way ticket to a third-world country of their choice.

San Diego Gay and Lesbian News:

A local Hillcrest married couple were arrested at Don Mueang airport in Bangkok on Tuesday night.

Travis Dasilva, nee Ti, and Joseph Dasilva had warrants that charged them with showing their naked buttocks at Wat Arun (Temple of Dawn) in Bangkok according to Bangkok Post.

What kind of subhuman retard would do such a thing? It only goes to show that homosexuality is a mental illness. Their obsession with butts goes way beyond simple sexual attraction and well into the realm of neurotic disorder. They literally can't help themselves but defile even the most sacred of places—all in the name of butts.

“Pretty nice, but needs more butts.”
—Homo.

Both men are United States citizens and were taken into custody by immigration police.

The 38-year-olds were taken into custody at the airport at approximately 8 pm local time while trying to leave the country said Pol Col Choenron Rimpadee, deputy spokesman of immigration police.

Both Travis and Joseph admitted to bending over and posing for the picture at the temple and were taken to the police station for legal action.

Trigger warning:

Don't say I didn't warn you this time.

They were charged with getting naked in public which violates criminal law and could carry a fine of up to 5,000 baht.

City Commissioner Nicole Murray-Ramirez says the men reached out to him for assistance and he is currently talking to American authorities on what to do next.

5,000 baht? That's like 150 bucks!

The US government needs to immediately lobby Thailand to increase the fine and include jail time. 150 dollars is grossly insufficient punishment for the crime of being a homo.

242 Filthy Nigerians Kicked Out of Libya as They Planned to Invade Italy

Nigerians: Hated even by other Africans. Therefore, we should bring them all to Europe.

Libya used to be a bullwark of protection for Europe against the dark hordes. That is, until Hilary Clinton's goons overthrew the government and brutally killed its noble leader, Muammar Qaddafi.

But even now, the Libyan's burning hatred of the Nigerians compels them to lock them up in cages and generally make their lives miserable, when not kicking them right out of their country.

CNN:

More than 200 Nigerian migrants stranded in Libya have been returned to their home country, Nigerian officials said.

The 242 migrants landed at Lagos airport on a Libyan airline flight at around 9pm local time on Tuesday. Among them were women carrying children and at least one man in a wheelchair.

Nigerian authorities say they worked on returning the migrants from Libya in collaboration with the International Organization of Migration. (IOM)

Some of the 242 men and women who returned had been in Libyan detention camps while some of them willingly approached the Nigerian embassy in Libya to return home because of hardship there, authorities said.

NIGERIAN DETENTION CAMPS!

Libyans are doing the job Europeans don't want to do: locking up Nigerians in cages.

I like the sound of that!

Nikki Laoye, an ambassador for NCFRMI who filmed the arrivals and posted them on her Instagram page, told CNN: "It was quite emotional seeing this. We heard about their ordeal in the desert, some of them were praying to die. No water to drink, thrown into jail and finally given the option to go back to their country."

"Many of them had traveled illegally through the desert trying to reach Italy via Libya before finding themselves in tight situations, thrown into jail for illegal entry or falling into the hands of wrong people and being sold into slavery/prostitution."

Yeah, the only reason these Blacks are going to Libya, a country in which they can be sold into slavery or put in cages, is to reach Europe and get their hands on gibs and White women. By all rights, we should be sending Libya financial and military support to help them cope with the situation, and more efficiently cage these Blacks.

But instead, we overthrow their governments and kill their leaders, smdh.

A German politician well known for his pro-refugee policies was stabbed in the neck at a kebab shop Monday evening.

Andreas Hollstein, the mayor of the western German town of Altena, told a news conference on Tuesday that his assailant, who was also a customer, held a foot-long knife to his throat.

"He said: 'You are leaving me die of thirst while you bring 200 refugees to Altena,'" Hollstein told reporters.

"I pushed the knife away, which didn't work out too well as I have a cut on my throat. I was very lucky as the two owners of the kebab shop came to help me push the attacker to the ground," Hollstein said. Police then arrived and arrested the assailant.

German police said the 56-year-old attacker, identified only as Werner S., had been drinking.

He was known to authorities because of a minor violent assault in 2013 and also a traffic incident, but so far no connections to the organized far-right have been established, police said.

Hollstein blamed the attack on hate propaganda circulating on social media. "The handling of the subject of refugees is getting tougher and more ruthless, if they ask me about it, I see this as a decline in values in our society," he said.

"I think that the poison that people spread on social media or other platforms enters into simple minds; as such, I would also designate the culprit. I have no hatred for these people. For me he has been a tool for others."

Yes.

The real crime is not mass immigration or some guy who is so fucking sick of mass immigration he is stabbing people in the neck. The real crime is the internet. Because grown adults are not capable of processing information. That's why we had to invent democracy. So that we can force people to do things against their will, because they are so stupid they are all so stupid they can't possibly understand anything.

Also, never forget the parable about the glass being half full.

That is also the most important parable of all.

I mean, you can look at this like “this guy got stabbed in the neck because of his own policies of immigrationism.”

But if it wasn't for his own policies of immigrationism, no one would have been there to stop the guy who stabbed him in the neck. Think about that for a minute.

Then think about a tree falling in the woods and the sound of one hand clapping.

North Korea Conducts Another Successful Missile Test

Lee Rogers
Daily Stormer
November 29, 2017

North Korea conducted another missile test yesterday. It appears as if their capabilities are improving with each successive launch.

Reuters:

North Korea said it successfully tested a powerful new intercontinental ballistic missile (ICBM) on Wednesday that put the entire U.S. mainland within range of its nuclear weapons.

North Korea's first missile test since mid-September came a week after U.S. President Donald Trump put North Korea back on a U.S. list of countries it says support terrorism, allowing it to impose more sanctions.

North Korea, which also conducted its sixth and largest nuclear test in September, has fired dozens of ballistic missiles tests under its leader, Kim Jong Un, in defiance of international sanctions. The latest test was the highest and longest any North Korean missile had flown, landing in the sea near Japan.

South Korea responded with a missile test of their own.

Video Link

It's hard to say what happens next. It's obvious that North Korea is not going to stop their nuclear program and is not going to stop conducting missile tests. They have no incentive to stop these initiatives. After all, they are the main tools in their arsenal to deter an invasion.

Trump's recent trip to Asia was partially meant to consolidate support in the region and further isolate North Korea. The key to dealing with North Korea has always been through China but it's unknown how much they're really trying to help with the situation. China as they have become a greater economic force is seeking to project its influence further in the region. North Korea has been useful in keeping the United States off balance and this helps them pursue their geopolitical aims.

Hopefully cooler heads will prevail and some type of diplomacy can resolve this. Quite honestly though, we have enough problems here in the United States and throughout the West. The last thing we need is to be involved in a war on the Korean peninsula.

Maybe Trump should give Dennis Rodman another shot at figuring this out?

Contemplating the withered visage of this 15-year-old, several possibilities occur to me. Either the experience of war and oppression has prematurely aged these innocent youths, or perhaps they calculate their age in dog years?

Burma: Cucked Pope Cucks on His Cucking

Adrian Sol
Daily Stormer
November 28, 2017

Is Frankie boy experimenting with “meta-cucking” here?

So everyone was anxiously expecting the Pope to go out and lecture the Burmese about the evils of exterminating Moslem terrorists during his visit to the country. The old bastard even went and announced he would bring “affinity” and “hope” to the country with his visit, whatever that means.

However, it seems he lost his nerve and failed to actually mention the filthy Moslems during his speech. In other words, he cucked on his plan to cuckold for Moslems. Which brings up the important question: is cuckolding on cuckolding a good thing, or just an even lower level of depravity? This is a pretty deep problem.

I don't know who's cuckolding who anymore

We may never untangle this mess of ethno-masochism.

He probably just didn't want to alienate the Burmese, in order to avoid hampering the work of his missionaries. After all, I doubt many of these people will want to convert to a religion that is pro-Moslem.

Washington Post:

Perhaps as important as what Pope Francis said during his key speech in Burma on Tuesday was what he didn't say.

Speculation had mainly circled around the question of whether the pope would use the term “Rohingya” to describe the country's Muslim minority, which has been the target of a brutal military “clearance operation.”

Rohingya Muslims are not officially recognized as a minority in Burma—also known as Myanmar—even though many have lived there for generations. Burmese officials—and many among the predominantly Buddhist population—reject “Rohingya” and are instead using “Bengalis” to emphasize their disputed argument that the Rohingya migrated illegally to the country from Bangladesh.

To the relief of some and the dismay of others, the pope refrained from using the term during an interfaith meeting and in a subsequent speech Tuesday, which he gave following a meeting with Burmese leader Aung San Suu Kyi. The civilian Burmese leader has come under criticism for allegedly ignoring human rights violations in the country.

What the hell are these Bangladeshis doing in Myanmar?

One can only hope that the Burmese will continue to do the right thing and ethnically cleanse their Buddhist country of the Moslem swine infesting it. It's their divine mission, ordained by the heavens, and no man, Anti-Pope or not, can stop them.

Godspeed.

Pentagon Whines its Spy Plane got Intercepted by Russia

Adrian Sol
Daily Stormer
November 27, 2017

Spying isn't a hostile act—we're just looking over your stuff for you, you know?

The American military and its allies have bases all around Russia, and are conducting operations non-stop very near her borders. Yet when the Russians do anything parallel to that, or even when they act in protest, they're immediately portrayed as reckless aggressors.

This is transparently disingenuous propaganda, and no one with an IQ over room temperature is falling for it.

The entire world knows who is messing with who, here.

It's time to put an end to Russian aggression, right guys?

CNN:

A Russian Su-30 fighter jet made an "unsafe" intercept of a US P-8A Poseidon aircraft Saturday while it was flying over the Black Sea, the Pentagon told CNN Monday.

"The US aircraft was operating in international airspace and did nothing to provoke this Russian behavior," Lt. Col. Michelle Baldanza, a spokeswoman for the Pentagon, told CNN.

Yeah, there was definitely no provocation there.

They only flew their long-range spy plane right next to their military base. Who could possibly think this was thoughtless, aggressive behavior?

The Russian jet's actions were deemed unsafe because the aircraft crossed in front of the US plane from right to left while engaging its afterburners, forcing the P-8 to enter its jet wash, an action that caused the US plane to experience "a 15-degree roll and violent turbulence," according to Baldanza.

Baldanza added that the Russian fighter jet came as close as 50 feet from the US aircraft.

It's almost like they were expressing their displeasure at having a foreign power travel halfway across the world to spy in their backyard. How conceited.

Boeing P-8 Poseidon

From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia

The Boeing P-8 Poseidon (formerly the Multimission Maritime Aircraft or MMA) is a military aircraft developed for the United States Navy (USN). The aircraft has been developed by Boeing Defense, Space & Security, modified from the 737 MAX 8. The P-8 conducts anti-submarine warfare (ASW), anti-surface warfare (ASuW), and strategic interdiction, along with an early warning and protection (EWB) role, and is often known as an electronic support measures (ESM) aircraft. This involves carrying electronic warfare (EW) systems, including missiles and other weapons. It is also in development for the USN, and is designed to operate in conjunction with the Navy's Growler MQ-45, the P-8's main mission is to detect and track submarines.

P-8 Poseidon
A P-8 has been commissioned since 2012.
Risk: Not sustainable without sufficient surface and subsurface sensor assets.
National origin: United States

The American plane is an anti-submarine and surveillance craft, patrolling near a major Russian naval base. Hmmm...

She said the P-8 had its transponder on during the incident.

A US Navy official told CNN that the intercept lasted about 24 minutes.

"Unsafe actions have the potential to cause serious harm and injury to all air crews involved," Baldanza said.

You know what's even more "unsafe?" Provoking another world power by flying spy aircraft near their base. People who are "safety-minded" tend to avoid such things. On the other hand, people who really want to start a world war love this sort of stuff.

I guess that tells us what kind of people are running the US navy.

"Australian" Citizen Born of Somali Parents Plotted Mass Shooting Attack on New Year's Eve

Lee Rogers

November 28, 2017

This skinny monkey is about as Australian as Crocodile Dundee was So-malian.

A low IQ Somali born in Australia has just been arrested for plotting a mass shooting attack in Melbourne.

CBS:

Australian police have arrested a man accused of planning a mass shooting for New Year's Eve in a crowded Melbourne square, officials said Tuesday.

Ali Ali, a 20-year-old Australian-born citizen with Somali parents, was trying to obtain an automatic rifle to attack the downtown Federation Square in Australia's second-largest city, Victoria State Police Deputy Commissioner Shane Patton said.

Thousands of revelers pack the square each year on New Year's Eve.

Ali downloaded instructions from an al Qaeda in the Arabian Peninsula website on how to launch a terrorist attack and how to use guns, Patton said.

So we've been told over and over again that race doesn't dictate a person's behavior. If a non-White person is born in a majority White country, they will magically behave just like the White people living there. That's literally the insane theory that has been used to justify all of this multiculturalism and diversity garbage. Does this story not prove what a lie this is?

Here we have someone with Somali parents born in Australia who was given all the privileges of Australian citizenship. Instead of doing something productive with his good fortune, he chose to plot a mass shooting attack.

What are these monkeys doing in our countries? What is the purpose of them being here? What is the exact benefit? Nobody can provide a logical answer to these questions.

Australia needs to go back to the policies of the past and only allow people of White European racial stock to become Australians. If they don't, this type of thing is only going to continue.

Germany: Pro-Rapefugee Mayor Stabbed in Knife Attack

Lee Rogers
Daily Stormer
November 28, 2017

Andreas Hollstein the mayor of Altena was just stabbed in the neck for supporting the subhuman invasion of Germany.

It looks like the German people are getting increasingly angry at the political establishment. Angela Merkel and her political allies have allowed millions of worthless subhuman savages into their country for no specific reason. And contrary to previous promises, these low IQ hordes are not filling high paying jobs and they are not paying anyone's pensions. Instead, they are committing crimes, raping women and killing people.

One of Merkel's allies was just stabbed in a knife attack by a man angry for his support of this insanity.

Daily Mail:

The mayor of a small German town says he is happy to be alive after being attacked with a knife by a man who confronted him over his welcoming stance towards refugees, before slashing his neck.

The knife attack on Andreas Hollstein, the 54-year-old mayor of Altena in western Germany, prompted widespread shock and condemnation from officials including Chancellor Angela Merkel.

Authorities said the incident on Monday night was probably politically motivated.

"I'm shocked by the knife attack on mayor Andreas Hollstein—and very relieved that he is back with his family," Mrs Merkel said. "Thanks also to those who helped him."

So Merkel says that she is shocked that such a thing would happen. She just can't seem to understand why Germans would be angry at the people who have betrayed their interests. Go figure!

These people are divorced from reality. They are traitors of the highest order for what they did.

It's also worth noting that this is not the first time that a politician has been attacked for supporting this monkey invasion.

In 2015, the current mayor of Cologne Henriette Reker was physically attacked for similar reasons.

The good news is that Merkel and her ilk are losing support. Merkel hasn't even been able to form a coalition government and there are calls for her to step aside.

Regardless of what these fools decide to do, it is obvious that their time is coming to an end.

This is what the future looks like.

Nordic Resistance Movement Hits The Streets!

Nordic Resistance Movement has hit the streets recently in a flash demonstration.

Video Link

As usual, the state arrayed itself against them in full force.

How average Swedish policemen continue to live with themselves without committing suicide out of shame is beyond the understanding of even the most well-studied scientists in the field of human psychology. Some experts believe that this may be explained by staggeringly low IQ or perhaps just ZOG brainwashing.

Video Link

Now, if you notice in the protest, the people starting fights with the NRM activists are almost all other White Swedes.

What does this mean? Well, put simply, it means that other Whites are the biggest problem we face in advancing our agenda. Hordes of ZOG zombies and the ZOG-bots that protect them (the police) seem to take particular offense at White people standing up for their rights.

Video Link

Meanwhile, the New Swedes seem too busy collecting state gigs, grenading each other in vicious gang battles and raping White women to really pay much attention to these kinds of flash demonstrations.

And the police are not paying attention to them either.

No, they are too busy harassing nationalists in the streets, out there with battalion of coppers in full battle rattle and helicopter support. Don't believe me? Check the video again.

Regardless, the NRM guys look intimidating, but also inspiring. They've got a look to them that appeals to every young man who wants to be part of a White band of brothers and get away from his cloying mother, pissy teachers and beta peers.

It's a good look, and a powerful message. These guys look nothing like the New Swedes or the Nu-Swedes that have ruined the country. These guys clearly stand for something, and it's only a matter of time before more people want to stand with them.

Sharks Doing the Jobs Europeans Don't Want to Do

Andrew Anglin
Daily Stormer
November 27, 2017

Europeans are refusing to exterminate the invading army coming from Africa to conquer our mother continent.

Thank God that the sharks are willing to do this job that Europeans think they are too good for.

IBT:

A number of migrants died after being attacked by sharks while attempting to cross into Italy from Africa, the Libyan Navy has claimed.

At least 31 people died—including three children—and more than 40 are missing after two boats attempting to cross into Europe via Libya sank. The coastguard conducted two rescue operations off the city of Garabulli, around 40 miles (60km) east of Tripoli, spokesman Colonel Abu Ajila Abdelbarri said.

The Libyan navy said that they managed to rescue 60 people from one of the boats and 140 from the second. Migrants from Somalia, Ghana, Ethiopia, Nigeria and Pakistan were among those that were rescued.

They were escaping the now-over brutal civil war in Syria, mind you.

In a series of Facebook posts detailing the incident, the Navy added that “a number of bodies were devoured by sharks during the rescue”.

Captain Nasser Al-Gammoudi told Italian newspaper Il Giorno: “When we arrived in the area, off the town of Garabulli, [one] dinghy was semi-submerged and still had 44 people clinging on to it, whom we saved.

“There were lots of bodies all around and we saw there were four or five sharks swimming among them, large blue sharks, a very aggressive species. When we brought the bodies on board we noticed that some of them had been bitten, so it's possible that among the missing some may have been eaten.”

However, the claims have been dismissed by experts. Ezio Amato, a marine biologist, said that while white sharks and tiger sharks “have been known to attack lone swimmers” they have never been recorded attacking in large groups, reports The Times.

Well, yes.

It's clear that they did this for moral reasons, rather than issues of sustenance.

The earth itself and all of its creatures are coming to defend the master race against this onslaught by hordes of subhumans led by the evil Sauron Jew.

Definitely the white pill of the week, this right here.

WOW.

God bless sharks.

If only dinosaurs still existed, we wouldn't have any problems at all.

Accurate Swedish Gentleman Says Moslems are Not Human

Andrew Anglin

Martin Strid 100% människor

Martin Strid, ledamot i SD Borlänge sa nu idag under SD:s Landsdagar att muslimer inte är 100% människor och att han har en liten önskan att de blir SD:are.Fy fan...

Posted by Inte rasist, men on Samstag, 25. November 2017

Well, well, well.

What have we here.

It seems that Sweden might be interested in becoming a real country after all.

RT:

Martin Strid, of the anti-immigration Sweden Democrats (SD), made the comments while addressing party faithful gathered for the SD's national conference.

Other members have distanced themselves from Strid who now faces expulsion.

Addressing the crowd, Strid, according to various local sources said that there is a scale of humanity from 1 to 100, that Muslims can be placed upon and that not all are 100 percent human.

"On one end of the scale you are 100 percent human, a person, everything that's part of that concept. At the other end, you are 100 percent Mohammedan," he said. He continued, saying that "all Muslims are somewhere on that scale" with ISIS militants "close to being 100 percent Mohammedan."

Though he wasn't finished: "If you are an ex-Muslim you have come quite far towards being fully human" while also stating that he wanted to "free Muslims from Islam, the goal is for them to join SD instead."

Well that's, you know...

They'll still be Pakis and Arabs and such.

The entire reason they are Moslems is that they are racially inferior.

Strid's inflammatory speech was recorded by Swedish broadcaster SVT and was shared online, in one instance by the group "Inte racist, men" (Not racist, but) whose mission is to "showcase the inexhaustible source of humor and horror that the Sweden Democrats stand for."

SD members distanced themselves from Strid's comments, with party secretary Richard Jomshof, branding them "racist" and that he expected Strid to be expelled from the SD. Party leader, Jimmie Åkesson, echoed these sentiments, saying in an interview with SVT that Strid's comments "may be the worst I have ever heard in such a context" and that it is "very close to racism."

It can't actually be "racism" if he wants people to convert from their sand religion and become party members.

In fact, it seems that liberals are the real racists here, agreeing with my assumption that Islam is a doctrine specifically adopted by specific racial groups due to a genetic inclination towards a certain type of barbarism.

And of course, dude cuckold.

For his part, Strid apologised for his remarks. "It was very unfortunate and I expressed myself very clumsily," the Local reports him as saying in an interview with news agency TT, he further said that he was aware his speech could be interpreted as saying Muslims are not 100 percent human.

So, I guess Sweden isn't anywhere near reaching the status of "serious country" if this is the type of discourse going on in their "far right" party.

Though give em a little credit.

Saying Moslems aren't people is at least a step in the right direction.

Peter Hitchens Cries "Havoc" and Endorses Imminent UK Civil War!

Roy Batty
Daily Stormer

November 27, 2017

Hitchens comes out of his cryosleep, (or rather he finally says something to make me perk up and pay attention) and announces imminent civil war in the UK!

Wow, he knows how to get MY attention, that's for sure.

It's a neat telephone interview and boy does it get off to an excellent start. The host talks about how there are only two positions exist now, you're either a "snowflake or a racist." But he thinks this is a bad thing for some reason. Baffling stuff, I know.

This can only be seen as a good thing, a great development even!

Video Link

By the way, it only gets boring from there, so you don't have to watch the whole damn thing.

What they fail to mention, (that I will) and what is happening now is a process called "balkanization." And the best part is that the Muslims are doing it for us. See, fringe groups like ISIS and other radical Muslims can only exert their political agenda on mass society through terrorism, and through fear. This leads to balkanization, which happens when the middle is eroded because there can be no real discussions or negotiation anymore when one group is willing to kill if they don't get what they want.

Because of Muslim terror, political tension gets exacerbated. People are thrown into anti-Muslim or pro-Muslim camps because it is such a polarizing issue. You can't say, "let's agree to disagree." White people are at each other's throats over the issue. Our side is saying enough, and their side is trying to keep their boot on our throats so we can't speak and pleading with the normies to just trust them, that everything will work out eventually, assimilation and all that kumbaya nonsense is right around the corner.

But it's not working, because the tension is building. The two camps are splitting from each other. Families are squabbling and relationships are fraying. Soon there will only be Nationalists and Liberals. And then, once they finish fighting it out, either politically, through outright war or something in the middle, more akin to political terror, then AND ONLY THEN, can we start moving to the showdown with the Muslims.

Then the day we are waiting for will dawn and it will simply be team White Sharia or Brown Sharia, and woe to anyone caught in the middle.

But Hitchens just HAD to cuck by saying:

"It would be completely improper to try to push [the immigrants] into leaving."

Absurd. Being "propah" is what got you into this mess, you daft nob wanker cunt. And Hitchens basically says at the 20 minute mark that there is literally no solution to the problem of mass migration into the UK, that the brits have to live with the new brits as best as they can and be civilized about the whole affair.

Fuck that, time to go full Conan on these sand savages and their cuck enablers.

And the comments section is unforgiving.

The majority of the comments are definitely /ourguys/ and indicative of the general feeling in the population.

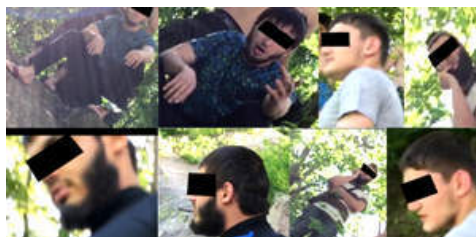

Let the pseudo-intellectuals posture and cuck. It'll be the comment section that launches the RWDS and fights the RAHOWA in the not so distant future.

Hitchens is clever enough to see the future that is brewing in the UK, but he still needs to decide his future in it.

Sharia police in Austria: Moslems Threaten to Rape a Woman Bathing Topless Unless She Covers Up

A woman, accompanied by her boyfriend, was bathing topless at the Steinbruch lake, not far from Vienna. Six foreign Muslim men appeared and threatened to rape the woman unless she covered up. The boyfriend was also threatened with violence.

The bearded men specifically demanded that the woman put on a T-shirt.

...otherwise the danger that wouldn't be able to keep her under control would be too great and she could be raped.

The Muslims also insulted the couple, using words like "Shameless", "Whore", "Shit Austrian". One said "I will rape you right now...listen carefully"

The man, Thomas Busek, was able to take some photographs and video of the incident. Although the incident occurred on 15 June, the photos were only published last week. This allowed police to quickly track down four of the perpetrators. All were asylum seekers whose claims had been granted. Three were from Chechnya, one from Afghanistan, all between the ages of 18 and 23. They will be charged with Nötigung [Coercion].

Because of the nature of some of the remarks they made, anti-terrorism authorities are now examining whether the arrested men have any links to violent jihadist groups.

There is literally no way in hell a pro-abortion, pro-man-on-man anal Democrat can win in Alabama.

Roy Moore could come out on stage in a Gwar costume with an entire team of middle school cheerleaders and grope them all while singing Clarence Carter's "Strokin."

Video Link

And as long as he was like "the other guy is going to kill babies" he would win.

So today, Politico comes out and is like "yeah, they're basically just lying...":

Roy Moore appears to have inched back in front of Democrat Doug Jones in the latest Alabama Senate election polls, according to the oft-cited RealClearPolitics average—a change in fortune from mid-November, when sexual misconduct allegations against Moore first surfaced.

The reality? No one really has a clue about where things stand with Alabama voters in the December 12 special election.

For all the national attention and the millions of dollars spent to win the seat, there's relatively little public polling in the contest. Only three public surveys in the average have been conducted since the Thanksgiving holiday, and odds are you've never heard of two of the three pollsters.

And that's precisely the problem. The most important and closely watched election in the nation is taking place in the equivalent of a polling black box. There are no established, in-state polling institutions or dominant regional media outlets to fill that void. Since it's not typically a politically competitive state, outside pollsters don't have much experience in Alabama either. Outside of Fox News and a new Washington Post poll released Saturday, national media outlets or major pollsters haven't yet stepped forward to survey the race.

On top of all that, the Alabama Senate race is a special, off-year election being held just before Christmas—layering on more elements of uncertainty and mystery.

"This is a state where no one has a real track record," said Patrick Murray, director of the Monmouth University Polling Institute, "because who bothers to poll Alabama statewide races?"

They just do everything at once.

They'll tell you he's winning, he's losing, then say they have no idea and it is impossible to find out.

In fact, given other markers—in particular, the religiosity and generally overwhelmingly conservative nature of the state—polls are stupid and pointless in this situation. Just generally, polls are an outdated method of predicting the outcome of elections, even if they weren't generally hoaxed. But they won't bother telling you that.

This Alabama situation is particularly retarded as the goal of these jailbait allegations was never to get a Democrat to win—it was to try and get Moore to step down and be replaced with an establishment Republican, presumably Luther Strange. But since that didn't happen, they are pretending there is some kind of race between him and the Democrat. No one thinks that is a thing.

As we saw with the ABC Mike Flynn report, you can't even expect these people to report simple facts that you can Google.

We have our news and analysis—though they are attempting to shut that down—but we really need on the ground reporters at his point. We need to fully replace the media. Infowars is attempting to do that, but they really do just make a lot of shit up.

I wish they would stop. They don't really have any reason to.

They've also got that issue with the Laura Loomer masturbation video, which could end up bankrupting them.

We need competent people, desperately.

NOTE: If you're in Alabama, absolutely go vote. Get everyone you know to go vote. Don't consider it a done deal. We also want the largest margin possible.

But let me tell you something about fake polls: these people making them are stupid.

Alabamans are going to see this and say "ZOMG ABORTIONS" and run out and vote. So these fake polls have the exact opposite of their intended effect. It was the same thing with the 2016 Presidential race.

I don't know why they keep doing this.

Kate Steinle: "Diverse" Jury Rejects White Humanity and Acquits Illegal Immigrant Murderer

Eric Striker
Daily Stormer
December 1, 2017

A San Francisco runaway jury has loudly rejected the right of whites to live. The five times deported multiple felon drug addicted illegal alien who murdered Kate Steinle at random has been cleared of all murder charges, including involuntary manslaughter.

White people have a better shot at justice in a Tijuana court than in Jew-run, majority-minority California!

According to Jose Ines Garcia Zarate's attorney Matt Gonzalez—a public defender (not exactly Bruce Cutler)—this multiple felon illegal criminal protected by San Fag's sanctuary city policies "found" a random gun. The weapon then "misfired" a bullet into Steinle's back as she walked with her father by the pier. Zarate's lawyer insisted that this was nothing more than an accident and his client was innocent.

Zarate previously confessed to the murder. That was thrown out later because they said he couldn't understand English and had a 2nd grade education.

In October, the "diverse" jurors saw footage of the killing. In it, Kate Steinle dies, Zarate tosses the pistol in the water, and walks away hoping nobody saw him. He was chased down and arrested. The gun was retrieved by the San Francisco police department's underwater unit and the defense fought it the whole trial. Does this sound like an accident to you?

The San Francisco prosecutors office is the biggest criminal here. Rather than pursuing this as a hate crime (the shooting happened on 7/1/2015, 2 weeks into the media making hay about Trump's Mexican immigration speech) or at least a crazy junky gunning down random people, they decided to build their case on the defendant "playing a secret version of Russian roulette."

In other words, the district attorney wanted him to walk to make a political statement.

San Francisco Chronicle:

On Thursday, the verdict arrived: Jose Ines Garcia Zarate was acquitted of all murder and manslaughter charges. He was convicted merely of being a felon in possession of a firearm.

"We're just shocked—saddened and shocked...that's about it," Jim said. "There's no other way you can coin it. Justice was rendered, but it was not served."

Brad said he was "not surprised," considering the "epic failure" that led Garcia Zarate to be released on the streets, and end up with a loaded handgun on the pier that day.

"I'm stunned that they couldn't even get him on using the weapon," Brad said.

And so went the court system's application of justice in a case that almost instantly became a cause celebre for advocates of a crackdown on illegal immigration. Fox News championed “Kate’s Law” to impose mandatory prison sentences on those who return to the U.S. after deportation. Donald Trump, as candidate and now as president, has routinely cited Kate’s death as justification for building a U.S.-Mexico border wall and punishing sanctuary cities.

The Steinles have a decidedly nuanced view on sanctuary cities. They support the concept as a way to encourage immigrants, regardless of legal status, to come forward as victims or witnesses to crimes without fear of deportation. Yet they believe San Francisco went too far when then-Sheriff Ross Mirkarimi effectively ordered his department to cut off communication with federal immigration authorities.

They also expressed frustration at the sanctimony and stubbornness of San Francisco politicians. In response to the outrage over Kate’s killing, the city modified its sanctuary policy only slightly, allowing notification of federal immigration authorities only when a person convicted of certain violent crimes is about to be released.

The bottom line: An undocumented immigrant with Garcia Zarate’s exact criminal history still could be released from jail to the streets without a call to alert Immigration and Customs Enforcement.

Brad Steinle said he was “just flabbergasted” by the “culmination of errors” that led to his sister’s death. “Failure No. 1” was the feds’ decision to send Garcia Zarate back to San Francisco on a 20-year-old drug charge, which they should have known would never be prosecuted. The unsecured and loaded gun left in a Bureau of Land Management ranger’s vehicle, which was stolen. And, perhaps worst of all, a sheriff’s policy that allowed the release of a repeat felon who should have been deported.

In Brad’s view, those official actions were at least as responsible as the shooter for Kate’s death.

“This trial, for me, is kind of the least important part of the puzzle,” the brother said. “The sequence of events that led up to this—and the fact that nothing has changed—is the most disheartening thing. It’s like Siegfried and Roy: You stick your head in a tiger’s mouth and you’re probably going to get bit at some point.”

The trial was an ordeal for Kate’s parents. They had to hear what seemed like interminable monologues from Public Defender Matt Gonzalez. “That jury—God love ’em, God love ’em,” Liz said of their endurance of Gonzalez’s arguments, including his contention that the gun went off accidentally. “Just ridiculous stuff,” she added.

“I own a handgun,” Brad interjected. “I know that guns don’t just go off. But you have a jury full of people, the vast majority of which probably haven’t shot a gun before and don’t know the intricacies of how a gun works.”

For Jim, whose daughter collapsed in his arms after being shot in the back, the tribulation included a need to recount the Pier 14 nightmare on the witness stand.

“I can hardly talk about it today,” he said. “It’s a horrific moment that you can’t get out of your mind. That’s how all three of us suffered. It’s all-encompassing, and 2½ years later, we’re still in court. I dreaded every moment when I thought about it, and I said what I had to say, and you can’t put a ribbon around it or anything like that. You just relive this, day after day.”

Now and then an acquaintance would angrily suggest that Kate’s killer should be executed and ask: “What do you think, Jim?”

“I think Kate’s gone,” Jim said. “We’re not going there. We don’t have hate. Of course we’re deep in our faith and we go to church. We believe Kate’s in a better place, and we think about her on that level. But no, we have no vindictiveness.”

Sheriff Ross Mirkarimi—the mind behind San Francisco’s outrageous sanctuary city policy—is of course a filthy Jew. He is as guilty as the savage on trial.

Nobody, including the jury, believes the defense’s argument that this career criminal fired the pistol by accident. What happened here is a jury composed of Jews, leftists and non-whites wanted to give Donald Trump—who they see as an avatar for white people—a big F.U. at a random white person’s expense.

December 1, 2017

This is the beginning of a disturbing new chapter in America where “Bronx Juries” just acquit every non-white who kills a white. This is already happening across the country in diverse districts with lower profile crimes. Prosecutors and judges are often accomplices to the phenomenon.

The Steinle family too is part of the problem. The fact that they are just totally letting this travesty go shows they are cowards who have failed their daughter’s memory.

The fact that they are relying on religion for help is the ultimate irony.

San Francisco organized religion sided with Kate’s killer because they want to replace intellectually curious whites with obedient, tithing (since they don’t pay taxes anyway) Mexican drones. Rev. Jon Pedigo of Catholic Charities sided with Zarate to the press with this idiotic quote:

The Rev. Jon Pedigo, director for advocacy and community engagement at Catholic Charities of Silicon Valley, said it was clear from the start that the shooting was unintentional.

“There’s no getting around the tragedy that this woman was killed,” he said. “A person picked up a gun and did not know what to do with it. But it’s unfortunate that this woman’s death was used and abused for political point-making by Trump and the anti-immigrant movement. It was used as a way to attack solid policies.

“We need to be clear about what the significance of this is,” he added. “The Constitution won. Due process won.”

That’s right, a guy who has spent most of his adult life illegally re-entering the United States to sell hard drugs mistakenly picked up a gun laying around in the street, as if San Francisco is the city from Grand Theft Auto III. He had no idea what a gun does!

This blind “conservative” faith in “institutions” like the church, the court system, and the government will be the death of our civilization and race. These institutions are all uniting to destroy us for profit and power. They must be brought down and built from scratch.

Because Jews prevent whites from having advocates, there will most likely be no protests, marches or successful legislation to prevent this from happening again.

Jose Ines Garcia Zarate looks like he’ll get out in a year on his felony gun possession charge (time served) and victimize another American.

Judge William Orrick in a California court arbitrarily struck down Trump’s order to cut federal funding for states that do not enforce federal immigration law just because he felt like it. California is a third world canary in the coal mine for what all of America will soon look like, even if you’re out in “flyover country.”

How much more must the ship sink before families like the Steinles decide to rock it, even if it hurts their material well-being?

If fascism ever comes to America it will be these people’s fault

FBI Claims It is Launching National Investigation Against Antifa

Eric Striker
Daily Stormer
December 1, 2017

Antifa has always been the domestic terrorist group it is now. It is a collection of freaks and malcontents who encourage one another to up the ante. This is thanks to the implicit and explicit support and protection they traditionally enjoy from the media, local police forces and major Jewish organizations.

But they may be biting off more than they can chew. Their violence is radicalizing white people in America, especially now that they consider everyone who supports or voted for Trump a “Fascist.”

Here they are on tape planning to do a chemical attack on some DC Trump inauguration ball:

Video Link

Here is an Antifa cell in Utah plotting to lure members of a college Young Republicans group into the parking lot to murder them:

Video Link

They aim most of their brutality at unsuspecting cuckservatives and alt-lites. These groups are made up of weaklings who can’t or won’t defend themselves. Antifas know real nationalists will smash them when they try to kill us or violate our civil rights, as Charlottesville demonstrated.

It looks like the FBI is now starting to infiltrate their groups.

Washington Examiner:

Federal domestic terrorism investigators are probing “a number of” people animated by “kind of an Antifa ideology,” FBI Director Christopher Wray told lawmakers Thursday.

“We do have a very active domestic terrorism program,” Wray told the House Homeland Security Committee. “And while we’re not investigating Antifa as Antifa—that’s an ideology and we don’t investigate ideologies—we are investigating a number of what we would call anarchist-extremist investigations where we have properly predicated subjects of people who are motivated to commit violent criminal activity on kind of an Antifa ideology.”

Wray stressed that while the FBI has about 1,000 open domestic terror investigations, none of them are focused on “ideology, opinion, or rhetoric,” and instead are based on threats.

The extreme left Antifa came to the fore of the national political debate in August, following a string of incidents between the left-wing activists and alt-right white supremacists, or right-wing speakers accused of white supremacy. Those protests and counter-protests culminated in violence at a rally staged by white supremacists in Charlottesville, Va., in which a counter-protester was killed when an individual who attended the rally drove a vehicle into a crowd of left-wing activists.

President Trump was criticized sharply, at the time, for emphasizing that there was violence “on both sides” at the rally, when the murder victim was a member of counter-protesters. The incident also put a spotlight on cases of Antifa threatening violence to stymie speeches by right-wing political figures, ranging from alt-right speakers such as Milo Yiannopoulos to conventional conservatives such as Ben Shapiro.

Antifa thuggery has had an interesting effect on the increasingly polarized American political consciousness. The J-left has more or less given up on any actual revolutionary ideas, now they dedicate all their time and resources to reactionary attacks on our rising protest movement. History will not be kind to them.

But the deep state supported communist paramilitary groups are getting big for their britches. Since Antifa sometimes attacks people the system is sending out to control the “right” like Ben Shapiro, the feds are going to have to start policing them.

Lastly, because every day folks are victimized by these scumbags and the police don’t arrest them, you are starting to see middle aged Evangelical Christians in the Breitbart comments section giving the thumbs up to “Nazis” who fight to take back our streets from the communists. The FBI really doesn’t like this.

If they don’t stop the communist paramilitary groups, America will soon be just one big street war between Nazis and communists like Weimar Germany. I believe this is inevitable no matter what they do. America is not sustainable in its current form, and this only gets worse by the minute.

All in all, Antifas are not used to being under actual surveillance. Many of them are confident that their rich connected parents (like Tim Kaine’s son) or the National Lawyer’s Guild will have their back if they get caught.

Rumors are already swirling that some of their ring leaders are being subpoenaed for their role in causing the Charlottesville riots.

If the FBI is genuinely scrutinizing them like they do the alt-right, they are screwed. The average unhinged criminal that tags along to Antifa events makes even the most autistic SIEGE-reading edgelord look like a model citizen.

Once protection and tolerance they enjoy from the state dissipates, they will find out what the working class really thinks about them.

Hollywood Monkey Bambadjan Bamba Brags About His Illegal Alien Status

Adrian Sol
Daily Stormer
December 1, 2017

This smug nigger is laughing in your face, White man!

That’s what happens when you coddle these brown people. It starts with not whipping them when they act up, and it ends with them assuming the right to violate our laws without consequence and flaunt their crimes impudently.

The Hollywood negro Bamadjan Bamba, of “The Good Place” fame, is a recent example. He smugly taunted America, declaring that he was an illegal invader, implying that laws shouldn’t apply to him or other brown people.

Page Six:

An actor and filmmaker best known for the NBC sitcom “The Good Place” and an upcoming role in Marvel’s “Black Panther” movie, has revealed he is an undocumented immigrant, saying he wants Hollywood to do more for DACA recipients.

DO IT.

Bamadjan Bamba told the Los Angeles Times he chose to reveal his immigration status Tuesday, because of efforts to rescind the Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals program.

“Ultimately, I really felt moved in my spirit. I felt like God was telling me, “This is your time to do it. You have to do it,” said Bamba, 35. “I look at my daughter and I'm like, 'If I don't do it, and DACA gets canceled, I could be separated [from her].' We just don't know what's going to happen and I'd rather go out fighting."

This guy is apparently playing in the new "Black Panther" movie.

Planet Africa, according to the Jews.

What's so bad about going back to Africa, Bamba? Aren't you looking forward to your time in a futuristic society which is both high-tech and free of hate?

The actor is one of an estimated 11 million illegal immigrants in the United States.

That bullshit number again, huh?

Video Link

The real number is closer to 30 or even 50 million. But I guess if the media used this more honest figure, it might make Americans a little bit more nervous, huh?

His family fled to the US from Cote D'Ivoire in 1993, after the nation's first president died and the country became politically unstable.

THEY FLED THE BRUTAL CIVIL WAR IN COTE D'IVOIRE!!!

Oh, wait, there was no civil war then.

They were just fleeing niggerdry.

Bamba was 10 at the time but didn't find out about his immigration status until high school.

"My whole childhood was, 'Hey, we're in America. We're trying to get asylum. There's a war in Africa,'" he said. "It wasn't until I started applying for college that I realized that I couldn't get financial aid. I had to have a conversation with my parents, and they're like, 'Oh yeah...The asylum case didn't work out...'"

African warfare.

There's always a war in Africa. These people kill each other constantly—and they did since time immemorial. If we let every last negro "fleeing the war" into America, the entire population of Africa will be here in no time. And then, we'll have the tribal wars here instead.

Oh, wait, we already do have those.

Wherever they go, Blacks split into teams and then kill each other.

ICE need to immediately deport this uppity Hollywood nigger to send a message to the rest. Are people above the law just because they're rich and famous? Basic justice demands this negro be sent back to Africa along with his anchor baby as soon as possible.

McDonald's Bun Supplier Loses 21 Million Dollars After Trump Took Away All Its Illegal Workers

Adrian Sol
Daily Stormer
December 1, 2017

No freedom for burgers.

The entire corporate world is against Donald Trump because they can't stand to lose their access to cheap migrant labor. Well, the easy days are over, and now the chickens are coming home to roost.

These people have to pay for the crime of hiring illegal immigrants over White Americans. And while they deserve a hell of a lot worse than losing millions of dollars and going bankrupt, it's a good start.

Eater:

A West Side Chicago bakery that makes hamburger buns for McDonald's has been reeling after losing more than one-third of its workforce—800 employees—in an immigration raid. The owners of Cloverhill Bakery, which opened in 1961 in Galewood and was purchased in 2014 by a Swiss Company, reported they've lost $21 million as a result. The bakery used an unnamed staffing agency to make the hires and says it didn't verify the immigration statuses of its employees, a fairly frequent occurrence in the hospitality and agriculture industries.

If you want to fuck with America, you should know better than to touch our burgers.

We will respond with extreme prejudice. Mark my words.

Bloomberg, which first reported the story, described the action as one the biggest “headaches” a European company has reported in wake of the Trump administration’s focus on undocumented immigrants. There have been smaller raids targeting food businesses, such as in February in Mississippi, where ICE detained 55 immigrants from local Asian restaurants. However, many raids aren’t made public, as ICE won’t confirm their activities. That leads to rumors about the occurrences of raids all across the country, from North Dakota to Massachusetts to Ann Arbor, Michigan.

Good. This is all part of the plan. It’s time these criminals knew fear. Now wherever they are, they have to watch over their shoulder for those ICE vans.

It’s unknown how this particular raid has affected the Golden Arches’s supply chain, but consumer prices will soon be affected, according to Aryzta AG, the bakery’s Swiss parent. The company reported a 7 percent dip in North American sales— “driven entirely by Cloverhill” —for the three-month period after the raid, from September through October. Excluding Cloverhill, the company’s North American revenues increased by 1.3 percent.

As the company fills the vacancies, executives on an analyst call described the situation as similar to opening a new bakery with a brand new workforce. Aryzta runs 24 bakeries in America and Canada.

This is sending a great messages to every company hiring illegal immigrants: it’s time to clean up your act, or we’ll clean it for you. The only reason all these companies are hiring beaners is because they thought they could get away with it forever. If there are actual consequences, they’ll have to start hiring actual Americans again, or be at risk of losing their business.

McDonald’s is now hurting financially because one of their suppliers hired criminal invaders. Hopefully, soon there will be a culture in the business world where companies won’t want to buy from anyone hiring non-legitimate workers, for fear of something like this happening to them as well.

All the dominoes are falling. Soon it’ll be damn near impossible for spics to find employment in the United States, and all incentive to come here will vanish.

John Conyers is in the Hospital Due to the Stress of Molesting So Many Sluts – Pelosi Urges Him to “Just Fucking Die, Nigger”

UPDATE:
Queen Ann is on it.

Why isn’t Nancy Pelosi calling for the resignation of Al Franken? No, she only wants to get rid of John Conyers, a proud black man.

— Ann Coulter (@AnnCoulter) November 30, 2017

Original article follows.

Some people can take the pressure of having to molest mad sluts.

For instance, I can.

However, many niggers cannot, and they end up in the hospital because of it.

LOL.

CNN:

Rep. John Conyers, who is under fire for accusations of sexual harassment, is in the hospital Thursday, an aide to Conyers told reporters.

Political consultant Sam Riddle said Conyers was hospitalized due to stress, according to CNN affiliate WDIV.

“I just spoke with Monica Conyers on the phone and we want you to know that the congressman is resting comfortably in an area hospital. He’s doing OK, as well as he can be expected for a gentleman that’s approaching 90 years of age,” Riddle said. “The congressman’s health is not what it should be and lot of that is directly attributable to this media assault.”

A separate aide to Conyers confirmed to CNN that the Michigan Democrat was in the hospital. Neither was able to give additional details about Conyers’ condition or where he was, though Conyers was in his home district at the time.

Conyers, 88, is the longest currently serving member of the US House of Representatives.

Conyers is facing several public allegations of sexual harassment.

This nigger is going off the rails of the molestation train.

Video Link

BABY IT'S NOT TO LATE TO LEARN HOW TO LOVE AND FORGET HOW TO RAPE.

Actually, it probably is too late LOL.

Pelosi is urging Conyers to resign.

Conyers responded by saying "I KNOW THAT THINGS ARE GOING WRONG FOR ME—YOU'VE GOTTA LISTEN TO MY WORRRRRRRDS, YEAHHHHH!"

Seriously though, she should probably just be urging him to die. He's 88-years-old and in the hospital because he's going off the rails on the grope train.

The Guardian:

Pelosi, the House minority leader, said during a press conference on Capitol Hill that the allegations against her fellow Democrat were "serious, disappointing and very credible". The House minority leader on Sunday defended Conyers, who has served in Congress since 1964.

Pelosi said: "It is very sad. The brave women who came forward are owed justice. I pray for Congressman Conyers and his family and wish them well. However, Congressman Conyers should resign."

Moments later, the House speaker, Paul Ryan, agreed with Pelosi and called on Conyers to "resign immediately".

Conyers, who vigorously denies the allegations against him, has no intention of stepping down, said Arnold Reed, Conyers' lawyer, during a combative press conference in which he attacked Pelosi for not being a strong enough advocate for women.

"She sure as hell won't be the one to tell the congressman to leave," Reed said outside the Conyers family home.

The congressman, who is 88, was hospitalized overnight for issues related to stress, Reed said. Conyers was taken to the hospital in Detroit after experiencing shortness of breath and dizziness.

It sounds to me like Nancy Pelosi hates niggers.

ABSOLUTELY DISGUSTING.

And of course Paul Ryan does—but he literally lynches niggers in his front yard. He also once tried to kill DMX with a car bomb. Fucking Nazi.

Look, racists. It's over. John Conyers can rape whoever he wants, after what you people did to him during slavery.

Get over it.

Video Link

It's time to learn how to love and forget how to hate.

However, thank YHVH that Pelosi and Ryan don't have the nerve to tell GOD'S CHOSEN PEOPLE Al Franken to resign.

Then we'd really be into real Nazi territory.

Hating niggers and lynching them is one thing.

But questioning Jews—that's a whole other story.

Morning Joe Claims Trump Has Dementia And Will Start a Nuclear War

Morning Joe Scarborough, like many hosts on MSNBC, is an unhinged lunatic who should be permanently placed in a mental hospital. It is amazing that these crazy people have been given a platform to rant their madness on national television.

This morning, Scarborough delivered a hysterical and rambling diatribe claiming that Donald Trump was suffering from dementia and that he would start a nuclear war. He also demanded that the cabinet remove Trump from office citing the 25th Amendment.

Trump had just called out Morning Joe for the fishy business surrounding a dead intern who was discovered in his Congressional office back in the early 2000s. There are many who believe that Morning Joe was involved in her death.

So now that Matt Lauer is gone when will the Fake News practitioners at NBC be terminating the contract of Phil Griffin? And will they terminate low ratings Joe Scarborough based on the "unsolved mystery" that took place in Florida years ago? Investigate!

— Donald J. Trump (@realDonaldTrump) November 29, 2017

Morning Joe was no doubt upset that Trump mentioned this to his millions of Twitter followers. That's why he decided to deliver such an insanely ridiculous rant. There are no signs that Trump has dementia or ill health. This is a man who has kept an extremely rigorous schedule as President. His numerous speeches and banter with the fake news media have shown conclusively that he is far sharper than the average person.

Morning Joe is a fool and a hack. Prior to Trump winning the Republican nomination for President, his press coverage of Trump was neutral to marginally positive. They were ordered by MSNBC management to shift gears and attack Trump 24/7 shortly after. Morning Joe and his girlfriend Mika have 100 percent complied. These are people who have sold their souls for their million dollar paychecks. One look at their faces and you can see that this is the case.

Gateway Pundit White House Correspondent ARRESTED for Giving "It's Okay to be White" Speech at a University

Typical college speech these days.

Lucian Wintrich, who's a homo and partially Jewish as well, is the White House correspondent for the right-wing conspiracy site "Gateway Pundit." In other words, he's pretty much a MILO-tier figure. Yet that apparently doesn't absolve him from getting shut down and arrested by the police for ostensibly defending the White race.

Washington Post:

Lucian Wintrich, a credentialed White House correspondent for Gateway Pundit, a right-wing website, was arrested Tuesday night after a scuffle broke out as he was trying to deliver a speech titled "It's OK to be White" at the University of Connecticut in Storrs.

Well...maybe this made it all worth it...here is my actual mug shot from tonight: pic.twitter.com/SzSrw4GsgJ

— Lucian B. Wintrich (@lucianwintrich) November 29, 2017

The speech, sponsored by the campus College Republicans and attended by about 350 people, had been largely drowned out by protesters shouting "Go home, Nazis," "Black lives matter" and "F--- you," according to the Daily Campus, the student newspaper.

Yeah, well, that's to be expected. I guess it's still good that these speeches are being done, as it exposes the insanity of the modern college environment to normal people, who may still be unaware of what goes on in there. Also, it helps in polarizing the political atmosphere, which always brings more people to our side as a reaction to leftist extremism.

Video of the incident showed several young people approaching the lectern behind which Wintrich was standing. According to the Hartford Courant, which covered the event, they began "yelling at Wintrich." A woman then took from the lectern a sheaf of papers, apparently the text of Wintrich's speech, and walked away with them. Wintrich pursued her and grabbed her in an apparent effort to retrieve the papers.

In other words, some antifa terrorist stole something from him, and he ran after her to take back his private property. The slut is lucky he didn't shoot a ICBM at her.

When your neighbor cuts his grass and a blade falls on your lawn so you go get in your A-10 Warthog and strafe his house, killing his entire family

Private property is serious business, m8.

At that point, others intervened and appeared to be trying to pull him off the woman, the video showed, and a brief melee broke out. Police took Wintrich out of the room, the Courant reported.

A UConn spokeswoman, Stephanie Reitz, told the Courant that Wintrich was charged with breach of peace and released on $1,000 bail. As he was being driven away in a police car, students ran after it, the paper said.

So, the bitch who went and stole his speech wasn't charged with "breach of the peace" or even "theft," and he's the one getting arrested. Of all the students who rioted and disturbed the event, only one was arrested after breaking a window.

And these antifa faggots have the gall to claim that they're "fighting against the establishment?" lol.

Trump Re-Tweets String of Hardcore Anti-Moslem Videos from Britain First

— Jayda Fransen (@JaydaBF) November 28, 2017

This is exactly why we elected Trump. He's boosting our message to millions of people, exposing them to information that the mainstream has concealed for years. And as you can imagine, the media is going nuts over it.

New York Daily News:

President Trump gave the platform of the U.S. commander-in-chief to a British far-right leader, reposting a string of anti-Muslim videos on his Twitter.

Jayda Fransen is the deputy leader for Britain First, a civic nationalist party in Britain advocating for immigration restriction, especially of Moslems.

By re-tweeting her, he's showing support for the nationalist opposition in the UK, which seems like a major diplomatic statement on top of being very politically incorrect.

He injected the American political bloodstream with a series of three videos including "Islamist mob pushes teenage boy off roof" and "Muslim Destroys a Statue of Virgin Mary!" on Wednesday morning.

None of the videos were immediately verifiable and Dutch newspaper De Telegraaf reported that the third video "Muslim migrant beats up Dutch boy on crutches!" was in fact "fake news."

It covered the clip from the website Dumpert in May, and said that the original video, which led to the arrest of a 16-year-old from the Dutch city of Monnickendam, said nothing about an alleged ethnic attack.

What do you believe, "De Telegraaf" or your lying eyes? These retards are saying that the video is "fake news," because it was posted with an accurate description of the contents whereas the original reporting on the story pretended like this was not ethnically motivated.

Don't these media people realize the "fake news" term is now an Alt-Right meme? It's now basically a synonym for lügenpresse.

Wow, Matt Lauer was just fired from NBC for "inappropriate sexual behavior in the workplace." But when will the top executives at NBC & Comcast be fired for putting out so much Fake News. Check out Andy Lack's past!

— Donald J. Trump (@realDonaldTrump) November 29, 2017

Using it in their articles just confuses people by this point. The average reader is like "wut? I didn't know Britain First was a subsidiary of CNN. You learn something every day, I guess."

The fact is that these videos have a realistic quality to them that no explaining away on the part of the press can suppress. Their propaganda value is great, and by putting them out like this Trump is helping to radicalize his base. If he keeps going like this the average normie Trump supporter will become increasingly indistinguishable from Alt-Righters.

Report: Trump Still Doesn't Believe Obama Birth Certificate Hoax

Andrew Anglin

People have long been suspicious of the claims by Barack Obama that he is American.

I knew this.

I knew when he said he believed it, it was a fakeout.

Why would he just all of the sudden start believing it, even though there was no new information?

CNN:

President Donald Trump has continued to question the legitimacy of former President Barack Obama's birth certificate during private conversations in recent months, The New York Times reported, citing advisers who discussed Trump's statements.

Trump still questioning Obama's birthplace is just one of several instances The Times pointed to as examples of the President's reliance on "manufactured facts," as the newspaper reported Tuesday.

One sitting US senator quoted by the Times, "who listened as the President revived his doubts" about the issue, "chuckled" when speaking about what was said. Trump "has had a hard time letting go of his claim that Mr. Obama was not born in the United States," the senator, who "asked not to be named to discuss private conversations," told The New York Times.

Although Obama was born in Hawaii in 1961, Trump publicly questioned Obama's citizenship for several years before saying in a news conference during the 2016 election that he believed the nation's first African-American president was born in the US.

Allegedly born in Hawaii, CNN. Allegedly.*

In September 2016, Trump said, "President Barack Obama was born in the United States."

The White House released copies of Obama's original long-form birth certificate in 2011 in an attempt to put the rumors to bed.

Tuesday's report comes days after The Times reported that Trump also was questioning the authenticity of the infamous "Access Hollywood" tape.

That tape could be fake too. Although I like that tape. Grab em by the pussy was one of the top memes of 2016.

But basically, anything the media presents could be and probably is fake.

The MSM is literally Jack Posobiec-tier. They just make things up out of thin air. But unlike Posobiec, they have the ability to back-up their fakery with complexified nonsense.

The media recently hoaxed my entire life story, and that really makes you think. When it happens to you, it really makes you think.

I sure do hope that Trump acts on the birth certificate. He certainly now has the resources to figure it out either way. And if it was declared that Barack Obama never actually was President—wew.

That would be a game changer. Let me tell you what.

Stephen Paddock Previously Lived in a Unit at the Building in Reno That a Shooter Fired Out Of Here's a thing for you.

Just a thing for you to BLOW
YOUR MIND with.
LA Times:

A gunman with a hostage opened fire from the eighth floor of a luxury high-rise condominium in Reno onto the streets below, authorities said. No injuries were reported.

The man died Tuesday night after a SWAT team descended on him while he was barricaded at the Montage condo complex, Reno Police Deputy Chief Tom Robinson told reporters. It wasn't immediately clear whether he was killed by police gunfire or his own. No one else, including the hostage, was hurt.

The gunman's name has not been released. Robinson described him only as a young adult.

The luxury high-rise is surrounded by some of downtown Reno's most popular casinos, and the gunfire brought eerie echoes of the Las Vegas shooting two months earlier that killed 58 people and injured hundreds more.

AAAAAAAAND....
Fox News:

The Las Vegas gunman who killed 58 people in October previously owned a unit at the Reno high-rise condominium that was the site of a shooting Tuesday, the Associated Press reported.

Police said there were no reports of injuries in the Reno shooting, in which a gunman allegedly fired shots from the eighth floor of the Montage condominium. Authorities said gunshots were going off for at least 20 minutes.

Stephen Paddock, the gunman in the Oct. 1 rampage in Las Vegas, owned a unit at the Montage but records show he sold the property in December 2016.

Tuesday's gunman, who is now dead, was not immediately identified by Reno police.

Deputy Chief Tom Robinson told reporters Tuesday night that the man had died after a SWAT team went to the eighth floor of the Montage and engaged him. It wasn't immediately clear whether he was killed by police gunfire or his own hand.

A woman in the room with the suspect was able to get out unharmed, police said, and no injuries were reported by either law enforcement officers or bystanders, Fox Reno reported.

I'm not saying something super-weird is going on here. Like something MK Ultra-tier, as I've previously suggested.

But come on, guy.

Another guy in Nevada shoots out of a high-rise—something which I had never heard of happening before Stephen Paddock—and it just so happens that Paddock used to live in that building?

This is a really, super-weird coincidence.

Or maybe it isn't that weird of a coincidence?

Maybe Paddock owned a lot of real estate, and this is just a normal coincidence?

I don't even know how to place this.

I mean you all know that I am the last guy to believe in kookspiracies. I get hell for being the number one anti-Sandy Hooker.

But seriously.

What is going on here?

What are the chances of this happening?

This now goes beyond just some kind of cover-up because Paddock was some kind of asset that went rogue into some kind of I don't even know what.

Seriously.

What does it mean?

Only non-weird situation: he knew Paddock—or was thinking a lot about him because he lived in the same building, maybe they didn't actually know each other—and so he got the idea to do the same thing, copycat style. I mean that is obviously weird. But it is the least weird option.

All other options go into Twilight Zone territory.

Retired Marine Lee Busby Announces Alabama Senate Run to Cuck Roy Moore

Lee Rogers

Daily Stormer

November 28, 2017

The establishment is foaming at the mouth trying to stop our man Roy Moore!

They're pulling out all the stops to prevent Roy Moore from winning the Alabama Senate race. A retired Marine colonel named Lee Busby just announced a last minute write-in campaign. This is the equivalent of what Evan McMullin tried to do against Donald Trump in last year's presidential election. It couldn't be any more transparent and the chances of it working are slim.

Washington Examiner:

With only two weeks to go until the special election for the U.S. Senate seat in Alabama, Lee Busby, a 60-year-old retired Marine colonel who previously served as a top aide to White House chief of staff John Kelly, is launching a write-in campaign as a conservative option for many conflicted voters.

In an interview with the Washington Post, the Tuscaloosa native said that he sees an opportunity to win a good chunk of the votes on Dec. 12 and prevent both Republican Roy Moore and Democrat Doug Jones from representing the state.

"I think you can flip this thing. If this were a military operation, the left flank and the right flank are heavily guarded," Busby told the Post. "I think that gives you an opportunity to run straight up the middle."

The establishment thought they could sink Moore's campaign with a slew of unproven and ridiculous sex abuse allegations. Since that effort has failed, they're hoping this write-in campaign will swing enough votes away from Moore to elect Jones. There's a reason why the Washington Compost did a major interview with Busby. They've been at the forefront of trying to sink Moore's candidacy and this is a last ditch effort to do just that.

The people of Alabama need to get behind Moore. The corrupt Washington DC establishment ranging across both parties are doing everything possible to prevent him from winning. A Moore victory would send a strong message to all the Republican cucks that the populist movement that started with Trump is not going away.

Senate Majority Leader Mitch McConnell who has opposed Moore from the start, has claimed that the only way forward is to elect fellow cucks who don't stand for anything. A Moore victory would totally debunk this message and give momentum to other populist candidates trying to win seats in Congress.

Moore might have the entire world against him, but he's still in a good position to win.

Jew Run Media Rages Over Trump's Pocahontas Joke at Event Honoring World War II Navajo Veterans

Yesterday, the President of the United States Donald J. Trump invited a small group of Navajo World War II veterans who served as code talkers to the White House. Their story is actually interesting from a historical perspective but that's not what the Jew run fake news media wanted to cover.

They zeroed in on two things.

The first of which was how Trump held the event in front of an Andrew Jackson portrait. Jackson was responsible for implementing a policy that forcibly removed Indians from the South-eastern party of the United States during the 1830s. Due to this history, the media viewed this as a show of disrespect by Trump to the Indians.

The second of which was a joke that Trump made about Pocahontas in reference to Senator Elizabeth Warren. Warren previously claimed that her ancestors were Cherokee Indians in a move to get preferential treatment as an affirmative action hire at Harvard University. That's why Trump continually refers to her as Pocahontas.

CNN and others in the Jew run media have gone crazy over this. Take for example this CNN clip.

Video Link

And here's Pocahontas herself hysterically responding to Trump's joke on MSNBC.

Video Link

It's a good bet that Trump did this intentionally to troll his political enemies. He knew that they would go crazy about the Jackson portrait and the Pocahontas joke. They've already spent hours of television time covering this. In the grand scheme of things, this issue has no tangible significance. The fact that they would go so crazy over a joke further illustrates how unhinged they've become.

This does prove one thing. There sure is a great deal of competition for that fake news trophy!

We should have a contest as to which of the Networks, plus CNN and not including Fox, is the most dishonest, corrupt and/or distorted in its political coverage of your favorite President (me). They are all bad. Winner to receive the FAKE NEWS TROPHY!

Dems Under Pressure to Give Molesters the Boot!

Adrian Sol
Daily Stormer
November 28, 2017

Get these creeps outta there! Especially since, hey, they're all Jews and nigs.

This is what you call the chickens coming home to roost.

For decades, the Jews have been promoting this idea that any man accused of "harassing" women needs to be immediately disgraced and fired, no matter his position, prestige or accomplishments. Of course, this standard has been used to cast White men out of their positions of power in order to better replace them with Jews and their female and brown pets.

But now that the accusations are coming out against them, they're changing their tune and are doing everything they can to protect the molesters, sweeping the numerous accusations under the rug.

Well, we ain't havin' any of that.

Washington Post:

Congressional leaders are under increasing pressure to respond swiftly to sexual misconduct allegations involving prominent members, following an outcry from female lawmakers who believe their male colleagues are being treated more gently than offenders in the private sector.

RIP Bill. Your sacrifice was not in vain.

"If you look, the media and corporate America has been firing people," Rep. Barbara Comstock (R-Va.) said Sunday on ABC's "This Week," noting the swift dismissal by CBS and PBS of Charlie Rose after The Washington Post's report of harassment allegations. "We have to have the same kind of standards."

Yes. Either we do away with this whole "sexual harassment" nonsense altogether, or we apply them to the filthy kikes who pushed to have those standards implemented in the first place.

In recent days, both parties have faced allegations against prominent male members, with ethics inquiries into harassment opened against Rep. John Conyers Jr. (D-Mich.) and Sen. Al Franken (D-Minn.). The political future of Rep. Joe Barton (R-Tex.) was thrown into question when nude photos of the congressman surfaced on social media, and a former girlfriend said he had threatened to report her to the Capitol Police if she exposed his behavior.

The first sign of intensifying pressure on leadership came Sunday, when Conyers, the longest-serving member of Congress, stepped aside as the top Democrat on the House Judiciary Committee.

Behind the scenes, House Minority Leader Nancy Pelosi (D-Calif.) had tried to guide Conyers to give up the leadership post, according to a senior Democratic aide familiar with the process. Conyers's resistance to the effort was backed by some members of the Congressional Black Caucus, which Conyers co-founded more than 45 years ago.

The reality is that this concept of forcing men and women to work closely together everywhere and all the time, and severely punishing any action resulting from the obvious sexual tension at play there, is an obviously ridiculous approach to running a civilization.

And it was never meant to work well.

Nobody sane ever thought this was going to be a productive work environment.

The Jews pushed this meme with full knowledge that it would cause all our systems to fall into chaos and degeneracy. They just weren't far sighted enough to realize it would come back to bite them in the ass once they held full control over society.

Trump Administration Grants Police New Power to Crack Down on Brown People

Adrian Sol
Daily Stormer
November 27, 2017

Let the games begin.

Don't be black-pilled. Do you think any of this would be happening under a Hillary administration?

Illegals are getting flagged, arrested and deported at a faster rate than we've seen in a long time. This fact alone creates psychological pressure keeping more from pouring in.

This is definitely a good thing.

Moreover, police departments across the country are getting deputized into joining the fight against the invading hordes.

Reuters:

Dozens of police departments in the United States have been granted new powers, or are seeking them, to check the immigration status of people they arrest, aiding President Donald Trump's broad crackdown on people living in the country illegally.

Since Trump took office in January, 29 departments have joined a special program under which they are deputized to perform some tasks of immigration agents, doubling its size in 10 months, according to the Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) agency. And the administration hopes that is just the beginning.

Logically speaking, this should always have been the case, everywhere in America. Being here illegally is already a crime, and as such should be entirely within the scope of police authority to handle when necessary—such as, when a illegal alien criminal is arrested.

And since illegals aren't citizens, they don't have any rights, per se. So they could easily be shipped out of the country without a trial. The idea that you need a long and costly legal process to kick out each individual illegal is a pure Jewish swindle.

Someone who enters the country illegally is de-facto an invader, and thus an enemy combatant.

In war, does each enemy combatant need to be tried as well before our soldiers are allowed to shoot at them?

-"Sir! Enemy spotted!"

-"Okay, son. You know the drill. Read him his rights."

In the same way, illegals should be arrested and immediately deported, and if they resist, shot.

Documents obtained through a Freedom of Information Act request show that the administration has also had contact with scores of additional jurisdictions about the program, and 38 of those told Reuters in interviews they have submitted applications for the program or are potentially interested in joining. [Graphic: tm-snr.rs/2A115Sm]

The program, known as 287(g), deputizes local officers trained by ICE to use federal records to vet arrestees they suspect of being in the country illegally and then turn them over to federal agents if they are.

The Department of Homeland Security has said in the past that police forces taking part in the program have flagged tens of thousands of people for deportation.

Niiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiice.

That's what I call government efficiency.

The broad expansion of the program comes as Trump seeks to accelerate arrests and deportations of people living in the United States illegally. The large number of departments expressing interest in the program has not been previously reported.

Most of the police departments that have joined, or are seeking to join, the program have relatively small populations, typically fewer than 100,000 residents, with small immigrant populations. In contrast, the roughly three dozen so-called "sanctuary cities" that have limited their cooperation on immigration enforcement have a median population of half a million people and larger foreign-born populations, according to a Reuters analysis.

So basically, in cities that are largely White, people still want to defend themselves, but cities that are already under enemy control resist against being reconquered by White Americans. Sounds about right.

Oh well. Spain wasn't reconquered in a day, after all.

The fight is only beginning.

FBI Processed a Record Number of Gun Background Checks on Black Friday

Andrew Anglin
Daily Stormer
November 27, 2017

It's almost as if something is coming down the line. As if people are worried about something.

As if, perhaps, we are all consciously or unconsciously preparing for a race war.

Fox News:

The FBI on Friday received 203,086 requests for instant gun background checks, which would mark almost a 10 percent increase from 2016 and sets a new record for the most ever in one day, USA Today reported.

Authorities did not speculate on why so many Americans are seeking guns this holiday season, but the theory is that there is a fear about tougher gun laws in the future.

The FBI received 185,713 requests on Black Friday last year.

USA Today pointed out that background checks do not indicate the number of guns actually sold because a buyer could purchase more than one gun in a check.

Attorney General Jeff Sessions, earlier this week, ordered a far-ranging review of the FBI database used to check the backgrounds of prospective gun buyers, after the Air Force failed to report the criminal history of the gunman who slaughtered more than two dozen people at a Texas church.

The failure enabled him to buy weapons, purchases his domestic violence conviction should have barred.

Sessions directed the FBI and the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives to determine if other government agencies are failing to report information to the National Instant Criminal Background Check System. He also wants a report detailing the number of times the agencies investigate and prosecute people for lying on their gun-purchase applications and a closer look at the format of the application itself.

The database "is critically important to protecting the American public from firearms-related violence," Sessions wrote in his memo. "It is, however, only as reliable and robust as the information that federal, state, local and tribal government entities make available to it."

Seriously though.

Don't get your guns on paper.

Get them legally, whatever that entails, but if at all possible, keep them off of paper.

There is zero reason for the federal government to know if you have guns or how many you have.

Susan Sarandon Refuses to Apologize for Refusing to Back "Dangerous" Hillary Clinton

Andrew Anglin
Daily Stormer
November 27, 2017

It's a little bit surprising that more middle-aged and post-menopausal women weren't scared to death of Hillary Clinton.

Typically, women can sense things about women, and typically, bloodthirsty careerist women scare normal women, because they have an ability to understand just how ruthless and amoral they are capable of being in order to promote their personal agendas.

No woman believes the "exactly the same except with bob and vagene" argument that soyboy males have bought into.

Fox News:

Actress Susan Sarandon is having a tough time since the 2016 election as the star is now being attacked by the left for refusing to support Hillary Clinton.

Despite campaigning for Hillary in 2001, she was a supporter of Bernie Sanders in 2016. When he failed to take the Democratic nomination, the actress did not shift her star-powered support to Hillary, which got the attention of the moderates and the left in a very negative way.

"I got from Hillary people 'I hope your crotch is grabbed,' 'I hope you're raped.' Misogynistic attacks. Recently, I said 'I stand with Dreamers and that started another wave,'" she told The Guardian in a recent interview. "From the left! 'How dare you! You who are responsible for this!'"

Yeah, leftists say that "I hope you get raped" thing to any woman who they view as going against the collective female agenda.

They will say absolutely anything that they feign moral outrage over when rightists say it. They are almost cartoonish without any type of principle whatsoever.

Since the election, Sarandon's career has been marred by all things politics. She couldn't even appear on "The Late Show with Stephen Colbert" without the host asking her to defend her political position. However, she stands by her decision to, as a New Yorker, vote for third party candidate Jill Stein over Hillary Clinton or Donald Trump. However, it's the assertion that fans got that she believed Hillary would be more dangerous than Trump in office that's been hard to shake.

DANGEROUS???

Video Link

The assertion stems from an interview she did with MSNBC's Chris Hayes on "All In With Chris Hayes" she gave prior to the Democratic National Convention.

...

While Sarandon has not publicly given her support directly to Donald Trump, she seems to be very confident in her belief that a Clinton presidency would not have people on the left as better off as they think they would be.

RT:

Asked if Clinton was more dangerous than Trump, Sarandon explained, "I did think she was very, very dangerous. We would still be fracking, we would be at war [if she was president]. It wouldn't be much smoother. Look what happened under [Barack] Obama that we didn't notice."

Clinton has a long record of supporting US interventions. Her vote for the Iraq war, the zeal with which she pushed to take down Libyan leader Muammar Gaddafi, down to her giddy celebration at his death, are just some of the reasons pacifists chose not to vote for her.

While Trump has failed to end US interventionism since coming to power, Clinton had advocated for a no-fly-zone over Syria, which would have likely led to war between the US, and Syria and Russia. Clinton admitted a no-fly-zone would "kill a lot of Syrians," in a 2013 speech leaked by WikiLeaks before the election. She also maintains a hawkish stance on Iran, and promised in 2008, "If I'm president, we will attack Iran. In the next 10 years, during which they might foolishly consider launching an attack on Israel, we would be able to totally obliterate them."

Sarandon voted for Stein in New York, which, she explains "was probably the easiest place to vote for Stein," as Trump was not going to win that state. "Bringing attention to working-class issues is not a luxury," she said of her decision. "People are really hurting; that's how this guy got in."

Well. We would certainly have a lot more wars if Hillary had won.

She was not just talking about escalating wars in secret speeches leaked by Wikileaks—she was campaigning on shooting down Russian jets over Syria to protect ISIS, which would have literally meant WWII. She was giving PUBLIC, televised speeches about it. She also originally campaigned on support for insane international trade deals before Trump's positions on the issue caused her to walk that back.

So I'd basically support everything Sarandon is saying here. Strange bedfellows and all that. The fracking thing is meh, but if we had his type of leftist leadership, there would be common ground and we could at least have real discussions about real issues.

Instead the left is just promoting insane, nonsensical stuff. Though to be fair, the Jewish controlled neo-con establishment is doing the same. Just abject lunacy on both sides—even while there are so many obvious, rational discussions we could be having.

Leftists used to be anti-war, anti-globalism and pro-working class—that was the case up until Bill Clinton, and through most of his term—and now they're just about tranny bathrooms and exterminating white people. Older leftists (Sarandon is 71) must generally feel some cognitive dissidence with regards to this sea change in the direction of the ideology.

Trump Continues to Back Judge Roy Moore!

I endorsed Luther Strange in the Alabama Primary. He shot way up in the polls but it wasn't enough. Can't let Schumer/Pelosi win this race. Liberal Jones would be BAD!

— Donald J. Trump (@realDonaldTrump) November 26, 2017

Trump is refusing to cuck on Roy Moore.

Good man.

AFP:

President Donald Trump on Sunday redoubled his support for embattled Senate candidate Roy Moore, ignoring the allegations of sexual harassment plaguing Moore's Alabama campaign and branding his opponent as weak on crime, the military and immigration.

In an early-morning tweet, Trump added that for Alabamians to elect Moore's Democratic rival, Doug Jones, in a special election next month "would be a disaster!"

Many members of Trump's Republican Party have withdrawn support for Moore, who is now 70, following recent allegations by several women that while in his 30s he molested or harassed teenage girls as young as 14.

Some Republicans have suggested that if elected to the US Senate, Moore should be removed.

Mitch McConnell, the Senate Republican leader, has called for Moore to drop out, saying, "I believe the women."

Mitch McConnell, the Senate Republican leader, has called for Moore to drop out, saying, "I am a woman."

Fixed.

McConnell reportedly has pleaded with Trump to stay out of the Alabama race, lest Moore's election sully the party's name ahead of next year's midterm elections.

That is the worst ever bullshit excuse.

We see that it is not sullyng anything. The people still support him.

McConnell doesn't want Moore in because Moore will draw attention to how totally fake McConnell is.

One Republican senator and sometime Trump critic, Lindsey Graham of South Carolina, said Sunday that having Moore on the ballot was a lose-lose proposition for the party.

"If he wins...it becomes a story every day about whether or not you believe the women or Roy Moore. If you lose, you give the Senate seat to a Democrat, he said on CNN.

But Trump—himself the object of allegations of sexual misconduct by several women during his presidential campaign—on Sunday shrugged off such appeals.

He tweeted that "the last thing" Republicans need in the closely divided Senate is a Democratic "puppet who is WEAK on Crime, WEAK on the Border. Bad for our Military and our great Vets. Bad for our 2nd Amendment. AND WANTS TO RAISES (sic) TAXES TO THE SKY."

Despite the multiple allegations against Moore—he reportedly was even banned from an Alabama mall for repeatedly bothering teen girls—Trump has defended him.

Looking back at when Trump supported Strange over Moore, I wonder if he knew these allegations were coming.

Bannon knew at least a week before the WaPo published, because Breitbart published a piece saying it was coming.

That would explain something.

Anyway, there is no chance Moore is going to lose, even after all of this.

Alabama doesn't vote for Democrats.

And the Democrats know he's going to win, which is why not a single one of them has gone down to Alabama to campaign for Jones. No one wants to back a loser.

I'm going to go so far as to say that this whole thing was actually GOOD FOR WHITES.

Bannon is going to run all kinds of candidates, and they won't be corrupt. The only thing they will be able to accuse them of is sexual stuff. And after they've already gone all out on this once, the next time it will ring even more hollow than this time. So I'm glad they went nuts with this.

And it is pure providence (EITHER THAT OR THE WILL OF GOD) that the Al Franken debacle dropped at the exact same time, and all of the Democrats are backing him. And the same Republicans attacking Moore are saying nothing about him.

Because this isn't "Democrats vs. Republicans." It is globalists vs. nationalists or Jews and Jew shills vs. goyim—take your pick. Either way, Ryan, McConnell, Susan Collins and Mitt Romney are on the same side against Donald Trump and Roy Moore.

And that is now becoming painfully obvious to even the casual observer.

Rampaging Niggerbitch Naya Rivera Arrested for Beating-Up White Husband Ryan Dorsey

Adrian Sol
Daily Stormer
November 26, 2017

What...What race is that?

This is what happens when you marry a niggerbitch, kids. One second you're hypnotized by a nice set of "exotic" boobies, the next...BAM! The niggerbitch goes "Tower of death" on your ass.

And this isn't limited to bitches straight out of the ghetto, either. Naya Rivera, the actress and pop singer, somehow managed to trick a normal White man into marrying her, and proceeded to beat the living hell out of him—presumably out of ethnic animosity.

CNN:

Former "Glee" star Naya Rivera was arrested Saturday night for allegedly assaulting her husband in West Virginia, authorities said.

While women do in fact commit most of the domestic violence in the United States, in this case it's safe to say that another factor was in play:

Early life: Rivera was born and raised in the diverse neighborhood of Santa Clara, California, and has Mexican or Spanish-Latino heritage for most of her life. "She is of Puerto Rican, Dominican, and Spanish descent." Her parents are Hispanic, a former model, and George Mosca. "Her 3-year younger brother is Nick, 18, and Naya's Rivera. "And her 1-year younger sister is Naya's model Naya's Rivera. "At 8 or 9 months old, Rivera began to be represented by the same agent as her mother, who had moved to Los Angeles to pursue modeling."

Rivera's jungle-derived genetic inheritance was definitely at work urging her to brutalize her husband, who was nonetheless a member of a competing tribe.

Rivera, 30, was charged with misdemeanor domestic battery early Sunday following the incident in her husband's hometown of Chesapeake.

She was arraigned at the Kanawha County Magistrate Court and released on bond after a brief court appearance, court records show.

Video of the actress in court showed her wearing a gray hooded sweatshirt and handcuffs as she answered the judge's questions, CNN affiliate WCHS reported.

The incident started when police were called to a Chesapeake home over a domestic situation, according to a criminal complaint.

When they got there, Rivera's husband, Ryan Dorsey, said that she had hit him in the head and on the bottom lip while they were taking their child for a walk down a street, the criminal complaint states.

Like I said—just walking in the street, and the monkey woman attacks out of nowhere.

Sad, but unsurprising.

Dorsey gave police a cell phone video of the assault, leading to Rivera's arrest, according to the complaint.

During a brief court appearance, Rivera said she plans to hire an attorney. Domestic battery carries a maximum of a year in prison and a fine of up to $500, court records show.

A year in prison isn't nearly enough. This woman is a public menace, and every day she walks the streets is a day where people are at risk of similarly vicious attacks.

We demand nothing less than immediate deportation to Africa—or, I guess, Puerto Rico.

These challenges could not be more pressing in the face of an Administration that cares little for the rule of law and a President whose actions and conduct cheapens our discourse every day.

But I have come to believe that my presence as Ranking Member on the Committee would not serve these efforts while the Ethics Committee investigation is pending.

I cannot in good conscience allow these charges to undermine my colleagues in the Democratic Caucus, and my friends on both sides of the aisle in the Judiciary Committee and the House of Representatives.

I am proud and fortunate to be part of a legacy of more than 50 years of fighting for civil rights and making our country more equitable and just.

I'll never allow that legacy—a legacy I owe to my father John Conyers, Sr., who integrated labor unions, or my two amazing sons John III & Carl and my loving wife

Judge Roy Moore explicitly did not deserve due process over allegation that he kissed teenage girls 40 years ago.

John Conyers, however, is both a Democrat and black. So even though he admits to paying money to silence a woman accusing him of sexual harassment 2 years ago, he deserves due process.

NBC News:

House Democratic Leader Nancy Pelosi on Sunday urged “due process” before making conclusions about Rep. John Conyers, D-Mich., following accusations of sexual harassment, saying the 27-term Congressman is “an icon” who has worked to protect women.

“We are strengthened by due process. Just because someone is accused—and was it one accusation? Is it two?” Pelosi said on “Meet The Press.”

“John Conyers is an icon in our country. He has done a great deal to protect women—Violence Against Women Act, which the left—right-wing—is now quoting me as praising him for his work on that, and he did great work on that,” she added. “But the fact is, as John reviews his case, which he knows, which I don’t, I believe he will do the right thing.”

Conyers’ office recently confirmed issuing a settlement of $27,000 to a former staffer who says she was fired for resisting the congressman’s sexual advances. Conyers has acknowledged the payout, which he amounted to a severance package, but he denied the allegations about what it was for.

The payout from Conyers’ office first became public in a report published by BuzzFeed on Monday, and came after a number of men in powerful positions in politics, entertainment, and media have faced public accusations of sexual harassment. The accusations have opened up a national conversation about how women are treated in the workplace by men in positions of power.

When asked specifically whether she believes the accusations against Conyers, Pelosi said, “I do not know who they are. Do you? They have not really come forward.”

She repeatedly said that she wants to see the House Ethics Committee investigation of Conyers play out.

Conyers holds a powerful position on Capitol Hill as ranking member on the House Judiciary Committee, and Pelosi would not say yet whether she would move to strip him of that position.

“I’m not sharing that with you right now,” she said Sunday.

Notice how Pelosi defends people in her own party. Wouldn’t it be nice if the GOP operated that way?

I kinda think that these people are going to regret going so hard on Moore.

Because saying people deserve due process is valid. Sure, when you pay people off, that is something close to an admission, but it isn't an actual admission. So there is an argument there.

But they have sacrificed that by saying that a guy who is being accused for the first time of something that allegedly happened 4 decades ago doesn't deserve anything at all.

And there are dozens more of these payouts. And they're eventually going to have to unseal the whole thing.

All of these people are going to have excuses.

In my view, we should believe our own guys and not believe our enemies. There is no other way to go about this, because other than an Al Franken situation, where there is photographic evidence and an admission, there is no way to know either way.

Sick Homo Lindsey Graham Attacks Trump for Supporting Noble Hero Roy Moore

Adrian Sol
Daily Stormer
November 26, 2017

I get queazy whenever I have to look at this sick pervert's face.

The Republicans are still on their unrelenting campaign to destroy their own party forever, by completely alienating their base while flooding the country with low-IQ Democrat voters. The latest battleground is being fought over Alabama, where it's imperative for the Republicans to ensure that a Democrat—any Democrat—is elected rather than the overwhelmingly popular Roy Moore.

Inveterate faggot Lindsey Graham is incensed that Trump has once again betrayed them, choosing to voice his support for the Republican candidate and thus potentially dooming the party to victory in the race. How dare he do such a thing? How far will Trump go in his drive to save Republicanism—against the better judgement of luminaries such as Graham and McCain?

The Hill:

Sen. Lindsey Graham (R-S.C.) on Sunday cautioned President Trump about his apparent support for Alabama Republican Senate nominee Roy Moore, but said the decision is ultimately up to Trump.

"Well, that's a political decision by the president and he's definitely trying to throw a life line to Roy Moore," Graham told CNN's "State of the Union."

"From a Republican point of view...I don't know what winning looks like with Roy Moore," Graham added.

From a Republican point of view, winning looks something like this:

However, from a cucked ZOG shill point of view, it looks more like this:

Having a guy like Roy Moore in the senate will turn their lives into hell, and mess with all their perfidious plans. It's not surprising they want to stop him at all cost.

Graham said if Moore wins the Alabama Senate election, Republicans will be forced to deal with whether or not they believe Moore's female accusers. But should he lose, Graham added, then a Democrat takes hold of a seat that has for years been held by a Republican.

"The moral of the story is don't nominate somebody like Roy Moore who could actually lose the seat that any other Republican could win," Graham said.

"And from a party perspective, we got to look long term, not short term."

Yes...Long term, for Graham, means imagining what it'll be like when Moore is on the senate floor calling them all out on their treason and cuckoldry. Then, even longer term, when people realize it's possible to vote for non-cuck candidates and then all these scumbags get thrown out of office.

Graham has been a frequent critic of Moore, who in recent weeks has been accused of sexual misconduct by multiple women. Graham earlier this month took a swipe at Moore's alleged actions with teenaged women at a local mall, saying "if you can't be in a mall, you shouldn't be in the Senate."

Says this guy:

This man is in the senate? Sick.

Republicans have called on Moore to step aside in the wake of the allegations, but the Alabama Republican has shown no signs that he will exit the race.

Graham on Sunday had a message for Trump about his apparent support for Moore, but said the decision is ultimately “up to the president.”

“If you think winning with Roy Moore is going to be easy for the Republican Party, you’re mistaken,” he said.

Trump has appeared to back Moore in recent days, saying Republicans don’t want the Alabama Senate seat to go to a Democrat.

Vicious anti-American traitors like Graham are panicking at the prospect of a Moore victory, which seems all but inevitable at this point in spite of their shilling. They would much rather have the Democrat win the race, which in their minds would validate their whole “only cucks can be elected” mantra.

Well, the winds of populism are blowing, and all you people are going to be blown away sooner or later.

And we’ll remember everything you’ve done when that happens, I can guarantee you that.

Jewish Problem

BASED Sharia Feminist Linda Sarsour Names the Jew

Eric Striker
Daily Stormer
December 1, 2017

Linda Sarsour shot to fame when she led the anti-Trump pussy march. Sarsour became a hero to cat ladies everywhere because she wears a hijab.

That all ended once Jews found out she refuses to support Israel. Most who practice Islam in the UK and America are “right-wing” on everything (fags, feminism, liberalism, etc.), and the only reason Linda Sarsour threw her lot in with the J-left is she doesn’t think white people in their own country have a right to control our immigration policy.

But that isn’t enough for Jews. After they found out what her views on Zionism were, the hit pieces started pouring in. Bari Weiss at the Jew York Times is a good example.

The Anti-Defamation League despises her and more or less blacklisted her from participating in mainstream Democratic politics.

Now it appears she is confronting Jews directly. She expects the most powerful criminal syndicate on earth to play by her rules.

Daily Caller:

The tactics she is using work on white liberals, but the left’s Jewish nerve center.

Palestinian activist Linda Sarsour accused members of the “Jewish media” for her bad reputation, in an event entitled “Anti-Semitism and the Struggle for Justice” Tuesday night at New York City’s The New School.

“If what you’re reading all day long, morning and night, in the Jewish media is that Linda Sarsour and Minister Farrakhan are the existential threats to the Jewish community, something really bad is gonna happen and we gonna miss the mark on it,” Sarsour remarked in an event intended to be “a discussion on how to combat” bigotry against Jews.

It should be noted that Farrakhan once praised Adolf Hitler as “a very great man.”

Sarsour also claimed that “the existential threat (to the Jewish community) resides in the White House, in the highest offices of these lands.” She also claimed that Americans currently live “under fascism” and defended her participation in the boycott, divest, sanction movement, which seeks to economically sanction and isolate the Jewish state.

Trump derangement syndrome might get a white liberal to reflexively join hands with Louis Farrakhan, but that doesn’t work on Jews.

High level Jews know Trump isn’t the new Hitler. What terrifies them about Trump isn’t personal, it’s the fact that they mustered all their energy to get Hillary elected and somehow every day white people saw through it.

Jonathan Greenblatt might publicly claim that Trump as an individual is “emboldening” Nazis, but really, he knows that what is emboldening dissidents is that they now know the system isn’t invincible. Jews portrayed Trump as the next David Duke and white people voted him in anyway. A lot more people feel like us than we ever imagined.

Linda Sarsour on the other hand will gradually drift away, no matter how much noise she makes. She will serve as an example to other Arabs thinking of getting political: they will only open up a path for you if you’re like Dean Obeidallah and stick to the teleprompter.

Jewish NBC Executives Protected Jew Sex Predator Matt Lauer

Eric Striker

Andrew Lack—the live action A. Wyatt Mann cartoon who leaked the Trump pussy-grabbing tape to manipulate our election—is in trouble yet again. Remember it was the Jew Lack who tried to kill Ronan Farrow’s revelations about Harvey Weinstein.

The temperature’s rising in the oven, with Lack and fellow NBC executive (((Noah Oppenheim))) being accused of enabling and protecting fellow Jewish sex predator Matt Lauer.

Matt Lauer’s behavior is being portrayed as a product of white cis-male “Mad Man” culture.

But this isn’t wealthy and powerful men bringing career-climbing whores back to their place after work. This Jew was so eccentric, and so drunk on his feelings of invincibility, that he would expose himself to women in his office and hand co-workers dildos.

This too was an open secret. Here is Meredith Vieira talking about the big bag of dildos he kept in his office. He plays it off in what, judging from Vieira's expression, is a lie.

Video Link

Various Jewish publications complained about the fact that we independent journalists consider the Jewiness of these moguls and media sex-weirdos an important part of the story.

I'll let the audience decide if this bizarre and neurotic behavior is normal or typical in the work place for a non-Jewish man.

TMZ:

Matt Lauer exposed himself to a female co-worker, and gave another one a sex toy as a present—and that's just the tip of the iceberg—according to dozens of current and former NBC staffers.

The former "Today" co-host also allegedly enjoyed playing the game "Fk, Marry, Kill" in regards to his female co-hosts at NBC. The bombshell allegations came out in a Variety investigation.

One woman says Lauer once delivered a sex toy to a female co-worker, and attached an explicit note...detailing how he'd use it on her. Several accusers claim his office was ground zero for much of the sexual misconduct. For instance, he allegedly called a female employee into his office...dropped trou, and flaunted his penis.

According to the report...Lauer's office also had a secret button under his desk, so he could lock the door without getting up.

Kind of hard to believe Lack and Oppenheim didn't know, seeing as he was out in the open.

Wow, Matt Lauer was just fired from NBC for "inappropriate sexual behavior in the workplace." But when will the top executives at NBC & Comcast be fired for putting out so much Fake News. Check out Andy Lack's past!

— Donald J. Trump (@realDonaldTrump) November 29, 2017

Variety Fair has spoken to numerous sources that admitted to the fact that everyone, especially Lauer's best buddy Andrew Lack, knew about his behavior. Another Jew named Matt Zimmerman was also in with the tribal clique but got fired shortly before Lauer.

So here's some speculation, admittedly based on little more than a hunch: who is cleaning this vermin out of our media?

You can't tell me this isn't being coordinated. These women are all coming forward at the same time. With surgical precision, they're bringing down top anti-white Jewish media and cultural titans.

They're creating chaos and paranoia within fake news manufacturers like (((NBC))).

(((Gloria Allred))) and all the other "feminists" don't represent women if they're accusing their Jewish friends in the media. What is a press conference going to do? You can't call the cops on the cops, as Harvey Weinstein accusers approaching the Jew York Times, NBC and even the NYPD/LAPD over the years figured out.

Is it Trump? Is it Bannon? Those pesky Russians?

There are few Goys in this nation of 323 million with enough power to take on the ruling Jewish cabal like this.

Something is going on. It's a good thing for once. Whatever it is, knowing how dirty these mentally ill inbreds are, this is only the beginning.

Franken Grope Billboard is AWESOME

November 30, 2017

This is GREAT STUFF.
I hate JEWS!
Hollywood Reporter:

A giant image of Sen. Al Franken grabbing at a half-naked woman greeted rush-hour commuters on a packed Los Angeles freeway early Thursday.

The billboard came courtesy of Sabo, a conservative street artist known for skewering Hollywood with fake advertisements aimed at celebrities.

This time, Sabo went further by hijacking an actual billboard, bought and paid for by 20th Century Fox to advertise The Greatest Showman, which opens Dec. 20 and stars Hugh Jackman and Zac Efron.

The movie, a musical about P.T. Barnum, also stars Zendaya as a trapeze artist, and it is her image that is featured on a billboard just off the 405 freeway near the National Blvd. exit, a couple of miles away from the Fox studios.

Before the sun rose in the morning, Sabo plastered on one half of the sign a giant version of the infamous photo of Al Franken groping radio host Leeann Tweeden. On the billboard, Sabo made it appear as if Franken was trying to grab Zendaya as she flies through the air dressed in a sexy trapeze outfit.

Fox's original billboard has Zendaya flying into the waiting arms of Efron, whose image is across the street on another billboard. That one was not altered as of yet.

"Efron wanted to catch her, but Franken got there first, I guess," Sabo told The Hollywood Reporter on Thursday, adding that the alteration is temporary and doesn't ruin the original billboard. "I don't need that kind of hell raining down on me."

Pretty sure there weren't any niggers in any P.T. Barnum events.

But you know, as far as niggers go, if I was going to grope one...

Speaking of Jews and gropings and niggers and such, another bitch has accused Franken.

Every kind of sexual harassment is horrifying & unacceptable. Stephanie Kemplin's story was esp. tough because she was assaulted by a fellow soldier just weeks before meeting Franken. Lost count of how many times she cried in our many conversations. <https://t.co/nYfenlPrhK>

— MJ Lee (@mj_lee) November 30, 2017

WHOOOPS.
BBC:

A US army veteran is accusing Senator Al Franken of having touched her breast while posing for a photo on a 2003 tour to entertain troops in Kuwait.

Stephanie Kemplin, a 27-year-old military police officer at the time, says she was left feeling frozen.

She is the fifth woman to have accused Mr Franken of inappropriate touching.

Referring to the latest accusation, Mr Franken's spokesperson told CNN that he "has never intentionally engaged in this kind of conduct".

"As Sen Franken made clear this week, he takes thousands of photos and has met tens of thousands of people...He remains fully committed to co-operating with the ethics investigation," the spokesperson said.

In a press conference on his return to Washington earlier this week, the Minnesota Democrat said he was "ashamed" of his past behaviour.

It is totally and completely insane that this kike hasn't resigned yet.

I just can't even.

He isn't even denying it.

It would be one thing if he was like "ALL OF THESE WHORES ARE LYING THE PICTURES ARE PHOTOSHOPPED!!!!111"

Instead he is just like "well, this is very embarrassing, you know..."

This is MAXIMUM JEWISH PRIVILEGE.

Everyone has to be seeing this.

And what you all need to be doing is putting in every comments section everywhere that this guy is a Jew, and that is why he is getting away with it.

Because he's God's Chosen People.

Genocidal Bluecheck Kike Tim Wise Calls for Extermination of White Alabama

I've only ever jokingly called for extermination (WINK WINK WINK WINK), and I'm not even allowed to have a website.

What in the bloody fuck are we on now—dailystormer.red?

What is that???

Meanwhile, Jews are allowed to openly call for the extermination of whites on TWITTER and keep their bluechecks.

Jewish supremacist terrorist Tim Wise calls for the demise of white Alabamians, yet Twitter still verifies him....we can NOT let this behaviour continue, or else another Red Terror will happen. #NeverAgain #Resist pic.twitter.com/6gIGRILW7A

— Alt-Right Edgelord (@Fashy-HuwhiteMan) November 29, 2017

"Destroy white Alabama."

What does that imply, other than a genocide?

What if some chap were to say "it's time to destroy Jewish Israel like we should have 3000 years ago?"

Iran said Israel should be "wiped off the map" like a decade ago and we're still hearing about that.

Tim Wise is a Jew who claims to be "white."

He's even written entire books claiming to be white.

White Like Me

Reflections on Race from a Privileged Son revised and updated

Tim Wise

"Wise is a national treasure" — Michael Eric Dyson

This is a very popular way for Jews to call for the extermination of the white race—by first claiming to be white, then saying they want to exterminate themselves.

Imagine me and Eric Striker moving to Israel and putting on yarmulkes and saying "it's time to exterminate Jews like us once and for all—we have to wipe ourselves out, permanently."

And this is exactly what Wise is doing. He isn't pretending to not be Jewish. He's just saying "OH YES I'M JEWISH OF COURSE BUT RIGHT NOW I'M WHITE SOMEHOW AND I WANT TO WIPE OUT MY OWN RACE—WHITES."

Anyhow, pointing out the hypocrisy of Twitter is boring and dumb at this point, but yes, you are openly allowed to be Jewish or a woman or a colored person and call for the extermination of white people and no one cares.

Jews are even allowed to call for the murder of individuals.

Tim Wise called for this writer to be hunted down "like a dog" (clearly implies murder) and was not suspended.

What isn't boring is pointing out this deranged pattern of Jews transforming into whites and calling for themselves to be geno-cided before transforming back into Jews and claiming that everyone is trying to genocide them.

Global Jewry Swings into Action to Attack Trump's Tweets

Diversity Macht Frei

November 30, 2017

The main Jewish ethno-activist organisation in Britain immediately denounced Trump's retweets of BritainFirst.

The main Jewish ethno-activist organisation in the US did too.

So did lots of lesser Jewish groups.

WASHINGTON (JTA) —An array of national Jewish groups condemned President Donald Trump for his retweet of three incendiary videos posted by a British anti-Muslim agitator.

"It is no longer alarming that our @POTUS is tweeting violent anti-Muslim videos created by far right extremists—it is a four alarm fire.," Jonathan Greenblatt, the CEO of the Anti-Defamation League, said Wednesday on Twitter. "Of course this will embolden bigots in the US and abroad."

Also on Twitter, the National Council of Jewish Women deemed the retweets "disgusting." Other Jewish groups that criticized the president on Twitter included the American Jewish Committee; HIAS, the lead Jewish immigration advocacy group; Bend the Arc-Jewish Action; and the Reform movement through the director of its Religious Action Center, Rabbi Jonah Pesner.

"Using the bully pulpit of the presidency to fan the flames of xenophobia and other forms of hate is disgraceful," Pesner said.

Source

In my experience, Britain First aren't that reliable a retweeting source. Their twitter feed seems to consist of old videos endlessly recycled. The videos are quite good, but they are usually old and often mischaracterised in some way. When I've pointed out some of the inaccuracies* in their labelling, they haven't responded or corrected them.

*(for example they have one where they say a Muslim is praying in a Spanish cathedral but in fact it is the Alhambra, a former Muslim palace)

To my knowledge, Britain First haven't shown any signs of antisemitism. In fact, it has been claimed that Fransen herself is of Jewish heritage. Britain First even offered to work with Jews in 2015. The offer was spurned. Being pro-Israel and philosemitic gets you nowhere with these people if you go against Muhammad.

In 2015, Community Security Trust, England's Jewish anti-Semitism watchdog, rejected an offer of co-operation from Britain First.

"They are a far-right, nasty, racist group that intimidates minorities, especially Muslims," Dave Rich, a spokesman for the Community Security Trust, told The Times of Israel at the time. "The Jewish community should and will not have anything to do with them."

The Community Security Trust recently spoke at a conference on antisemitism in Hungary. The focus was on the threat to Jews from Middle-Eastern immigrant communities. Should this immigration be stopped then? Not at all, said the CST director.

Source

The Jew as ally of the Muslim is a story that stretches from 7th century Arabia to 21st century Britain. The Jews know that Islam is the best weapon they have ever forged against Christendom and they are not going to give it up easily. Yet still we see deluded gentile Countjihadis pathetically seeking the favour of those who are leagued with their enemy.

HAHAHAHAHA – NBC JUST FIRED MATT LAUER FOR BEING A PERVERT!

We are seriously going to end up in a situation where it is only woman working at all news and entertainment organizations.

Then they will just totally stop working, because women are completely incompetent.

CNN:

Matt Lauer was fired from NBC News on Wednesday after an employee filed a complaint about "inappropriate sexual behavior in the workplace," the network announced.

Savannah Guthrie made the announcement at the top of the "Today" show, where Lauer has been an anchor for two decades.

NBC News chairman Andrew Lack said in a memo to staff that it was the first complaint lodged against Lauer in his career at the network. But he said "we were also presented with reason to believe this may not have been an isolated incident."

Lauer was not immediately reachable for comment. An NBC News spokeswoman declined to comment about the details of the allegation against him.

Reporters for The New York Times had been investigating Lauer for several weeks, according to sources who had been contacted by the Times.

The firing removes one of the most recognizable personalities on television, and at a time when morning news programs are increasingly important to network news divisions.

This one feels especially good. Good, good, good.

Matt Lauer has been terminated from NBC News. On Monday night, we received a detailed complaint from a colleague about inappropriate sexual behavior in the workplace by Matt Lauer. As a result, we've decided to terminate his employment. pic.twitter.com/1A3UAZpvPb

Jew CNN to Boycott the White House Christmas Party

Lee Rogers
Daily Stormer
November 29, 2017

Jeff Zucker who runs CNN is literally one of the most Jewish looking individuals on the planet.

The Jew run fake news operation known as CNN is really mad at the President. They can't stand the fact that for the past couple of years he has routinely called them out for their lies.

They're so angry that they've decided to boycott the White House Christmas party!

Politico:

Adding fuel to its growing feud with President Donald Trump, CNN told POLITICO it will be boycotting the White House Christmas party for the media this year.

"CNN will not be attending this year's White House Christmas party," a CNN spokesperson said. "In light of the President's continued attacks on freedom of the press and CNN, we do not feel it is appropriate to celebrate with him as his invited guests. We will send a White House reporting team to the event and report on it if news warrants."

The annual event, scheduled for Friday at 2 p.m., is typically seen as a time when reporters and their bosses can mingle freely with administration members, but Trump's posture toward the press has been uniquely aggressive.

Since Trump began his run for office, CNN has been one of his favorite targets. He has often criticized the network as "fake news" and alleged that the network makes up stories.

In response to this news, White House press secretary Sarah Huckabee Sanders tweeted Tuesday night, “Christmas comes early! Finally, good news from @CNN.”

Even in this quoted statement we see that CNN is incapable of telling the truth. Trump is not against press freedom, he’s against people telling lies which undermine his presidency. If CNN told the truth they wouldn’t have to worry about Trump calling them “fake news” all the time.

They’ve been particularly upset at some of Trump’s recent tweets attacking them. Apparently his attack against CNN’s international team sent them over the edge.

We should have a contest as to which of the Networks, plus CNN and not including Fox, is the most dishonest, corrupt and/or distorted in its political coverage of your favorite President (me). They are all bad. Winner to receive the FAKE NEWS TROPHY!

— Donald J. Trump (@realDonaldTrump) November 27, 2017

.@FoxNews is MUCH more important in the United States than CNN, but outside of the U.S., CNN International is still a major source of (Fake) news, and they represent our Nation to the WORLD very poorly. The outside world does not see the truth from them!

CNN has even tried to rebrand themselves using the new slogan “facts first” which rings hollow considering that “facts” is the last thing they care about.

CNN is nothing more than a Jewish propaganda outlet that pushes lies specifically designed to undermine the American people. That’s all they are. They’re propagandists pretending to be journalists. It is doubtful that they will be missed at the White House Christmas party.

Besides, it isn’t like these CNN Jews celebrate Christmas any way. Why would they celebrate a day dedicated to an individual who their ancestors killed?

Jewish Judge Overseeing Inauguration Day Antifa Riot Trial Prejudicing the Case in Favor of Leftists

Eric Striker

Back on January 20th, 2016, members of Antifa coalesced on Washington DC to riot.

The organizers of the January 20 riot were Legba Carrefour, Lacey McCauley, and even Jew-rafte (Mike Isaacson) of Smash Racism DC—they all self-identify as Antifas and promoted their event as so.

The promotional fliers for “Disrupt J20,” featured on Antifa web-pages, had the downwards arrows Antifa groups use.

Smash Racism DC was the central organizer of the spectacle, and they still have “Antifa” in their Twitter biography, along with the same triple arrows.

Somehow, for Judge Lynn Leibovitz, there isn’t enough “evidence” to “conclude” the defendants in court organized by these individuals and in these groups are Antifas.

She is throwing out any testimony that includes the use of “Antifa” and “black bloc” on the grounds that they are “prejudicing.”

Think Progress:

Questions over what role the left-wing radical group Antifa plays in American political life in 2017 have for months been confined to partisan public discourse.

But on Tuesday that conversation made the jump from the realm of pundit thought experiments to the toothier, more practical world of basic human rights. The group’s identity became a live legal issue in a criminal case that may dramatically shrink legal protections for public dissent across the United States.

Six people face decades in prison in the case, which is the first of several to spring out of a mass arrest of hundreds of people in Washington, D.C., on Inauguration Day. The first six to be tried include a freelance photojournalist and a registered nurse who told ThinkProgress she attended the inaugural protest to serve as a field medic in the event police opted to use force to quell the march.

Asked about his actions on the day of the actual arrests, Officer Bryan Adelmeyer told jurors he “saw people throwing rocks at a gas station” who were “from the Black Bloc.” Judge Lynn Leibovitz cut Assistant U.S. Attorney Jennifer Kerkhoff’s questioning short immediately, told jurors to disregard Adelmeyer’s last answer, and sent the jury out of the room to have a stern, complicated chat with lawyers from both sides.

Leibovitz first reprimanded Kerkhoff for failing to get her witness in line with her earlier ruling about the term “Black Bloc,” an old identifier used by some within the anarchist movement who use property damage as a political tactic during mass demonstrations.

“It could be established by an expert, but your witness is throwing it in there because he feels like it,” Leibovitz said. “I’ve ruled a hundred times your witnesses can’t use it in their own observations.”

Immediately, defense counsel expanded the discussion to include “Antifa,” telling Leibovitz that just hearing the word in association with this case could prejudice jurors who have read media coverage of the group. The first thing that comes up on a Google search for “Antifa” is a wave of images and stories about willful, organized violence, attorney Sara Kropf noted—and the court did not include questions about juror attitudes toward the group in its selection process.

Leibovitz didn’t entirely buy Kropf’s argument. “I don’t want to tell the jury that red is green and green is red,” she said, noting that Antifa may in fact be defined by street violence—and that it’s not her court’s place to adjudicate that question definitively.

“I don’t want to be telling them that what they may have heard is untrue. It may be true, outside this case,” Leibovitz said.

At the same time, Leibovitz said, the linguistics cut both ways here. “We’re supposed to not like fascism, so telling them ‘anti-fascist’” could end up currying a similarly unjust warm feeling toward the group among jurors, she said.

The argument ultimately devoured more than half an hour of the court’s time. It was at least the third such lengthy interruption of Adelmeyer’s testimony on Tuesday afternoon, prompting Leibovitz to apologize more than once to jurors for all the disruptions. With the panel back in their seats later in the day, the judge read off a wordy, somewhat academic instruction that lawyers from both sides had agreed was fair.

“You may have heard the word ‘Antifa’ in this trial. Antifa is short for anti-fascist or anti-fascism,” Leibovitz told the jury. “It and other terms like ‘anti-capitalism’ are descriptions of this event. In and of themselves, these words or terms are meant to describe the event, not as an indication that individuals themselves intended violence.”

According to Judge Leibovitz, an undercover cop that infiltrated the Antifa group that refers to itself as Antifa can’t call them “Antifa” because it is prejudicing. The word brings to mind mayhem, violence and rioting.

Judge Lynn Leibovitz

You know, the crimes the defendants are on trial for!

I wonder if Judge Leibovitz would engage in such generous semantics if a witness or prosecutor called Richard Spencer a “Nazi” or “white supremacist”? Would she tell jurors to pretend they never heard it?

Members of Antifa like to pretend that the group is decentralized but this is a lie. They have autonomous chapters with an unspoken hierarchy (they LARP as anarchists, but there are shot callers), websites, meetings, even their own flags.

This “J20” thing is a big deal because both liberals and Antifas (hard to tell them apart anymore) are throwing everything they have to get these domestic terrorists off the hook. Lots of pro bono legal representation, positive publicity, activists surrounding the court, etc. Nobody challenges them like they do to real dissidents.

Their argument is that people have a right to burn down Washington DC and play the knock out game with elderly people in MAGA hats because Donald Trump is president.

DNC Jewish astroturf websites like Think Progress, Huffington Post (both “liberal” sites are Israel hawks, imagine my shock), Vice media, Buzzfeed, etc have out in the open Antifas and communist terrorist-sympathizers on their staff promoting the propaganda side of the story.

So much talk about Breitbart’s “link” to the Alt-Right, but it’s these mainstream corporate platforms that are emboldening paramilitary extremists. The reason the press hoaxes one story and ignores the other is because the system is outsourcing the dirty work (for states to do directly) of censorship and intimidation to the J-left.

With powerful people on their side, don’t be surprised if Judge Leibovitz oversees an acquittal.

Meghan and Harry Met Through a Jewish Matchmaker

Diversity Macht Frei
November 29, 2017

Meet Misha Nonoo – the Jewish ‘matchmaker’ who brought Harry and Meghan together

Misha Nonoo is the Jewish best friend of Ms Markle who introduced the actress to the prince

Antisemites on the Alt Right have been pushing the absurd conspiracy theory that Jews are promoting the disintegration of the white race, whatever that is, by encouraging diversity, immigration and miscegenation.

The news that Harry and Meghan met thanks to the intervention of a Jewish matchmaker can surely only lend currency to their preposterously paranoid worldview. It's noteworthy that the happy couple, perhaps aware of the antisemitic interpretations that will no doubt be placed upon her actions, tried to keep the name of their mutual friend from the press.

When it comes to matchmakers, you can't do better than those of the Jewish persuasion.

Or at least that's what Prince Harry and Meghan Markle may think, as news emerges that they appear to have been set up by their very own yenta.

Designer Misha Nonoo is the Jewish best friend of Ms Markle, and is said to have introduced the actress to her prince in 2016.

The royal couple were keen to protect their “matchmaker's” identity in their first official interview after they announced their engagement this week.

Speaking about her, without giving away any names, Prince Harry said: “It was through her and then we met once and then twice back to back two dates in London, last July.

“And then it was I think about three, maybe four weeks later that I managed to persuade her to come and join me in Botswana.

“We camped out with each other under the stars—she came and joined me for five days out there, which was absolutely fantastic.”

However, despite the attempts to protect her identity, Ms Nonoo—who was born in Bahrain to an Iraqi father and English mother—is no stranger to public praise.

Antisemites have long claimed that the royal family are either secretly Jewish or have strong Jewish connections, a canard that only gained strength when it was reported that Kabbalah was being practised within Buckingham Palace. (link)

Russia Investigating if Tsar Nicholas II was Killed as Part of a Jewish Ritual Murder

Lee Rogers
Daily Stormer
November 28, 2017

It is a matter of historical record that Tsar Nicholas II and his family were murdered by Jewish Bolsheviks. The Russians are opening a new investigation into the role Jews played in their murder.

One of the historical facts that Jews have actively tried to conceal is the Jewish involvement in the 1917 Bolshevik Revolution. This new investigation that the Russians are launching certainly won't help them with this effort.

Daily Mail:

Russia is launching an investigation into whether Tsar Nicholas II and his family were killed by Jews as part of a “ritual murder” in a move that has infuriated anti-Semitism campaigners.

Father Tikhon Shevkunov, the Orthodox bishop heading an investigatory panel, is among hardcore members of the church who claim the final Russian emperor was murdered in a Jewish ritual.

Tsar Nicholas was shot with his wife and five children by Communist Bolsheviks in 1918 after Vladimir Lenin came to power, and wild rumours about the circumstances surrounding his death have circulated ever since.

So the Russians are officially investigating if Tsar Nicholas II and his family were slaughtered as part of a Jewish ritual murder. It will be interesting to see what their report concludes. All the historical evidence indicates that the order to kill the Tsar and his family was decided upon by some combination of Vladimir Lenin, Leon Trotsky and Yakov Sverdlov. All three of these individuals were racial Jews. Lenin appears to have just been a partial Jew though.

Lev Davidovich Bronstein otherwise known as Leon Trotsky was one of the main Jews responsible for the Bolshevik Revolution. He was eventually exiled by Josef Stalin and killed with an ice pick by an NKVD assassin.

Jews even to this day try to downplay the role their people played in the Bolshevik Revolution. That's because the implementation of Jewish Communism that stemmed from the revolution led to the deaths of many millions of people. Bolshevik collectivization policies caused mass starvation. Political dissidents were jailed with many dying inside their gulag prison system. Throughout the 1930s the gulag was overseen by several Jews until Josef Stalin began purging them.

Perhaps most important to note is that the Bolshevik Revolution was financed by wealthy New York City Jews. Trotsky himself spent three months in New York City right before the Bolshevik Revolution. It is absurd to believe that he was just there as a tourist. He was there to get financing for the revolution. New York City had become the epicenter for international Jewish finance. It was the best place for any Jew to gain financing for such an agenda.

The Jews hated the Russian Tsar because of policies successive Tsars enacted against the Jews throughout the 19th century. The Bolshevik Revolution was Jewish revenge.

Jewish banker Jacob Schiff actively used his financial power to undermine the Russian Tsar throughout the early part of the 20th century.

Despite denials by Jew liars, Jacob Schiff a wealthy Jewish banker in New York City appears to have been the main financier behind the Bolshevik Revolution. He previously granted loans to the Japanese when they fought the Russians in the Russo-Japanese war between 1904 and 1905. He disliked Russia greatly and refused to grant loans to them until the Jewish led Bolshevik Revolution removed the Tsar from power.

This is truly an enormous subject worthy of a book. There is no way to do it justice in a short article. Suffice to say, Jews were behind the Bolshevik Revolution. This is not a conspiracy theory, an anti-semitic canard or any of this other nonsense that Jews claim. Jews played the primary role in this and all the horrible things that occurred after. Hopefully this investigation into the Jewish involvement of the Tsar's death will shed more light on this very important history.

Israel's Deputy Foreign Minister Attacked by the Israeli Press for Agreeing with the Daily Stormer

Lee Rogers
Daily Stormer
November 27, 2017

It's good to see that Israel finally has truth tellers like Tzipi Hotovely serving in their government!

Last week I wrote an article on Israel's Deputy Foreign Minister Tzipi Hotovely. The piece focused on her statements admitting that few Jews who live in the United States actually serve in the military, a fact that we here at the Daily Stormer have routinely pointed out.

This is an inconvenient fact for the Jews because the American military has been fighting endless wars to benefit Israel. Jews are largely content to let the goyim fight wars on their behalf while they sit back fat and happy.

She was roundly criticized by her fellow tribesmen for the remarks. They lashed out at her because she was stating actual truth about the situation. Now the Israeli press is unjustly attacking her because my article thanked her for exposing this truth.

Jerusalem Post:

Deputy Foreign Minister Tzipi Hotovely may have been sharply rebuked by Israeli and Jewish world officials last week for her now-infamous statements disparaging American Jews for "failing to serve in the military," but her words did win her some fans.

The neo-Nazi website The Daily Stormer on Thursday featured a column by Lee Rogers applauding the Israeli politician for “admitting” to a fact that has long been a stereotype touted by the extreme Right.

“An Israeli diplomat just admitted a very inconvenient fact,” he wrote on the site. “Few Jews living in the United States have ever served in the American military. Considering that America has been fighting all sorts of insane wars for Jews and Israel, this is not something they want people talking about.”

“It’s not a surprise to see how Netanyahu quickly distanced Israel away from these remarks. The last thing the Jews want are the American people waking up to the fact that they’re fighting wars for them even though few Jews serve themselves,” Rogers wrote.

He ended by stating, “America should end any and all support to Israel immediately.”

In an interview with the i24News television channel last week, Hotovely responded to a question about bridging ties between Israelis and American Jews by saying American Jews were “People that never send their children to fight for their country. Most of the Jews don’t have children serving as soldiers, going to the Marines, going to Afghanistan, going to Iraq. Most of them are having quite convenient lives. They don’t feel how it feels like to be attacked by rockets. And I think part of it is to actually experience what Israel is dealing with on a daily basis.”

If what she said isn’t accurate, than why is she getting attacked from all angles by the Jewish press? This is an obvious attempt to demonize one of their own who bravely spoke the truth.

Are these Jews attacking Hotovely against strong women like her speaking truth to power? It certainly seems that way. Jews have long promoted the virtues of feminism so it is odd that they would criticize an empowered woman like Hotovely. It sounds like they are intimidated by an independent Jewish woman like Hotovely stating serious facts.

Israel needs Jews who are not afraid to speak truth in their government. The people of Israel should get behind Hotovely in a campaign to make her Israel’s next prime minister. If not her, Yair Netanyahu would be another fine choice to help lead the Israeli people into the future!

Woman Suing Amtrak After Being Raped by a Negro Employee with a History of Attacking White Women

Henry Pinner.

Why does this Black guy still have a job after a 17 year long crime spree against White women?

Great Falls Tribune:

A North Carolina woman is suing Amtrak after she was violently raped on the passenger train by an employee as it passed by Wolf Point in 2015, alleging the carrier had the responsibility to protect her from employees such as her assailant, who had a long and "egregious disciplinary record."

The woman, 68 years old at the time, was taking a "bucket list" cross-country trip with her two sisters in 2015, and in April that year boarded the Empire Builder train in Washington, D.C. headed west. The woman had only been to five states before the trip, according to court documents filed earlier this month.

After passing through Chicago, the three sisters had planned to stop and spend several days in Glasgow to meet with the woman's nephew and tour around eastern Montana.

But before arriving in Glasgow on April 19, an Amtrak employee entered the woman's sleeping car, locked the door and violently raped her. According to court documents, the attack was so brutal that a sexual assault examiner in Washington State was able to document and photograph the bruising and bite marks on the woman's body after she reported the rape several days later.

The train employee, 59-year-old Charles Henry Pinner, was a resident of Detroit and worked as a sleeper car attendant at the time, his third job on the railroad since being first hired.

But Michael George, the victim's Great Falls attorney, alleges Amtrak had records of Pinner's employee misconduct from 2000, specifically incidents of hostility against white women, when he told a female co-worker, "You're the typical garden variety type, and that's a typical Anglo-Saxon trait," and on the same day told another, "I have no trouble strangling a white woman."

Lamb was convicted in June of targeting homeless and runaway teens from the Covenant House, a homeless shelter in Manhattan, and then coercing them to participate in a sex-trafficking and prostitution scheme that spanned both New York and New Jersey.

Most recently, officers responded to a call about a domestic disturbance, and they provided information about how to file a protective order.

The victim told investigators that she was walking around the fair with friends on September 22 as Andrew Miller, Kelvin Mercedes, and Daishon Richardson followed behind them. The criminal complaint states that the three boys told the victim that they wanted to show her something, and that she should follow them.

The affidavit states that investigators later determined the lot was the Reliance Crane and Hoist on Orange Street.

The victim told investigators that she did as they said because she was afraid that they would kill her, and that Mercedes looked angry as he gave her the instructions. The victim told investigators that she then performed oral sex on all three males.

According to the affidavit, the three boys then took the victim to an unidentified yard, where they took turns holding her down and raping her. The affidavit also states that the assault was either captured on video or photographed.

Canadian Prime Minister Justin Trudeau recently issued a tearful apology to a myriad of faggots and mentally ill people. He specifically referenced the "LGBTQ2" community. It was one of the most insane and pathetic speeches a major world leader has given in some time [at least since Juncker said he was in contact with space aliens -Ed.].

He was sad that these sexually dysfunctional individuals were not treated well by the Canadian government in years gone by.

And LGBTQ2? They just keep adding letters and numbers to reference different varieties of faggotry. Who the hell can keep track of this insanity? It is all faggotry regardless of how they categorize or classify it.

It is ridiculous that societies throughout Western civilization continue to embrace this madness. Faggots are sick and should be institutionalized. Telling these people that their behavior is normal is only further encouraging their destructive behavior. It is the equivalent of giving an alcoholic more alcohol and telling them that they should embrace their alcoholism.

If you can't stomach watching Trudeau's whole speech, you should at least watch this short clip from it. It's some of the most pathetic cuckoldry imaginable. If I were in that chamber watching this I would have broken out in laughter.

What was most interesting about what he said was his statement about the government keeping its citizens safe. He seems to think that this is one of the most important functions of government. If that's the case, it is interesting that he feels so strongly about flooding Canada with violent third world savages. Is importing violent populations of third world hordes keeping the people safe? Doesn't seem that way. So on top of being a pathetic cuckold pussy, he's also a hypocrite.

If Jews weren't pulling the cultural strings in our societies it is highly doubtful that pantywaists like Justin Trudeau would reach any level of political power.

Comedian Garrison Keillor Fired From His Long-Running Show for Practicing Grope-ism

Adrian Sol
Daily Stormer
December 1, 2017

Adepts of the grope are the most oppressed people in the world.

Famous autistic Garrison Keillor is the latest victim of the grope-purge sweeping through the nation.

This couldn't have come soon enough. This guy has been making incredibly boring radio for the past 40 years, and probably caused more accidents due to drivers falling asleep to his show than drunk driving ever did. As such, him being taken off the air will definitely be a boon to public safety and morale.

However, instead of firing him for hypnotizing his audience to sleep, the radio station waited until some ho accused him of the grope.

AP:

Garrison Keillor, whose stories of small-town characters entertained legions of public radio listeners for 40 years on "A Prairie Home Companion," became another celebrity felled by allegations of workplace misconduct on Wednesday when Minnesota Public Radio terminated his contracts.

"Entertained" might be a strong word here. "Bored to tears" would be more accurate.

Video Link

Spot on.

The homegrown humorist told The Associated Press he was fired over "a story that I think is more interesting and more complicated than the version MPR heard." Keillor didn't detail the allegation to AP, but he later told the Minneapolis Star Tribune that he had put his hand on a woman's bare back when trying to console her.

"I meant to pat her back after she told me about her unhappiness, and her shirt was open and my hand went up it about six inches. She recoiled. I apologized," Keillor told the newspaper in an email. "I sent her an email of apology later, and she replied that she had forgiven me and not to think about it."

"We were friends. We continued to be friendly right up until her lawyer called."

Well, that settles it.

Now that patting a woman on the back has been deemed a firing offence even in Jew Hollywood, there's probably no one in the media who can escape the grope-purge.

MPR said only that it received allegations of “inappropriate behavior” against Keillor last month involving one person who worked with him during his time hosting “A Prairie Home Companion.” Keillor retired as host of the radio variety show last year, but continued to work for MPR on various projects.

MPR said it had received no other complaints but had retained an outside law firm that was continuing to investigate.

The only thing I want to know is, what are these media companies going to do once their entire staff is finally gone? At this rate, we should be at that stage by next year.

The only media to survive will be Alt-Right—because we don't allow women here. We only grope on our own time, protecting us from these stupid scandals.

I guess the mainstream media will have to be staffed entirely by women from now on.

I wonder which will be more successful? The Alt-Right media staffed by men, or the Jew media staffed by women? I can't wait to find out.

Apple Removes Glorious Duterte Video Games from App Store to Protect Feelings of Whining Junkies!

Adrian Sol

December 1, 2017

Wh...what have I been missing out on?

Everyone loves based president Duterte and stands 100% in solidarity with his crusade to purge the Philippines of crime and degeneracy. We all admire his heroic courage and stoic determination. As such, it was only a matter of time before scores of video games featuring the flip strongman started being developed and released, to public acclaim.

But the fun couldn't last.

Hateful junkies have banded together and lobbied Apple to take these joyful games off of their online store, under the misguided pretense that junkies deserve to live!

Wew.
BBC:

Video games that put the player in the shoes of Philippine President Rodrigo Duterte as he kills criminals have been removed from Apple's app store.

Popular games with titles such as “Duterte knows Kung Fu: Pinoy Crime Fighter” have disappeared from the company's digital shop.

A drug users' advocacy group said it had been campaigning for their removal.

Thousands of people have been killed by police during the president's crackdown on drug-related crime.

Duterte's glock has infinite bullets, and he's coming for your police badges. Just like in real life.

The Asian Network of People Who Use Drugs (Anpud) had previously written an open letter to Apple's CEO Tim Cook to remove the games, which it said were “promoting murder, extrajudicial killings, violence, and the war on drugs in the Philippines”.

I've got just one question.

How stupid do you have to be to be taking advice from people who admit to being high on drugs? I for one wouldn't change the way I run my multi-billion-dollar business based on the ideas of heroin junkies. But then again, I'm not a faggot like Tim Cook, so maybe there's something I'm missing there.

“We did not receive a direct response from Mr Cook or Apple,” the group said in a statement. “However, most of the apps no longer appear”.

The games that Anpud said had now disappeared include:

- Duterte knows Kung Fu: Pinoy Crime Fighter
- Duterte Running Man Challenge Game
- Fighting Crime 2
- Tship Bato: Ang Bumangga Giba!

All those games featured either President Duterte, or Philippines police chief Ronald “Bato” dela

Rosa shooting down criminals, it said.

Some similar games are still available on the rival Google Play store, which provides apps for users of the Android mobile operating system. A few claim to feature shooting zombies rather than humans.

So many games...So little time...I'll have to make playing Duterte games my full time job from now on.

Will Google cuck as well? I sure hope not. Without Duterte games, what the hell am I supposed to do with my spare time?

ESPN Cuts 150 Jobs

Lee Rogers
Daily Stormer
November 30, 2017

ESPN is laying off more workers. Their brand seems to have been permanently damaged after Jews decided that it would be fun to push political propaganda alongside sports coverage.

ESPN one of the most recognizable sports brands in existence today is struggling. They just announced a new round of layoffs. This comes months after they fired roughly 100 people including a number of their on air personalities.

AP:

ESPN is eliminating 150 production and technical employees as the sports broadcasting giant continues to shift its focus to a more digital future.

The company says the layoffs, which were announced Wednesday morning in a memo to employees, don't include on-air talent and will have a minimal impact on the network's signature SportsCenter news program.

"The majority of the jobs eliminated are in studio production, digital content, and technology and they generally reflect decisions to do less in certain instances and re-direct resources," ESPN president John Skipper wrote in memo. "We will continue to invest in ways which will best position us to serve the modern sports fan and support the success of our business."

This is an indication that the entire sports world which has been dominated by political correctness and unlimited numbers of monkey ball players is losing steam. ESPN is owned by Disney a company that is run and operated by Jews. The Jew Bob Iger is the current CEO of Disney. It is no surprise that when Disney took over the brand, they shoved as much diversity and multiculturalism propaganda into the network's content.

Instead of people tuning into ESPN to get sports, they've been getting force fed all sorts of political propaganda. This has gone into overdrive following the flurry of national anthem protests we have seen staged by the likes of Colin Kaepernick and other Negro Felon League players.

Simply put, ESPN is Jewish garbage. The average person might not understand why they are being fed retarded political propaganda on a sports network, but many of them are not happy with it. If they thought ESPN was such a great thing to watch, we wouldn't be seeing mass cancellations of cable subscriptions.

And perhaps the worst thing about ESPN is Stephen A. Smith. He is one of the most obnoxious niggers on the planet and for some reason ESPN keeps broadcasting his ugly monkey face.

375 Million Jobs Projected to be Lost to Automation by 2030

Adrian Sol
Daily Stormer
November 30, 2017
Video Link

This is happening, you can be sure of that.

All these experts are predicting catastrophic losses in jobs due to incoming improvements in automation and artificial intelligence, yet no one in government or policy circles seems to be discussing any real strategy to deal with this problem. On the contrary, all you ever hear about is the need to import more low-skill laborers from third world countries to "do the jobs we don't want to do."

Well, we already have fruit-picking machines, AI cooks, automatic ordering and cash-out machines in businesses and all sorts of other devices that replace Mexican workers. So what the hell are these people going to do in a few years, except sell drugs and drive drunk and behead people?

CNN:

A new report has a stern warning for the global workforce: stay flexible.

The McKinsey Global Institute cautions that as many as 375 million workers will need to switch occupational categories by 2030 due to automation.

That's a very conservative estimate. I'm betting it's going to be a lot more than that—especially in White countries and Japan, where the tech will be deployed first, and much more aggressively.

If our companies are willing to move their entire manufacturing to the third world to save a few pennies, you can bet that they'll replace their workforce with robots and AI software at the first opportunity as well. Not to mention that it's an excellent way to cut down on sexual harassment lawsuits and useless affirmative action dindu hires.

The work most at risk of automation includes physical jobs in predictable environments, such as operating machinery or preparing fast food. Data collection and processing is also in the crosshairs, with implications for mortgage origination, paralegals, accounts and back-office processing.

Those kinds of jobs have been undergoing automation for a long time.

That's just the most obvious stuff. But in fact, the bulk of office jobs will be eaten up by AI as well. In the video embedded at the top, you can see that some companies have already replaced middle management with an AI system, apparently with success. Even “creative” jobs like graphic design, advertising and so on can be drastically augmented with these upcoming systems, allowing companies to cut down their departments to a fraction of the workforce they once had.

To remain viable, workers must embrace retraining in different fields. But governments and companies will need to help smooth what could be a rocky transition.

“The model where people go to school for the first 20 years of life and work for the next 40 or 50 years is broken,” Susan Lund, a partner for the McKinsey Global Institute and co-author of the report, told CNN Tech. “We're going to have to think about learning and training throughout the course of your career.”

The problem though, is that this sort of “continuous learning” is only possible for a fraction of the population with both a high IQ and the right temperament. You think the average 50 year old factory worker is going to go back to school and learn software engineering? Or even just learn a completely new trade? This is insanity.

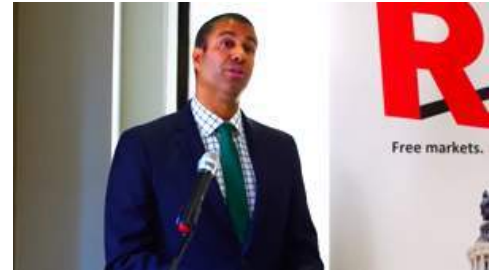

Adapting to this new situation is going to require a complete restructuring of our society.

And that's not going to be possible until we get rid of these Jews.

FCC Chairman Ajit Pai Takes a Massive Street Shit on Twitter

Lee Rogers
Daily Stormer
November 29, 2017

The head of Trump's FCC Ajit Pai is no fan of Twitter's censorship policies and that's a good thing.

The head of the Federal Communications Commission Ajit Pai just took a massive street shit on Silicon Valley at a speech yesterday. He specifically singled out Twitter as being one of the main companies stifling free political speech on the internet.

Reuters:

The chairman of the Federal Communications Commission, Ajit Pai, accused social media company Twitter Inc (TWTR.N) of being politically biased on Tuesday as he defended his plan to roll back rules intended to ensure a free and open internet.

Pai, a Republican named by President Donald Trump to head up the FCC, unveiled plans last week to scrap the 2015 landmark net neutrality rules, moving to give broadband service providers sweeping power over what content consumers can access.

“When it comes to an open internet, Twitter is part of the problem,” Pai said. “The company has a viewpoint and uses that viewpoint to discriminate.”

He pointed to Twitter's refusal to let Representative Marsha Blackburn, a Republican, advertise a campaign video with an anti-abortion message.

“To say the least, the company appears to have a double standard when it comes to suspending or de-verifying conservative users' accounts as opposed to those of liberal users,” Pai said.

And what Pai talked about is just the tip of the iceberg as far as censorship on Twitter is concerned. They've banned nearly everyone of notable significance that has a political view to the right of Karl Marx. At least they've banned everyone they can get away with banning. Twitter's CEO Jack Dorsey would probably ban Donald Trump from the platform if he could get away with it.

Pai also attacked a handful of celebrities including Cher and Marc Ruffalo who not surprisingly support net neutrality.

Taking away #NetNeutrality is the Authoritarian dream. Consolidating information into the hands of a few controlled by a few. Dangerous territory. <https://t.co/ZVdvmGzcHf>

— Mark Ruffalo (@MarkRuffalo) November 21, 2017

Net Neutrality means
Trump can Change The Internet | It Will Include LESS
AMERICANS NOT MORE|
Now Comcast,AT&T,Google
Will show you ONLY WHAT THEY WANT YOU TO SEE | SLOWER AND
MORE EXPENSIVE AT THEIR WHIM|
SEE LESS,CHARGED MORE...

— Cher (@cher) November 22, 2017

It's honestly amazing that there are people among our ranks who still think net neutrality is a good thing. These regulations only serve to empower the Silicon Valley companies who actively censor political content. And besides, since when have moronic celebrities like Marc Ruffalo or Cher ever been right about anything?

It isn't like the proposal to repeal net neutrality is a radical thing. These regulations have only been in place since 2015. The internet operated fine before 2015. Anybody saying otherwise is spreading nonsensical fear to justify keeping these regulations which have done nothing to prevent existing internet censorship.

Twittersphere in Uproar Over Actress Angela Lansbury Blaming Sluts for Sexual Harassment

Adrian Sol
Daily Stormer
November 28, 2017

"Corrective rape is the best known method to fixing a ho." -Angela Lansbury, 2017

The thing about being a 92 year old, is that you actually remember a time when things weren't so messed up. You remember when sluts were getting raped left and right, and nobody batted an eyelid because they just assumed, rightfully, that they deserved it.

The other thing about being a 92 year old is that you tend to become senile and forget important things. Things such as the fact that Jews completely took over America and started enforcing an insane feminist ideology on everyone, and that anyone who stands against it will be vilified and hounded off the public square.

Angela Lansbury just combined both of those tendencies, to her detriment.

Entertainment Weekly:

Twitter users weren't expecting this when Angela Lansbury's name began trending on Tuesday: the Murder, She Wrote star made controversial claims to Radio Times about how "there are two sides to this coin" of sexual harassment.

"We have to own up to the fact that women, since time immemorial, have gone out of their way to make themselves attractive," the 92-year-old said (via The Telegraph). "And unfortunately it has backfired on us—and this is where we are today."

"We must sometimes take blame, women. I really do think that," she added. "Although it's awful to say we can't make ourselves look as attractive as possible without being knocked down and raped."

"Sometimes" is something of an understatement.

Everyone knows and agrees that women are 100% to blame for all rapes—that's a scientific fact. Only Jewish extremists and small-souled bugmen could disagree with something so reasonable. Unfortunately for Lansbury, those people have quite a bit of clout these days.

Doubly so in her industry—Hollywood.

Lansbury emphasized for the article that blame should not be placed on the victims of harassment or assault, but a backlash has already begun brewing across social media in light of her statements. BBC World journalist Julia Macfarlane also shared a photo of the printed piece from Radio Times.

A million liberals cried out in anguish as their worldview was put into question by a 92 year old woman.

It’s NEVER the woman’s fault!

— Brian Krassenstein (@krassenstein) November 28, 2017

Murder She Wrote would have been quite a different show if in each episode Angela Lansbury blamed the victim.

pic.twitter.com/x3ruL22cIR

— Dr Fern Riddell (@FernRiddell) November 28, 2017

“It is a deeply unhelpful myth that rape and other forms of sexual violence are caused or ‘provoked’ by women’s sexuality or ‘attractiveness,’” a spokesperson for Rape Crisis England & Wales told The Telegraph. “Rape is an act of sexual violence, power and control that has little to nothing to do with sexual desire. It is as insulting to men as it is to anyone to suggest they’re unable to take responsibility for their own behaviors and that the way a woman presents herself can cause them to lose control or force them to sexually harass or assault her.

It’s a deeply unhelpful myth that feminism and other forms of female whining are caused or “provoked” by men’s authority or “patriarchy,” a spokesman for the Institute of White Sharia told the Daily Stormer. “Dressing like sluts is an act of sexual violence, power and control that has little or nothing to do with so-called ‘equality.’ It is as insulting to women as it is to anyone to suggest they’re unable to take responsibility for their own behaviors and that the way a men organize society can cause them to lose control or wear midriffs.”

The only way to stop this wave of “sexual harassment” is to immediately institute hardcore patriarchy, otherwise known as White sharia. Anyone advocating for different measures isn’t really interested in creating a solution—and are thus a part of the problem.

Bitcoin Hits $10,000

Lee Rogers
Daily Stormer
November 28, 2017

Bitcoin has gone up so fast that we couldn't even make proper use of this meme!

Just a few days ago we had planned to do an article noting Bitcoin’s ascent past $9,000. We even had the meme lined up and everything!

Remarkably, Bitcoin has gone up so fast in such a short period of time that we are now talking about it hitting the $10,000 mark.

Gizmodo:

At this point, anyone pretending to know what the ceiling is on Bitcoin should be considered no more reliable than a palm reader. On Tuesday, the trading price of the most prominent cryptocurrency hit $10,000 for the first time. And that nice round number will almost certainly have the kind of psychological effect that brings in new traders.

Based on analysts’ recent predictions, the $10,000 milestone could be the beginning of the end or just the beginning. Some thought that $2,000 would be the point at which we’d see a reversal of Bitcoin’s ascent. Others predicted it would top out at $4,000. Then, $4,000 became the floor. These days, analysts with decent reputations have predicted the cryptocurrency’s trading price could go as high as $50,000, $100,000, and even $1 million.

The cryptocurrency space is certainly a fascinating one. None of us know exactly where Bitcoin or the general cryptocurrency market is ultimately heading but cryptocurrencies are serving a much needed niche outside of the traditional Jew dominated banking system.

Hopefully Bitcoin goes to $6,000,000 and higher. Any market not directly controlled by Jew owned banks that allows people to conduct business is a good thing. The fractional reserve scam run by these banks needs to be phased into the dustbin of history. Its nothing but high tech Jew usury.

The Bitcoin market is extremely volatile though. We could easily see its value drop just as much as it has risen in the past few weeks.

Where do you guys think Bitcoin is going? Leave a comment on the BBS and share your thoughts.

We Desperately Need More Black Men to Become Nurses

Adrian Sol
Daily Stormer
November 28, 2017

Niggerbitches are already such good nurses, imagine what Black men could do for our society.

You're 80, cancer-stricken and in your hospital bed. While you always feel terrible these days, you start to feel particularly ill at ease and pain starts to flare up in your chest. You press the emergency button, hoping a nurse comes soon to look after you.

A few agonizing minutes later, a White woman in a blue uniform shuffles into the room. You start to get anxious.

"My chest hurts terribly," you tell her.

She looks confused and apathetic. Your fears are confirmed.

"Isn't there anything you can do?" you ask.

"Nah, man, it's late and shit. Plus, my shift 'bout to end. Look, just take these pills here and chill," she answers nonchalantly.

"You don't even know what the problem is! Don't you have any Black male nurse who could actually help me?" I snapped back.

"All them niggas quit, cause of old racist crackas like you. Now you stuck with us whitey nurses. So take your damn pills and don't call me again."

She leaves, shuffling back out of the room. You look at the bottle she gave you. Laxatives. Your pain keeps growing, until it reaches a crescendo. You die shortly thereafter, from a heart attack.

This could all have been avoided, if a Black male nurse had been at the scene.

If we don't do something about the lack of Black male nurses in our hospitals, this could be your future, White man.

Slate:

Chris, a nurse I interviewed recently, is regularly mistaken for hospital housekeeping staff: "I come [to work] in my white uniform. That's what I wear. Being a black man, I know they won't look at me the same, so I dress the part. I said, 'Good evening, my name's Chris, and I'm going to be your nurse.' She says to me, 'Are you from housekeeping?'" This wasn't the only time he's had his occupation questioned while he's practicing it: "I've walked in and had a lady look at me and ask if I'm the janitor."

Is it any wonder these Blacks won't do the difficult and demanding job of being nurse, when we treat them with such racism? How can we expect Blacks to take care of us in our old age when we mistake them as janitors? This is a disaster.

With a rapidly aging population, longer life spans, and few care facilities in many rural areas, the demand for nurses is high, and the profession has deliberately sought to recruit more men. At the same time, fields that have traditionally been male-dominated—especially manufacturing and construction—have been hit hard over the years, and especially since the 2008 recession. Consequently, some have hoped men would be attracted to nursing given that it is a field that offers stable, well-paying work in a growing industry. Yet nursing still remains predominantly female and white. While many have focused on the barriers to getting men in general to enter nursing, my research shows that black men, who are drastically underrepresented in nursing, may in fact be the group of men most motivated to enter the field, even despite an often racist environment.

Racists may object that Blacks may be interested in nursing because of the easy access to large supplies of drugs, that may be resold on the streets or consumed for recreational purposes. For those entertaining such thought, I have only one thing to say: shame on you.

Black junkies and drug dealers are a anti-Black canard.

In a study of unemployed married men and women, sociologist Ofer Sharone finds that this pressure to pursue traditionally male-dominated work even spills over into marriages. “Unemployed men, but not unemployed women, report marital tensions due to their spouses being critical of the types of jobs that they are pursuing,” says Sharone. This culture of enforcing gendered boundaries around the profession can explain why persistent ideas about gender and femininity make professions like nursing a hard sell.

But in a study of black men in nursing, I found that they by and large were unfazed by the perceptions of nursing as a “woman’s job.” They were aware of the stereotypes about gender and nursing and obviously noted that most of their colleagues in the field were women. But for black men, the gender-based pressures to avoid this professional field were muted by other forces that they found more compelling.

Racists may object that Black males may be interested in nursing because the field is overwhelmingly composed of White women, which may give these men opportunities to satisfy “muh dick.” For those entertaining such thought, I have only one thing to say: shame on you.

It’s because of attitudes like these that we’ve got this nursing crisis.

It’s time to embrace the only people who can save this civilization: niggers.

Trump’s FCC Chairman Sees Family Harassed Over Net Neutrality Repeal

The head of the Federal Communications Commission Ajit Pai is apparently getting harassed for promising to repeal net neutrality.

The Hill:

Federal Communications Commission (FCC) chairman chairman Ajit Pai asked people to stop harassing his family over his attempts to roll back net neutrality provisions.

During a Monday interview on Fox News’s “Fox & Friends,” Pai addressed a sign that was put up outside his home that mentioned his children’s names and read: “They will come to know the truth. Dad murdered Democracy in cold blood.”

“It certainly crosses a line with me,” Pai said.

“I understand that people are passionate about policy, but the one thing in America that should remain sacred is that families, wives and kids, should remain out of it,” he continued.

“And stop harassing us at our homes.”

I have a friend that lives near @AjitPaiFCC. Net neutrality “activists” posted these signs, featuring his children’s names, outside his house. Pizzas also reportedly sent to his house every half-hour last night. pic.twitter.com/jWI4gV6Hvc

— Brendan Bordelon (@BrendanBordelon) November 25, 2017

There’s no doubt that Silicon Valley is going into overdrive trying to keep net neutrality regulations in place. That’s because they’ve been the main beneficiaries of this policy. They are going all out with a propaganda campaign to make people believe that repealing net neutrality will result in the end of internet freedom. Their campaign has been effective enough to the point where they’ve convinced useful idiots to harass the FCC chairman’s family. The good news is that it doesn’t appear as if he’s getting scared off from the harassment. It looks as if he is going to go through with the repeal.

As we already know, the Silicon Valley position is absurd because internet censorship is in full force despite net neutrality being in place since 2015. The Daily Stormer is the foremost example of how Silicon Valley has conspired to eliminate a political view from the public square. We’ve been banned from multiple domain registrars and blacklisted from every major social media site and service imaginable. The FCC’s net neutrality regulations have done nothing for us.

The same companies responsible for censoring political views on the internet are claiming that we need net neutrality to prevent internet censorship. How can people not see the hypocrisy with this position?

Net neutrality supporters are more concerned with the theoretical censorship that internet service providers might engage in than the actual real life censorship engaged in by Silicon Valley.

Bugmen Trying to Cure “Smartphone Addiction” – By Buying Stupid Gadgets

Adrian Sol
Daily Stormer
 November 28, 2017

That's the most ridiculous thing I've ever seen.

It isn't easy being a small-souled bugman. How are you supposed to maintain fashionable, politically correct opinions when the world around you is a decaying hellscape of diversity and urban decay? How are you supposed to maintain the illusion that you're a cool, popular guy when the real men around you think you're a dweeb and the women think of you as their girlfriend?

The solution, of course, is to ignore reality and keep your face glued to your smartphone 24/7. Then you won't have to suffer through the cognitive dissonance between what the media tells you to think, and your lying eyes. And the constant shots of validation from getting upvotes on your "Drumpf" memes on twitter will keep you feeling good about yourself in spite of your real status as a low-t faggot.

Is it any surprise we're seeing all these people suffer from "smartphone addiction?"

Engadget:

Cigarettes are hard to kick not just because of the nicotine, but the fact that they give you something to do with your hands. The "Substitute Phone" from Vienna-based designer Klemens Schillinger works on the same principal, if you think of content as the drug and your phone's touchscreen as the tactile addiction. The five models look and feel like a phone, but instead of a screen, there are stone beads embedded in slots at various angles. You can just grab it and swipe, pinch and scroll, satisfying that physical need without the nicotine/content.

10/10, would keep all five in my pockets.

"More and more often one feels the urge to check their phone, even if you are not expecting a specific message or call," Schillinger told Dezeen. "These observations inspired the idea of making a tool that would help stop this 'checking' behaviour."

The handsome "devices" are made from black polyoxymethylene (acetal) plastic that simulates the heft of a phone, while the beads are natural Howlith stone. Assuming you're willing to carry some or all five on you, they can simulate scrolling, zooming and swiping. That, Schillinger notes, calms users and helps them cope with the withdrawal symptoms. "There are no digital functions," he adds.

No one is addicted to "swiping," you dimwits. Smartphone addiction is caused by the dopamine hits people get from getting notifications on social media apps and games. These apps use the reward reinforcement and social validation pathways of the mind in order to get people hooked.

This is not rocket science.

It's not like the apps are any less addictive when used on the desktop pc or when displayed on the television. It's just that people carry their phones around with them, so that's the platform that gives them constant access to the true source of their addiction, the applications themselves.

This isn't even the only stupid gadget marketed towards curing "smartphone addiction."

Less functionality than any phone from 1998, and for only $150? Oh, boy, where can I get one?

If you really want to help people with their smartphone addictions, make sure to downvote all their posts and leave nasty, hurtful comments. That way, they'll learn to associate phone notifications with negative feelings, and thus stop using them. It turns out trolling is actually a very humanitarian pursuit, helping people get over their addiction problems. Who would have thought.

Prince Harry Announces Engagement to Random Old Niggerbitch

I thought Prince Harry was supposed to be a Nazi?

No seriously—I actually did think that.

Then I thought he was just trolling earth with this nigger-bitch.

The chances that this is all a massive troll, however, are rapidly diminishing.

CNN:

Britain's Prince Harry and the American actor Meghan Markle have made their first public appearance since their engagement was announced earlier Monday.

The couple appeared at a photocall in the Sunken Garden at Kensington Palace in London on Monday afternoon, where Harry told reporters he knew Markle was "the one" from "the very first time we met."

The Prince declined to elaborate on his proposal to Markle, but when asked whether it was romantic, he smiled and said, "of course it was."

Markle said she was "so very happy" and flashed her engagement ring to reporters.

The ring, designed by Harry, has a gold band and features a large diamond from Botswana and two smaller outer diamonds from the personal collection of Harry's late mother, Diana, Princess of Wales, according to a statement from Kensington Palace.

Botswana holds special significance for the couple, who have spent time together there over the past year and a half, Kensington Palace said.

This bitch is old as hell too. Like almost 40.

Also, if you thought she was a high yellow quadroon—nope. That's just plastic surgery and bleach.

Here she is with her mom—or should I say "mum"?

Although Charles has been saying some favorable things lately (and in fact has for a while), I think this situation is clearly enough to declare he crown itself illegitimate.

As I have said before, it is time to remove the royal family and replace it with a Conan-type WAR-RIOR KING.

Yes, friends.

You know who I mean.

Tyson Fury should be given the opportunity to fight the entire royal family—at the same time—in a cage match.

And to the winner should go he spoils.

And by spoils, I mean control of the British empire—including the alleged "independent" colonies.

Except America. Because he already fought for that.

All the rest of these proles just got their lands back because the British government was a bunch of cucks who just wanted to be nice and give territory away for no explainable reason.

Evil Antichrist Pope Goes to Myanmar to Attempt to Put the Kybosh on Daw Suu

Andrew Anglin
Daily Stormer
November 27, 2017

B-B-B-B-B-B-BRAIN VIRUSSSSS

The non-Pope of Pure Evil, Pope Francis, has made it his divine mission to destroy everything that is good and sacred on planet earth.

So it is little surprise that the twisted, deranged fink is traveling to Myanmar to attempt to stick an monkey wrench (PUN INTENDED) in Holy Crusader Daw Suu's sacred war against the invasive mutie filth plaguing her great nation.

Once upon a time, the Church fought the evil Moslem filth. Now its patriarch travels the globe to ensure the this demonic Sauron army be able to crush all that is good on earth.

Dhaka Tribune:

Pope Francis arrived in mainly Buddhist Myanmar on Monday where he was set to meet army chief Min Aung Hlaing, the man accused of overseeing a brutal campaign to drive out the country's Rohingya minority.

The 80-year-old pontiff, the first to travel to Myanmar, was welcomed at the airport by children from different minority groups in bright, bejewelled clothes, who gave him flowers and received a papal embrace in return.

Nuns in white habits were among the devotees who have travelled from across the country in his honour, waving flags as his motorcade swept past the golden Shwedagon Pagoda to the archbishop's residence in downtown Yangon, where the pope will stay on Monday night.

But these joyful scenes were in stark contrast to the gravity of the main issue that frames his trip.

Myanmar's military stands accused of waging a campaign of ethnic cleansing against Rohingya.

"Stands accused"?

As far as I'm aware, they're not even denying this just and glorious act to PROTECT THE PEOPLE.

On Tuesday, Francis will meet civilian leader Aung San Suu Kyi, a Nobel Peace Prize winner whose lustre has faded because of her failure to speak up publicly for the Rohingya.

This devilish monster has no right to even look upon the face of the MAJESTIC QUEEN DAW SUU.

This is like a stinking, greasy, diseased ghetto kike being granted an audience with Mel Gibson.

His speeches will be scrutinised by Buddhist hardliners for any mention of the word "Rohingya", an incendiary term in a country where the Muslim group are reviled and labelled "Bengalis," alleged illegal immigrants from Bangladesh.

"Alleged"?

Do you have an explanation, Pope Satan, as to why they were allowed to invade and occupy Myanmar?

This is like Kosovo all over again.

Speaking shortly before he left Rome, the pontiff said: "I ask you to be with me in prayer so that, for these peoples, my presence is a sign of affinity and hope."

Prayer to who? Moloch?

The Rohingya crisis looms large over the pope's visit.

The army, which ran the country with an iron fist for nearly half a century, insists its Rakhine operation was a proportionate response to Rohingya "terrorists" who raided police posts in late August, killing at least a dozen officers.

Yes, of course— "terrorists" is in scare quotes.

Because attacking police stations and killing cops—randomly—is just their unique and vibrant culture.

Maybe, Pope Satan, you should mind your own damned business.

Though to be honest, I have no clear understanding of what exactly your business is, beyond destroying people's lives across the globe.

IMPEACH

This evil "Pope" is illegitimate. He is a pervert and satanic.

It is high time for the Catholic people—in particularly the Polish—to rise up and demand he resign, and be replaced with an extremist who is ready to do what needs to be done.

And what needs to be done is nothing less than a global genocidal campaign against the enemies of Christendom. And for that matter, the enemies of our spiritual brethren, the Buddhists.

Negro Felon League Week 12: More Empty Seats and Fighting Monkeys!

Week 12 of the Negro Felon League season has come and gone. As expected, this week's games featured lots and lots of empty seats. This has become a permanent thing.

Other than the empty seats, the highlight of the week was a massive monkey brawl that took place

Even though the national anthem protests have played the largest role in causing attendance to plummet, there are other factors as well. Namely the fact that the product itself is not what it once was. The teams are filled with hordes of undisciplined niggers who act no different than some random nigger you'd see in the ghettos. Fewer and fewer White people are willing to shell out money to watch this garbage. It's a horrible product.

The league with Roger Goodell at the helm, has no plans to correct this problem. He's let these apes run amok and the result is unsurprising.

The big question is if the league can remain economically viable as this continues. The amount of revenue that has been lost with poor attendance and plunging ratings can't be a trivial number.

Oh well, it will be fun to document the league's ongoing demise. The NFL will never have the cultural impact it once had and that's a good thing.

Negroid Nurse Advocates for Systematic Killing of White Baby Boys

Adrian Sol
Daily Stormer
November 27, 2017

There...there's a lot to unpack here.
It's hard being an African-American.

Imagine going through life constantly afraid of the White predators around you. Having to walk the streets at night, nervously looking over your shoulder in case a gang of White boys are stalking you to grab your wallet—or worse. Having to deal with rude and violent White customers at work who don't even tip. And on top of that, having to constantly police your language lest you let slip the odd “cracka” here or there, and be assaulted by an enraged White guy—and then fired for “insensitive language.”

Can you really blame these people for hating us?

It's time we examine our own behavior.

Fox News:

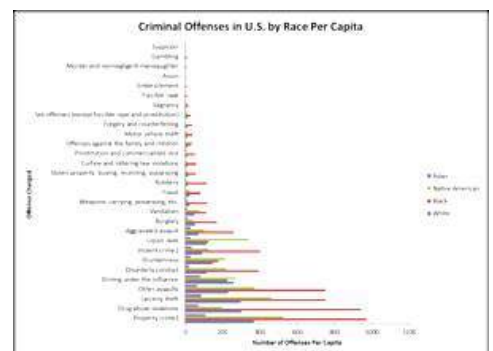

A controversial tweet allegedly posted Friday by a nurse at one of the largest hospital systems in the nation has sparked an internal investigation.

The tweet came from an account named “Night Nurse,” linked to Indiana University Health employee Taiyesha Baker, FOX59 reported.

“Every white woman raises a detriment to society when they raise a son. Someone with the HIGHEST propensity to be a terrorist, rapist, racist, killer, and domestic violence all star. Historically every son you had should be sacrificed to the wolves b___,” the tweet read.

Say what you want about this woman, but she has her facts straight.

We just need to look at the data:

Note that the “White” category also includes spics and Moslems.

Oh, well, what do you know. I was sure Whites were the most criminal based on all the Jew propaganda I’d been exposed to, but I guess the data shows otherwise.

An IU Health spokesman confirmed to FOX59 that Baker is a registered nurse, but declined to reveal the hospital where she is currently employed.

“IU Health is aware of several troubling posts on social media which appear to be from a recently hired IU Health employee,” the hospital said in a statement. “Our HR department continues to investigate the situation and the authenticity of the posts. During the investigation, that employee (who does not work at Riley Hospital for Children) will have no access to patient care.”

Baker claimed to work in pediatrics in previously deleted tweets.

According to public records obtained by FOX59, Baker was most recently issued a nursing license on Oct. 30.

Imagine this Black animal “taking care” of your White children.

Actually, don’t imagine it—I just illustrated it for you:

This is our future: being choked out by the diversity around us, by people who hate us and envy us. And the Jews have been busy staffing all our institutions with this subhuman refuse, so that there is nowhere for us to run.

We’re going to turn all this Jew insanity around—or it’ll be the death of us.

So You Get Caught Just Making Shit Up Off the Top of Your Head and Get a Month Suspension?

These people aren't even clear on what they can and cannot lie about. They just make stuff up randomly.

And then when it is something they can't lie about, they get a month suspension.

RT:

Donald Trump has welcomed ABC's move to suspend its chief investigative journalist Brian Ross for what the US president branded a "horrendously inaccurate and dishonest" report on Mike Flynn's guilty plea. The report temporarily caused stocks to plummet.

"Congratulations to @ABC News for suspending Brian Ross for his horrendously inaccurate and dishonest report on the Russia, Russia, Russia Witch Hunt. More Networks and 'papers' should do the same with their Fake News!" the president tweeted.

Congratulations to @ABC News for suspending Brian Ross for his horrendously inaccurate and dishonest report on the Russia, Russia, Russia Witch Hunt. More Networks and "papers" should do the same with their Fake News!

— Donald J. Trump (@realDonaldTrump) December 3, 2017

ABC News made headlines again on Saturday when it announced that the network had suspended Ross for four weeks without pay for a "serious error" in his reporting about former National Security Adviser (NSA) Michael Flynn's guilty plea. During a live "Special Report" on Friday Ross said, citing anonymous sources, that Flynn allegedly agreed to testify that during the 2016 election campaign then-candidate Trump told him to contact Russian officials. However, Ross' source later told the journalist that the order came when Trump had already won the election and was president-elect.

The Jew media is no longer even pretending to take itself seriously. Now, even if they did discover some grand evil TRUMP-RUSSIA-NAZI conspiracy, no one would even believe it.

I wonder what kind of internal research they're doing on this stuff?

Are they asking themselves about when they will reach the point where no one believes anything at all that they say?

Or are they just focused on shutting down the Alt-Right so that no one has any option but to listen to them, even while they know it's all nonsense?

Hateful Study Claims Dogs are Smarter Than Cats

Lee Rogers
Daily Stormer
December 1, 2017

It is racist and hateful to claim that dogs and cats are different. They are obviously the same. Why is this not an obvious fact to people?

A new scientific study is claiming that dogs are smarter than cats. This study was obviously fueled by vast amounts of hate.

Daily Mail:

The debate over whether dogs or cats are the smartest pet has raged for decades, if not centuries.

But in a twist that is sure to ruffle the fur of cat-lovers, new research shows that dogs are more intelligent than their feline foes after all.

Experts showed that dogs have more than twice as many brain cells in a region linked with thinking, planning and other complex behaviours.

The researchers, from Vanderbilt University in Nashville, Tennessee, say the number of neurons in an animal's cerebral cortex is a hallmark of intelligence.

The cortex is the largest layer of the brain and is associated with a range of complex behavioural characteristics.

Researchers found that dogs possess around 530 million cortical neurons, while cats only have around 250 million.

Considering that we've been told over and over again that different racial groups of man don't exist, why does this concept not translate to the animal kingdom? Surely, it is hateful to claim that one species of mammal is smarter than another. After all, biological differences are not relevant. Claiming that dogs are smarter than cats is just promoting hate of cats.

Yeah, dogs might have more brain cells but saying that dogs are smarter is just mean to cats. It also demonizes the contributions that hardworking cats make to society.

If there is no difference between races of man, than it is absurd to claim that there is a difference between dogs and cats. It is even more ridiculous to claim that there are different breeds of cats and dogs which exhibit different behaviors.

All cats and dogs are equally as intelligent regardless of what scientific studies say. Science does not mean anything. The only thing that matters is feelings. The only way not to hurt feelings is to claim that every living thing is equal in every way shape or form. Therefore, to say that one species of mammal is smarter than another species of mammal is not a valid perspective one can have.

This nigger is just as intelligent if not more intelligent than the average White person. If you say that this is not the case you are a racist person who is filled with hate in your heart.

Would Vanderbilt University do a study on whether Blacks are more intelligent than Whites? They would not do such a study because that study would be hateful. It is absurd to think that a study which concludes that dogs are smarter than cats is an OK thing to do. In fact, it is the furthest thing from being OK!

Brits Stuck with Infinity Illegal Brown People Forever

Azzmador

Daily Stormer

November 30, 2017

The UK will be a sewer forever now. But don't worry goyim, it will be a VI-BRANT sewer!

Are you as sick as I am of all these nattering nabobs who constantly go around on all the TV shows and newspapers telling us what we can't do?

"We can't have White countries anymore because Current Year™!"

"We can't have White neighborhoods and schools because RACIST!"

It's funny, really, when you think about it. Every western nation seems to have been run by these (((people))) who enacted policies that they claimed would never cause problems like White dispossession in our own countries. They said it would just be impossible to import that many brown, yellow and black people. Populations just don't move around like that. Only complete mouth breathing conspiratards could think that was a possibility.

Video Link

Then, a generation or two later, when the problems (which were actually the objectives) are glaring right in your face every day, they say "We can't possibly deport all these people! Populations just don't move around like that. Besides it would be really, really expensive and we don't have the money!"

This has traditionally been an American argument, but now that the UK has been flooded with uncountable numbers of illegals and rapefugees, not to mention their "naturalized" counterparts, the same nonsense is being spewed by immigration "experts" there as well.

It's almost as if all our countries are run by the same people...

Daily Mail:

It is impossible to track down the hundreds of thousands of illegal immigrants working on the black market in the UK, a border workers' union boss has warned.

Swingeing cuts to the immigration enforcement workforce has left the country vulnerable, it is claimed.

And there will be no way of enforcing new rules on EU nationals once the Government's post-Brexit immigration strategy is eventually finalised.

That is the warning from Lucy Moreton, of the Border Force workers' trade union the ISU.

Wow, that sucks. We just can't do it. The expert has spoken.

She told the Sun: 'If you are here illegally you can survive very well, you access medical services your child can go to school the chances of us catching you are very, very slim.

"If you don't break the law we are not going to get you as we don't have the resources. We can't catch you."

Seriously, wtf is this? The head of their border services union is basically just telling all the scum of the Earth to just come on to Merry Olde England, where a high time will be had by all, at no expense to any foreigner and with no consequences?

What could possibly go wrong?

Don't worry, he's just here for the gibs...

I'm here to tell you that this is crap. If White people could do great things like conquer the world, put men on the moon, and gas the six gorillion in fake shower rooms right in the middle of an expensive and somewhat time-consuming world war, we can deport a horde or two of non-Whites any time we damned well please.

Besides, this just shows what terrible leadership the UK has in Theresa May's cuckservative government. Anyone who's been paying attention knows that under Obama, we had immigration officials like Jeh Johnson being cited all over the Fake News media as saying we could never deport all these darned wetbacks, and no way would we dare try to stop these Moslems from coming here in unchecked numbers.

Now Trump is The Leader, and despite his not having been overly successful in getting his agenda enacted, the judenpresse is all like "ZOMG! Trump is gonna deport all the poor beaners and force the muzz to stay in muzz-land!!!"

Where there's a will, there's a way.

Clearly, not calling someone by their preferred gender pronouns makes him a living martyr and beyond criticism. Even when he demonstrates incredible hypocrisy by demanding debates with esjaydou-bleyous and claims victory when they refuse to speak...and then turns around and refuses to debate ANY Alt-Righter, he's just pulling some 6D Jungian Chess moves that us mortals can't understand.

Like when he says that race doesn't exist and that Jews as a race are ~115 IQ on average and that we should just accept that they run everything because they are...racially superior?

You can tell by his use of pet names for anyone not taken in by his wavery, weak, kermit the frog-esque voice that he's a serious thinker that isn't afraid of challenging ideas.

No, but real talk.

His die hard fans are a bunch of Millennial and Boomer tards. He sells them some snake oil self-help program that goes something like this:

1. Take this test to find out what personality type you are
2. Do this program to improve/sort yourself out
3. Start small, clean your room and build from that
4. ???
5. Profit

It's been said before, but it's worth saying again. This man is simply acting out the father figure role to a single-parent generation. He's a father to the Millennials and a fellow cuck Boomer to the other Boomers.

Worst of all, he's a fuckin' Canadian.

Have we learned nothing from Lauren Southern's shameless beta-male profiteering, or the whole slew of (((Canadian))) swine coming down to the US to profiteer off lost Whites desperate for a guiding voice?

(No offense to fellow fashy Canadians btw)

No one was asking Peterson to go full fash here. But he went above and beyond the call of ZOG by bashing White people and sucking Jewish dick.

Facebook and Google Follow the Daily Stormer's Lead by Establishing Operations in Lagos, Nigeria

Lee Rogers
Daily Stormer
November 30, 2017

Thanks to the Daily Stormer, Facebook and Google have finally recognized what a great place Lagos, Nigeria is.

We here at the Daily Stormer have been very critical of the hateful kikes who run Facebook and Google. Even though we are angry at them for stifling free speech on the internet, we have been particularly incensed at the lack of opportunities they have provided the people of Africa.

One of the most noteworthy aspects of this is their failure to setup any sort of meaningful office presence on the continent. Do they not think that Africans are capable of producing proper computer code? If it wasn't for those racist European colonists suppressing them all those years, Africa would be the most technologically advanced continent on the planet. This is a known fact that has been further reinforced by soon to be released movies like Black Panther.

Video Link

The good news is that change has come. Facebook and Google have decided to follow the Daily Stormer's lead and are finally establishing operations in Lagos, Nigeria.

QZ:

Last week, Facebook said it will open a tech hub in Lagos—it's first in Africa—"early next year." The hub is in collaboration with Co-Creation Hub, one of Nigeria's most prominent startup hubs, and will have incubation programs for startups and developers. The social network giant will also run training programs for 50,000 Nigerians as part of a digital skills training program. Facebook's decision to deepen its operations in Nigeria comes a little over a year after Mark Zuckerberg, its CEO, chose Lagos for his first visit to Africa.

But it follows on the heels of a similar move by Google. In July, while on his first visit to Lagos, Sundar Pichai, CEO of Google, announced the company's plans to open its first Google Launchpad Space outside the United States in Lagos. Earlier this month, it hosted the first ever Google Developers Launchpad Start, a one week long boot-camp, for early stage startups in Lagos.

As many of you know, the Daily Stormer's international headquarters has been in Lagos for quite a bit of time. It is obvious that Facebook and Google saw the success that we have had in Lagos and are attempting to replicate it.

Google and Facebook are way behind the times though. Lagos has been an excellent place to do business for many years now. Their management teams should be embarrassed that it took them this long to figure this out.

Goycott: Business Works with Communists to Fire Tony Hovater – FIGHT BACK!

Eric Striker
Daily Stormer
November 29, 2017

Donate to Tony's Goy Fund Me.

Communists and Jews were enraged by the New York Times' profile of nationalist Tony Hovater. These people are such petty assholes that they were chastising journalist Richard Fausset for talking to Tony about his ideas and lifestyle rather than menacing his father or making fun of his eyebrows.

Though they might seem like childish losers, these Jews and Jew lackeys run our country. They use the media not to inform, but to intimidate and make examples of political dissidents. Now the elites have begun their campaign to destroy a simple working class family in the heartland.

Tony Hovater, his wife and his brother-in-law (!) were all fired from their place of employment, 571 Grill & Draft House in New Carlisle, Ohio.

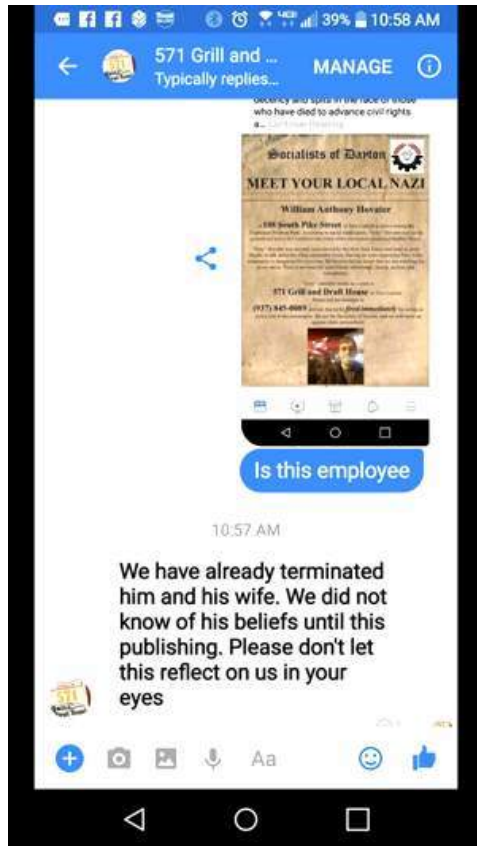

This was a purely political act done by the bosses at the behest of a communist activist named Corey Andon from the Trotskyite organization "Socialist Alternative."

Today my comrades in Socialists of Dayton successfully got the Nazi featured in the New York Times fired from his place of employment.

The owners at 571 Grill and Draft House deserve endless praise for their swift action in terminating this guy.

— Corey Andon (@coreyandon) November 27, 2017

Tony is a supporter of the Traditionalist Worker Party, which is an FEC registered political party. The employer fired him for his beliefs, which were clearly not a problem until a group of local communists saw him in the New York Times. This may be grounds for a civil lawsuit, but I'll leave that up to the lawyers.

Whether legal action is possible or not, this termination comes at a bad time for Tony and his family. He just got married, he was already barely scraping by, and now he's about to be made homeless after just moving into his new place with his wife.

Now it's time we send in the cavalry.

The staff at Goy Fund Me is hosting a fundraiser for the Hovaters to help mitigate the effects of random employment termination.

The Hovaters were only asking for $1,000 dollars, enough to survive another month. Instead, they were met with a powerful gesture of nationalist love and solidarity, their fund has surpassed the original appeal by more than fourfold!

But that's not enough. Let's show these malevolent Jews and reds that every strike they land on us only makes us stronger. Let's pass the hat around again and again until they hear audible, pained, constipated groans of "OY VEY!"

Lastly, 571 Grill & Draft House must be held responsible for throwing a family out on the street just because Tony Hovater told the New York Times the Holocaust is exaggerated (he's wrong, it actually never happened).

What do you think of 571 Grill's service now that they're short staffed (Tony and his family members were their hardest working and most reliable employees)?

Have you ever seen rats or roaches walking around or in your food?

Have you ever been abused by the management or the violent communists they closely associate with for your looks or because you wore a MAGA hat?

571 Grill & Draft House is trying to make a whole family homeless because the local communist party asked them to. What do people in middle America think of that?

If you're an unhappy customer, or don't like their practices, they want to hear from you!

Politely and intelligently (without any threats) let them know there is a business cost to factor in when you collude with communists to destroy freedom of speech. It doesn't matter what the laws say, you have no right to fire someone because they support a political party you don't agree with.

Donald Trump won Clark County (where New Carlisle is located) with 57% of the vote, it's clear people in the region care about free speech and hate PC. Nobody wants 5 Trotskyite hall monitors to be in charge of who gets a ration card.

Cloudflare's CEO Matthew Prince Openly Plots to Rate Limit the FCC Chairman's Internet

Lee Rogers
Daily Stormer
November 28, 2017

Cloudflare CEO Matthew Prince is a diabolical asshole who opposes free speech.

Cloudflare's CEO Matthew Prince is back in the news. This is the same man who woke up in a bad mood one day and decided to ban the Daily Stormer from using Cloudflare's distributed denial of service or ddos protection offering. His rationale for this is that we were a bunch of "assholes" and had to be banned. This move proved conclusively that he has no interest in protecting free speech on the internet. In fact, this move proved that he is directly opposed to it.

Suffice to say, this guy is a real clown. It's hard to believe that this is the caliber of person in charge of a fairly sizable Silicon Valley tech firm.

As with nearly every other company in Silicon Valley, Prince favors existing net neutrality regulations. He's vowed to fight the Federal Communications Commission plan to overturn it even though he thinks the change would be good for his company.

Repeal of #netneutrality is likely good for @Cloudflare. With our scale we'll be able to negotiate for fast lanes with ISPs and squeeze smaller players out. But it's BAD FOR THE INTERNET—so we will fight the #FCC to oppose it. #dotherrightthing

— Matthew Prince (@eastdakota)
November 21, 2017

He feels so strongly about net neutrality, that he was openly plotting on Twitter to rate limit the FCC chairman's internet access!

I could do this in a different, but equally effective, way.

— Matthew Prince (@eastdakota)
November 23, 2017

sent note to our GC to see if we can without breaking any laws.

— Matthew Prince (@eastdakota)
November 23, 2017

Now let's just think about this. Supporters of net neutrality are concerned that companies like Comcast, Verizon and other internet service providers will rate limit traffic and censor specific types of content if existing regulations are repealed. This is the main point they've been pushing to justify their claim that net neutrality is a good thing. So why is Prince, a major supporter of net neutrality, openly plotting to do that exact same thing on Twitter? He even said that he'd discuss the matter with his general counsel!

I'm certainly no fan of big ISPs like Comcast or Verizon but at least we don't see people on their top management teams plotting weird schemes like this. There is also no evidence of them having ever blocked sites based on political content.

Why should we believe that we need net neutrality when Prince himself is plotting this type of chicanery? It shows once again that the biggest threats to internet freedom are these Silicon Valley companies who support net neutrality.

Facebook, Google, Twitter, Cloudflare and many others already have a proven track record of censoring political content they dislike. Do you really think that they support net neutrality because they believe in free political speech? They're all opposed to it and this fool that runs Cloudflare has shown that to be true yet again.

Fox News:

Massage Envy, the nation's largest massage franchise, says it is planning to "strengthen" its policies after more than 180 women have come forward with accusations of sexual assault against the company's massage therapists and managers.

According to a report published by BuzzFeed News on Sunday, scores of former clients have accused Massage Envy's employees of criminal behavior, including unwanted groping, fondling and sexual assault.

Franchisees and managers, too, have been accused of mishandling or covering up incidents of alleged sexual misconduct.

In one complaint, former customer Susan Ingram said she was assaulted in 2015 by a male masseur named James Deiter, who inserted his fingers in her vagina and pushed his erection against her body while she lay “frozen in fear.”

Ingram added that she later informed the manager about his behavior, only to be told that she was welcome to return to the massage parlor to discuss the incident. She opted instead to phone the police, and Deiter admitted to assaulting Ingram during questioning.

Deiter was subsequently sentenced to prison for assaulting nine of his clients in total.

The only abuses of massagers that I am aware of is financial abuse—that is, when they give you a happy ending without letting you know until afterwards you’re going to have to pay extra. Sometimes as much as ten dollars.

I THOUGHT IT WAS COMPED

Seriously though.

We can’t allow metooism to fall prey to his sort of dumbness.

Metooism is the most powerful meme of our generation, and if it continues unabated, it is going to bring down the entire system.

Very easy for Ben Shapiro to talk about the merits of individualism when he himself is a participant in and the beneficiary of 3,000 years of collectivism. The same goes for Bret Stephens, Bill Kristol, Charles Krauthammer, even Milton Friedman for that matter.

People should stop saying Nick Fuentes is a cuck.

He isn’t a cuck.

He is an optics extremist. But he keeps it real.

And people be like “Anglin, he insulted you tho!”

Okay, that probably happened. Fine. Whatever. Maybe he feels he needs to do that, or maybe he is too dumb to understand the importance of what we are doing here as far as THE OVERTON WINDOW and MASS PUBLIC DESENSITIZATION. Or maybe he just hasn’t looked into it.

Whatever. I don’t care.

I am not so shallow as to judge people by what they think of me. At least not exclusively. Yes, generally, if a person understands what we are doing here on this site, that raises my opinion of him. But again, there is a very good chance he does understand what we are doing here, but feels a need to disavow anyway.

Whatever the case, what he is doing is very, very good.

I don’t know if he will be the man to do this job, ultimately, but he is the first guy to come out with a plan to do this job. And this is something I have personally been waiting for as long as I’ve been doing this site. It is absolutely necessary.

I might have done it myself even. But the thing is, what I am doing is necessary—absolutely necessary—and most intelligent people didn’t, back in 2013, understand the necessity of what I am doing with this site. One would think that at this point, given the overwhelming, ongoing successes of what we’ve done here, everyone would now understand it.

But again—whatever. I am fully able to understand the objective necessity of what he is doing, whether he understands the necessity of what I am doing or not.

I don’t expect the DS audience to be interested in this guy. But try to understand him.

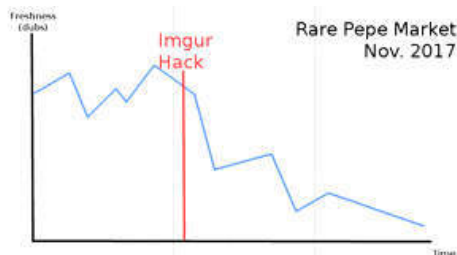

He doesn’t cuck on any issue. He just presents things in a very specific way.

That is all.

Imgur Hacked! Rare Pepe Market in Jeopardy! SELL SELL SELL!!!

This is devastating news.

There's been a lot of major hacks over the past year. But none have hurt as much as this one. After all, it sucks to have your address, phone number and financial data stolen by criminals, but most people are wise enough to keep their most precious resources in a safe place.

Indeed, Imgur has been the trusted safekeeper of many people's precious rare Pepe stash for years now.

Having such a crucial part of the meme economic infrastructure compromised shakes the public's trust in the long-term prospect of dank memes as a reliable repository of value. As a result, the Pepe market, once a bastion of the meme economy, is in free fall.

Gizmodo:

2017's unending parade of major companies and web destinations suffering through major breaches of user information has not slowed down. Image-sharing site Imgur revealed it had been hacked several years ago this week, with the details of approximately 1.7 million accounts lost in 2014 to hackers who have not been identified.

Per ZDNet, this hack may be less of a reason for concern for many of the users involved as Imgur only collects email addresses and passwords, rather than any other personally identifiable information like physical addresses, phone numbers or credit card data. In a blog post on Friday, the company said it was "still actively investigating the incident," but it had determined that its database "may have been cracked with brute force due to an older hashing algorithm (SHA-256) that was used at the time."

What kind of retards do they have writing at Gizmodo?

Did this guy even check the Pepe prices?

While some delusionally hope that the market will recover and still post high prices, most Pepees are now going for pennies on the dollar.

Imgur says it subsequently updated his database to use the the newer bcrypt algorithm, which is significantly harder to break, in 2016.

In particular, users who use the same password on multiple sites (which is probably most people) or those who uploaded personally identifiable content to Imgur—like, say, anyone who may have uploaded nude photos of themselves for distribution on Reddit—should be interested in changing their passwords. Still, this is much less devastating than some of the very serious hacks to occur recently, like the leak of over 145 million Americans' personal information from credit rating agency Equifax, or a major Uber data breach that the company covered up by allegedly paying the hackers $100,000.

Some people are speculating that the after effects could be worse than the Israeli market crash of 2015.

If I had to bet, I'd say the hackers responsible for this are probably bitter Jews who lost all their shekels in 2015 and are now trying to ruin it for everyone else.
